HOLLY SPRINGS - Morning services were held at the First Baptist Church where the Rev. Griswold of Kirtland presided. He also delivered the morning message. The right hand of fellowship was extended to the candidates and Holy Communion was served. Music was rendered by the senior choir.

Douglas Chapel also held morning service with the pastor, Rev. Frank L. Rush, in charge. He delivered quite a heart-searching message. Music was rendered by the intermediate choir.

The Usher Board of First Baptist sponsored a musical program Sunday evening. Rev. John H. Jones, pastor of the United Church of Christ, gave some very helpful remarks.

At 8 p.m., we returned to Douglas Chapel for a musical program. Along with the Capital City Five, were the Voices of Harmony and the Daughters of Zion. Are enjoyed a fine affair.

The town of Holly Springs wishes to welcome all visitors. Visiting this week are Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Coffield, and family, Mrs. Cora Dewar, Mrs. Henry Johnson and Miss Rozella Norris.

Let us continue to pray for our sick and shut-ins. Recuperating from an operation is Mrs. Dorothy Hunter. Also on our sick list are Mrs. Christine Johnson and Mrs. Maria Robinson.

Angier News

BY MRS. POLLY TAYLOR

ANGIER - Woman's Day services were observed on Sunday morning at Williams Chapel AME Zion Church. Rev. William M. Freeman is pastor. Worship service began immediately after Sunday School with Mrs. A. G. Freeman as mistress of ceremony. The junior choir rendered music for the occasion. Scripture was read by Mrs. Polly Taylor. Prayer was offered by Mrs. Edoshia Blacklock. A presentation of a corsage of red roses was made by Mrs. Maude Cutts to the speaker, Mrs. Christine Black of Fuquay-Varina. Mrs. Black delivered a very spiritual message. She chose her text from the Book of Proverbs, 31st chapter. Her subject was "Every Wise Woman Feareth the Lord." She admonished her listeners to stand for right and righteousness; to seek Jesus first; to feart God for He is able to do all things. We are living in a changing society. God will never change.

Sgt. E/5 James M. Howerton, Jr., who is stationed in Alaska, is home on an emergency leave for two weeks with relatives. He is the son of Mr. James Howerton.

Lincolnton

BY CAROLYN BRASWELL

ASBURY - Sunday School opened at 9:50 with the supt., Bro. Charles Rogers, presiding. The opening hymn was "Calling Today." Prayer was offered by Bro. Rogers. The second hymn was "I Must Tell Jesus." The subject of the lesson was "How A King Lost the Kingdom." It was taken from the Book of I Kings. A review of the lesson was made by Bro. Rogers. The banner class and banner attendance class were the same, classes 2 and 3. Teachers are Miss Nellie McKnight and Mr. Melvin Hooker.

Morning worship services opened at 11 with Rev. E. M. Jenerette presiding. The jun-

FUQUAY-VARINA - Sunday School was held at all local churches with the superintendents in charge of the devotions.

First Baptist Church opened Sunday School at 10 a.m. with the supt., Mr. Alford Thorpe, in charge. The subject of the lesson was "A Kingdom Collapses the Bible," from I King 10:25. We were happy to have Mr. Nash Horton visiting our Sunday School. He gave some highlights of the lesson.

Morning worship services were held at St. Augusta Church where the pastor is Rev. J. M. Jackson. The message was delivered by the pastor. He chose his text from Corinthians 2:2

and entitled it "Won't None of These Things Move Me." Music was rendered by the gospel chorus.

A THOUGHT

O Lord, our minds are filled with worldly thoughts. Our hearts are filled with the lust of our own needs and desires. We are falling short of Your commandments. Dear Lord, please forgive us and spare our lives. We pray this, in Jesus' name, Amen.

WASHINGTON - Bobby Mitchell, the National Football League's second leading group gainer with 14,078, last week explained that he retired from active playing with the Washington Redskins recently because he "couldn't stand being on the team and being on the bench." The 'Skins gave Mitchell, who is second only to ex-Cleveland Browns' Jim Brown in the total-yardage department, a front-office job.
