

'AT "KANGAROO COURT" SESSION-Baltimore: Frank "Judge" Robinson, the Baltimore Orioles' proud and competitive leader, presides over a "kangaroo court" session where players unwind and laugh at themselves. Fines for fun infractions are usually $1.00. Money collected was to go for a post-session party. Recently, however, about $500 from the kitty was donated to an educational fund for the children of Cincinnati Reds' Pat Corrales, whose wife died in childbirth this year. (UPI).

Apex News

BY MRS. LOUISE COLVIN

APEX - The senior choir of First Baptist Church was in charge of the devotion for the 11 o'clock worship service. The soloist was Mrs. Lottie Page. Her accompanist at the organ was Mrs. E. H. Williams.

The pastor, Rev. J. E. Perkins, delivered an interesting sermon. His text was taken from the Book of St. Matthew 8:18, using for his theme, "When Comes Jesus." Visitors are always welcome to attend our services.

Sunday at 7:30 p.m., the junior choir of First Baptist observed its 1st anniversary. The scripture was read by Elverda Bullock; prayer was offered by Donald Richardson; a poem by Josette Price. The history was read by Dwight Wright. Then the entire service was turned over to Bro. Ed Hall and the Evening Five. The fellows sang from the bottom of their hearts. It was highly enjoyed by all. We greatly appreciate the Gospel Jubilees of Morrisville for appearing on the program. The director of the junior choir, Miss Floya Cotton, and members thank all who supported them in such a fine way.

Sunday at 2 p.m., a birthday dinner, in honor of Mrs. Carcellar Horton, was given at her home by her children. This was done in observance of her 80th birthday. The granddaughter, Miss Julia Ann Horton, welcomed the many kinfolk and friends on behalf of the Horton family. Rev. J. E. Perkins read the scripture. Mrs. Clara Balentine of Raleigh offered the prayer. Ronald Richardson and Dwight Wright, both grandsons of Mrs. Horton, sang "Amazing Grace" and a niece, Mrs. Ann Safford, of New York sang "Precious Lord, Take My Hand." They performed beautifully. Miss Floya Cotton was organist. The tables and chairs were nicely arranged on the lawn to accommodate all of the guests. The birthday cake was a huge one, beautifully decorated. The food was delicious and plentiful. Pictures were taken of Mrs. Horton, along with her 9 children, who were home for the occasion. The sons present were Messers Loomis, Sr., McKinley, Eugene, Matthew, Jr., Joseph, William, Sr., and Aus-

by. Unable to attend were Rev. Elijah Horton, Rev. Henry Horton and Wade. The daughters present were Mrs. Doris Richardson and Mrs. Gussie Cain. The other daughter, Mrs. Grace Hawkins will arrive sometime this week. This family is so thankful to God for blessing them to still have their mother around and she is not confined to the bed. Her many friends congratulate Mrs. Horton and agree with the family that it is a blessing indeed to have a friend and mother to man others as Mrs. Horton. We ask God's continued blessing on her and the family.

Feltonville News

BY MRS. MARY MOSS

Sunday School opened at the regular hour at the Felton Grove Church, after which morning services were held. Mrs. Iola Mason delivered an inspiring message as did the pastor, Rev. O. D. Davis. During the evening at 7:30, revival began with the speaker being Rev. Pauline Richardson of Apex. Her text was taken from the 23rd Psalm and her subject was "The Lord Is My Shepherd." The revival will continue throughout the week with different speakers nightly. Visitors were Mrs.

Iola Mason, Mrs. Amalie Cargue and Mr. Buck Alston. Our sick and shut-ins are Jeffery Smith, who is in the hospital at Chapel Hill, Mr. James Precell and Mr. John Lee Cozart. Your prayers would be appreciated.

Happy birthday greetings go out to Mrs. Marguerite Brailsford, Mr. Charles Baker, Charles Cozart, Kenneth McClain, Cassandra McClain, Terry McClain, Betty Burnette and Stanley Hayes.

PERSONAL
Mr. Leroy Walter Hayes of Chapel Hill visited Mrs. Estelle Cozart Sunday.

Ethnic Course

NEW YORK-(NPI)-City College will inaugurate this fall its new department of urban and ethnic studies, under the chairmanship of Prof. Osborne E. Scott, 53-year-old alumnus of Hampton Institute, Oberlin and Teachers (Columbia University) Colleges. The initial offerings will be course in Afro-American and Hispano-American history and culture, with expansion courses dealing with the economics and psychology of the slums.

The Veterans Administration estimates that there will be 685,000 veterans enrolled in college or on-the-job training this fall, 125,000 more than participated under the GI Bill last year.

Currents Events Baffler

BY NEGRO PRESS INTERNATIONAL

Today's Baffler tests your reactions to people whose views, actions, and backgrounds are different from yours.

There are no "right" or "wrong" answers. Just be honest and avoid giving answers because they would seem to be the expected response.

For scoring, see the end of the Baffler. Here's the multiple-choice quiz:

1. If you wear a natural hair-style, what is your opinion of those who do not? Conversely, if you do not wear a natural hair-style, what is your opinion of those who do?

--A. Those "freaks" had better get with it.

--B. Everyone is entitled to "do his own thing."

--C. Maybe I'd better switch to their style, which is now "in."

2. If someone said, "All Uncle Toms should be shot," what would be your reaction?

--A. I would agree; Uncle Toms have forfeited their right to live by selling out.

--B. I would disagree with the speaker's intolerance and viciousness; or maybe I would ignore the silly remark.

--C. In order to avoid a quarrel, I would say I agree, though I actually disagree.

3. Whites are:

--A. Devils.

--B. Humans.

--C. Superior.

4. Black militants:

--A. Are the only Blacks worth listening to.

--B. Are sometimes right and sometimes wrong.

--C. Should be given their way, since they have the power.

5. If a friend married a white person, what would your reaction be?

--A. I would rebuke him (or maybe dissociate myself from him) for selling out the race.

--B. I would respect his right to make his own marital decisions.

--C. I would envy him for moving up in the world.

SCORING:

Count three (3) points for each A; two (2) points for each B; and one (1) point for each C.

If you scored 13-15, you are likely to be intolerant of other people (and of yourself as well).

You tend to believe that only people who agree with you have a right to exist. Your intolerance seems to serve your interests, but it usually works against you by making you concentrate on trying to make others share your views when what you need is more stress on cultivating what is best for yourself, do.

If you scored 8-12, you are likely to be tolerant -- but not too tolerant.

You tend to "normalize everyone's rights to do his own thing," and you tend to demand that they conform to your pattern, or feel free to conform to theirs. You tend to be a happy medium between bigotry and cowardice.

If you scored 5-7, you are too tolerant -- so that you are spineless.

You are likely, in many situations, to "go along" with others' views and actions as the "easiest way out." You need more self-regard and self-respect-which will bring you more regard and respect from others.

Veterans enrolling in college for the first time--or who have changed their program or school--must obtain a Certificate of Eligibility from the VA and submit it to the college registrar, who in turn completes it and forwards the certificate to the VA.
