Jailed Ex-Student Was Denied Re-Admittance

SCLC's Rev. Abernathy

Blames White Church For Ills

North Carolina's Leading Weekly

VOL. 28. NO. 48

RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1969

SINGLE COPY 15ct

Panthers 'Warn' C

National Fraternal Body

Blasts Nixon's Policies

'Watching Outcome: Panthers

WINSTON - SALEM-Black Panthers here warned Sunday that they may become militant if they are not complete-I ly satisfied with the outcome of a case in which a white jailer and two black youths are all accused of assault.

The original hearing in the case, scheduled for Monday of this week, was postponed by the presiding judge for two weeks. After reportedly scuffling in the Forsyth County Jail here, assault charges where placed against Deputy Sheriff Clayton G. Cline, Lee O. Kirby, 18, and his unnamed 15-year-old brother.

Reports state that the fighting broke out when Kirby attempted to intercede in the jailing of his younger brother, who was charged with discharging fireworks on Friday, September 12.

Some twenty Black Panthers' attended a meeting with the local chapter of the National Associa-(See PANTHERS, P 2)

Compares Church To Ambulance

ST. PETERSBURG. Fla.-(NPI) - The white church of America has been "taillighting" too long, was one of the impressive, terse, down -to-earth utterances of Dr. Ralph David Abernathy, president, Southern Christian Leadership Conference, who was in town as a speaker before a national Baptist. Dr. Abernathy spoke in no un-

(See ABERNATHY, P. 2)

DEMAND MORE CONSTRUCTION JOBS - Chicago: Hundreds of black demonstrators demanding more employment in the contruction industry, gather by the Picasso Statue Monday before marching in a "Black Monday" demonstration to the Building Trades Council's offices. (UPI).

NAACP To Honor Mayor Lee, Rep. Frye

DURHAM-The 26th Annual N. C. NAACP Conference Convention meeting here October 9-11 will honor two Negroes who have attained national prominence in Tarheelia in the political arena

during 1968-'69. WEATHER REPORT

Temperatures during the period, Thursday through Monday, will average near normal, except below normal in the exreme southwest portion of North Carolina. Daytime highs will range from the low 70s in the southwest portion to the upper 70s and low 80s elsewhere. It will be mild Thursday, turning cooler Friday and Saturday with a clow varming trend ay ing cooler Friday and Saturday with a slow warming trend expected Sunday and Monday. Precipitation will average one-half inch in the mountains, ranging to an inch along the coast, occurring as showers and thundershowers Thursday and Friday and again Sunday and Monday.

THE MAN RESPONSIBLE?-Cambridge, Mass.: Welfare protestors Mrs. Barbara Delaney (R)

of Roxbury section of Boston, mother of four, looks back at Health, Education, and Welfare

(HEW) Secy. Rebert Finch (L), during her talk. About 60 protestors mounted the stage as the Secretary delivered a speech, took over the microphone, and demanded he use his influence a minimum family income of more than $5,000 a year, (UPI).

They are Representative to the N. C. Legislature Hon. Henry E. Frye from Greensboro, the first person of color to serve in the legislature in this century: (He even succeeded in getting a bill passed during the 1969 session,) and Hon, Howard Lee, Mayor of Chapel Hill, the first of his race to so serve in a predominantly White town in the state.

NAACP's honors will be bestowed upon these worthles at the NAACP Freedom Fund dinner on Saturday night at the Durham Hotel, convention headquarters. Tickets to this affair are ten dollar ($10) each and can be secured from the local branch officials in advance. Proceeds will go toward to the NAACP freedom fund and

(See STATE NAACP. P. 8)

Letteris Sent To

BALTIMORE, Md.-Delegates attending the 55th Anniversary National Convention of the Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, recently concluded in Baltimore, Maryland, re-elect Dr. Alvin J. McNeil, professor of Special Studies and Dean of Prairie View College, Prairie View, Texas, national president of the 55-year-old National Black Greek Lettered TV 06 50. collegiate society, then went on to underscore the Nixon Administration for its "do any- Charging that the Hyde Counconcerned.

The delegates also voiced dissatisfaction over what they (See BLASTS NIXON, P. 2)

Mrs. Koontz To Durham For NAACP

DURHAM - Mrs. Elizabeth Koontz, Director of the Women's Bureau in the Department of Labor, will be the principle speaker for the regular monthly meeting of the Durham Branch, NAACP which will be held Sunday, September 28 at the Community Baptist Church on Barbee Road

Mrs. Koontz, the first Negro to head the Women's Bureau will explain a proposal by the federal government to improve the economy of minorities. Durham is considered a model city to set-up a training pro-

(See MRS. KOONTZ, P. 2)

Threats To Law Dean

DURHAM - Egbert Langston Addison, 27, of Gary. Indiana, nas been charged with setting the fire which cause an estimated $500,000 damage and destroyed most of the books in the law library at North Carolina Central University here about midnight last Friday. He is a former law student at the institution.

The fire was not brought under control until 1:30 a.m. Dr. Albert Whiting, president of NCCU, disclosed Friday that as far as officials of the school could tell, most of the 32,000 volumes in the law library were burned up. About 10,000 were saved, it was later learned.

Whiting said heaviest damage was done to the library on the first floor of the three-story building. Smoke and water badly damaged the two other floors.

Spare classrooms and an auditorium were used Friday by law students and faculty. Officials said the program of the law school would continue uninterrupted in temporary quarters. Some ninety students are enrolled in the law facili-

"We hope to work out something with neighboring univer- are: sities (UNC-Chapel Hill and Duke-Durham) on using their law libraries," Dr. Whiting stated.

The fire was started by setting fire to pages torn from books in the library, firemen Addison was picked up near thing, go slow policy" ty Board of Education has prewhere human and civil astrophe," a special comrights of Blacks are mittee of the National Education Association is urging the board to devise a desegregation plan which would not close formerlly all-Negro schools.

(See EX-STUDENT, P. 2)

It this report summarizing an eight-month study of racial conflict in the Hyde County school system, the NEA committee recommends that the county's two black schools be used as elementary schools on a desegregated basis and that one white school serve as a high school for secondary pupils of both races, A fourth county school, on remote Ocracoke Island, was not included in the study.

The desegregation plan formulated by the school board in May 1968, and submitted to the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, cails for the phasing out of the county's two Negro schools over a three-year period and the ab-sorption of all Negro pupils into the white school.

Protest by Negro parents and repeated refusals by the school board to alter its proposed plan produced a year-long boycott of the schools by the county's more (See NEA ASKS. P. 2)

Anyone having current PINK tickets, dated Sept. 20, 196., with proper numbers, present same to The CAROLINIAN office and receive amounts listed above from the SWEEPSTAKES Feature

Two Claim Sweepstakes Cash

A man and a woman, respectively, captured the first and third prizes last week in the Sweepstakes promotion.

Atlas Perry, 908 E. Martin Street, shopped at Hudson-Belk's 208 Shop, Fayetteville Street, where he received number 760 first prize, worth $20 when he presented it at the offices of The CAROLINIAN. This was the first time that Mr. Perry had ever won the Sweepstakes. Mrs. Juanita Ellis, Route 1, 30x 360, Garner, Patronized Carter's, Inc., 19 E. Martin There she received Street. number 1509, third prize, for which she was awarded $5 in cash by this newspaper.

To be valid this week, tickets must be pink in color and dated September 20, 1969.

Number 2010, first prize, is worth $10; 7, second, $15; and 3056, third, will bring its holder the sume of $2.50.

Patronize business which advertise in The CAROLINIAN. They welcome and appreciate your calling on them. Kindly inform them that you saw their ad in this newspaper.

Sweepstakes advertising may be found on page 12 of this edition. Look them over, then visit these merchants as well as other CAROLINIAN advertisers, and be sure to inform them that you saw their ads in this newspaper.

NCCU LAW SCHOOL FIRE DAMAGE-Damage figures were not complete Monday as cleaning up of the debris left by the disastrous fire at North Carolina Central University's law school began. The fire, early Friday morning, destoryed as estimated $500,000 worth of law books, including irreplaceable volumes dating from the 18th century. A former NCCU law student was

First Ten Winners In RCA's Record Album Contest Named

The first ten winners of RCA record albums were announced this week by The CAROLINIAN. The promotion was introduced two weeks ago with the beginning of the Choose Your "Hit-Of-The-Week" Contest.

bour, 3509 Fayetteville Road,

Raleigh; W. M. Gilliam, 408 Cecil Street, Durham; Oscar

Toon, Tropoli Street, Durham;

and Ware W. Mongo, 220 Barn-

Persons who will receive free RCA records albums in the mail in the very near future

ilkins, 3 Others To Be Cited

NEW YORK, N. Y.-The A-merican Jewish Congress' top hill Street, Durham. honor, the annual Stephen S. Wise Awards, will be presented to three distinguished recipients for 1969: Israel's Ambassador to the United States, Gen. Yitzhak Rabin; Roy Wilkins, executive director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colord People; and Bernard B. Zients, president of Gimbels, New York, and a leading philanthropist. The awards will be made at a dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel Sunday evening, October 26.

General Rabin will be honored for "distinguished service in the cause of Israel." Mr. Wilkins will be cited for "advancing human free-

Mr. Zients will be named for "dynamic leadership in Jewish life."

Rabbi Arthur J. Lelyveld of Cleveland, O., president of the American Jewish Congress, will present the award to Mr. Wilkins. Shad Polier, chairman, of the Congress' National Governing Council, will make the presentation to Ambassador Rabin, Benjamin S. Kalnick, a national vice president of AJ-(See WILKINS TO. P. 2)

The Crime FROM RALEIGH'S OFFICIAL POLICE FILE

THREATENS MAN'S LIFE

George Edward Cantey, 22, 2706 Roberts Street, told Officer K. J. Johnson at 5:01 p.m. Wednesday, that he was at the home of his grandmother, 106 Glover Lane, when a man at 105 Glover Lane told him that he was going to shook him. He said the man then went back inside his house, returned with a rifle, pointed it at him and chambered one round of ammunition. Mitchell Huntley, 43, 105 Glover Lane, was identified by Cantey as the assailant. Cantey signed as assault with a deadly weapon warrant and Huntley was jailed.

WOMAN FACES CHARGE

John Stephen Taylor, 4501 Poole Road, a white humane officer, informer Officer J. D. Hedrick at 9:31 a.m. last Tuesday, that he was attempting to place a dog in the back of his truck with the help of Miss Rose Lee Davis, 51, 1110 Oakwood Avenue. As he attempted to close the door of the truck, he stated, Miss Davis got in the way and the dog escaped. He said the woman then started cursing and struck him on the arm. He signed as assault and battery warrant and the woman was placed in jail under a bond of $100.

(See CRIME BEAT, P. 3)

Miss Virginia Dale Jones. The record albums feature 215 Welcome Avenue, Hendersuch personalities as Harry Belafonte, Carolyn Franklin son; George Bass, 2704 S. Roxboro Street, Durham; Miss Charley Pride, the Friends of Cheryl L. Stewart, 314 E. Als-Distinction, Leontyne Price, Aton Street, Durham; Joseph H. manda Ambrose, Nina Simone Monroe, 504 E. Pettigrew St., and many others. Be sure to enter each week. Durham; Miss Geraldine White, Route 2, Box 36-A, LaGrange; You may submit as many cou-Napoleon Blakely, 2810 S. Roxpons as you like. boro Street, Durham; Brad Bar-

You, too, can win a free RCA album. All you have to do is read The CAROLINIAN, fill out the coupon on Page 5 of this RCA tabloid edition and mail it to

The CAROLINIAN, 518 E. Martin Street, Raleigh, N. C.

As Dental Instructor

Lewis has been appointed an instructor in the School of Dentistry at the University of North Carolina here.

The announcement was made by Dr. James W. Bawden, dean of the Dental School.

Dr. Lewis will instruct in the Division of Hospital Dentistry

DR. JAMES R. LEWIS

in the Department of Dental

Ecology. A native of Asheboro, Dr. Lewis is a graduate of North Carolina Central University at Durham were he received the bachelor of science degree in chemistry. His professional Upon completion of professional training, Dr. Lewis com-(See UNC NAMES, P 2) Minority

College of Dentistry, Howard

University, Washington, D. C.

where he earned the doctor of dental surgery degree in 1968.

Confab Set October 13

WASHINGTON, D. C .- Secretary of Commerce Maurice H. Stans Friday announced that the first meeting of the new Ad-visory Council on Minority Enterprise will be held on October 13 at the White House. President Nixon announced formation of the 63-member Council yesterday. The Prestdent is expected to confer with the Council during its meeting.

The Council has been created as an advisory body of the Office of Minority Business Enterprise in the Department of Commerce. OMBE is mounting a national program to marshal and coordinate public and private resource to achieve greater opportunites for minority peoples in business ownership and management.

'This Council represents an (See CONFABSET, P.2)

POLICE ARREST ASSOCIATION HEAD-Seattle, Wesh.: Police arrested Tyree E. Scott, president of the Central Contractors Association, Wednesday guring a demonstration by black contractors and their supporter at a University of Washington construction site where site where earlier they had damaged heavy equipment, (UPI).