Angier News

BY MRS. POLLY TAYLOR

ANGIER - The members of Williams Chapel AME Zion Church rendered worship service at Paradise Church in Manners, N. C. on Sunday evening, where Rev. James Jacobs is pastor. Rev. Rudolph Cutts, accompanied by the junior choir, delivered the message. He chose his text from St. Matthew 5:16 and used as a subject "Let Your Light Shine." Some excerpts from the message are: Hidden lights which serve no purpose when covered, sometimes the lights in our lives are covered with jealousy, malice and hatred which puts out our light. Hidden religion: There are some who want to hide their religion for they have back-slidden. Their lights went out soon after they covered them up. The lamp of the wicked shall be put out. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father which is in Heaven.
