Holly Springs News

BY BETTY MERRITT
HOLLY SPRINGS - Morning services were held at the United Church of Christ where the pastor, Rev. John H. Jones, presided. The service began at 10 a.m. with Baptism, Rev. Jones, with the assistance of Rev. A. R. Johnson, baptized twenty-five persons.

The pastor took his text for the morning sermon from the Gospel of St. John 6:67-68 and used as a theme, "Stay With Jesus And Jesus Will Stay With You." The senior choir rendered music, with Mrs. Cora Lassiter accompanying. Holy Communion was included in the service.

Mrs. Franklin Perkins was visited by her nieces and nephews from Florida last week. Our town and community welcome all visitors.

The Holly Springs Community wishes to express its deepest sympathy to the family of the late Mrs. Ella J. Baldwin, who passed last Tuesday.

Mrs. Baldwin was the daughter of the late Mr. Finner and Mrs. Emma Williams. She was born on May 13, 1918 in Wake County. She passed away August 28 at Wake Memorial Hospital, Raleigh, where she had been a patient for two months.

She was converted at an early age and united with the Holly Springs Christian Church where she was faithful until her health failed her.

Mrs. Baldwin was united in Holy Matrimony to Mr. Essit E. Baldwin on December 24, 1937. To this union were born five children. She was a devoted wife and a loving sister. In the community, she devoted much of her time to the children. Her beautiful smile and comforting words will every be cherished in our memory.

She is survived by her husband, Mr. Essit Baldwin, one adopted daughter, Wanda Jean Baldwin, eight sisters, Mrs. Bertha Walker, Mrs. Sarah Williams, Mrs. Virginia Burt, Mrs. Grace Howard and Mrs. Terry Lee Smith of Raleigh, Mrs. Susie McKinnie and Mrs. Lillie Mae McKinnie of Holly Springs, and Mrs. Mary Tucker of Brooklyn, N. Y., one aunt, Mrs. Julie Jay Matthews and a host of other relatives and friends.

Let us continue to pray for our sick and shut-ins. Home recuperating from operations are Mrs. Coretta Merritt and
