THE CRIME BEAT

BEATEN AND ROBBED

George Dewey Clements, 2315 Garner Road, told Officer R. F. Perry at 1:37 a.m. Saturday, that Leroy Bryant, 20, 325 S. Blount Street, was struck in the face by three men in front of 817 S. Blount, and the attackers ran south on Blount. The cop was unable to get descriptions of the three, Blount, who lost $70 in cash to the trio, was admitted to Wake Memorial Hospital with a laceration of the mouth and a fracture of the left thumb.

STRIKES WIFE BY MISTAKE

Raymond Williams, 13 Shaw Court, reported to Officer Robert Tant at 6:07 a.m. Saturday, that he was in his house when a man came to his door. He said he knew the man to be one of three persons who had taken his check earlier, so he opened the door and, at the same time, swung an axe. He told the officer that he tried to kill the man when his wife, Mrs. Alice Page Williams, 40, same address, walked in the way and was struck by the weapon. She suffered a bruise on the right side. No action was taken.

GLASSES "SWIPED"

Mrs. Catherine Hinton, Route 3, Box 265, reported to Officer W. A. Blackman at 1:03 p.m. Saturday, that she in Mangel's Store on Fayetteville Street trying on some dresses in the dressing room. She said another colored woman was also in the room at the time. When she started trying the dress on, Mrs. Hinton stated, she took off her glasses and laid them on a bench. When she was finished, her glasses and the other woman were gone. She said she later saw the person riding down S. Blount Street, wearing the glasses. The eyeglasses were valued at $60.

CUT ON LEG

Miss Marie Holder, 934 Rock Quarry Road, told Officer J. C. King at 2:29 a.m. Saturday, that she and her boyfriend, Alonza Jennings, 59, same address, had an argument at their house and as she walked past him into the house, he cut her on the left leg with a knife. She suffered a one and one-half inch laceration of the thigh. No other action was listed.

Steve Rene Labat, an employee of Hudson-Belk Company, 319 Fayetteville Street, informed Officer W. F. Booth at 1:33 p.m. Saturday, that Miss Ernestine Wilder, 1628 Abron Street, went into the dressing room with two blouses, concealed one in a shopping bag and returned the other one. The young woman was charged with larceny of one light blue ladies' blouse, valued at $3.99.

STRUCK WITH BRICK

Mrs. Ida Mae Perry, 43, 1104 1/2 Mark Street, reported to Officers N. A. Carter and B. E. Tucker at 7:41 p.m. Friday, that William Henry Perry, 58, S. Bloodworth St., came to her house about 7:25 p.m. An argument ensued, she said, and Perry struck her in the mouth with a brick. Mrs. Perry, who suffered a one-half inch laceration of the lip, said she would sign an assault with a deadly weapon warrant against Mr. Perry.

SHOOTS SELF ON DARE

Haywood James Sanders, 602 Walnut Street, told Officer R. W. Miller at 6:37 a.m. Sunday, that he had a bet on with an unknown subject that he would not shoot himself. Sanders said he then proceeded to shoot himself in the palm of his left hand, the .22 calibre pistol going through his flesh. He was taken to Wake Memorial Hospital, also by an unknown subject, treated and released Sunday afternoon.

FALSE PRETENSE CAUGHT

An official of Jimmy's 66 Service Station, 2120 S. Wilmington St., called police headquarters at 11 p.m. Sunday, regarding what he believed to be a case of false pretense.

Officers P. L. Harrell and W. R. Vaughn talked to Samuel D. Garner, 31, 1359 Walnut St., who told them he was authorized by Winn-Dixie's warehouse to obtain $15 in cash and a tank of gasoline at this station. When one of the officers tried to check this by radio, Garner ran and jumped into his car and left the scene. "We found him at 1359 Walnut Terrace, hiding behind the refrigerator," according to the officers' statements. He was charged with false pretense. Upon further investigation, it was discovered that a warrant was on file for the subject for

RAILROAD MAN STRUCK

Charles Herbert Hagwood, 35-year-old white resident of 1005 Meadowbrook, told Officer W. F. Booth at 11:01 a.m. Tuesday of last week, that he was riding on a boxcar for the railroad company for which he works. He said at the Wilmington Street Bridge, two young colored males threw bricks, one striking him on the chest. He then caught onto the next car to keep from falling off, he said. No trace of the brick throwers could be found. He suffered a bruise on the right upper chest.

DEMANDS MONEY BACK

Fred Carl Stokes, an employee of the Union Bus Terminal Restaurant, 217 W. Morgan St., reported to Officer P. E. Braswell at 5:56 a.m. Saturday, that a colored man and woman, both about 20 years of age, came to the counter and ordered a sandwich. They were served, he said, and took the sandwich to a booth. In a short time, they brought the sandwich back and asked for a refund on it. Stokes said he told them that as soon as he made another sale, he would refund their money. At that time, Stokes declared, the woman demanded her money, but he asked her to wait. Stokes said at this time, both she and the man pushed the pie case from the counter and ran out the rear of the station. He said the woman was dressed in slacks and a brown sweater, while the man wore dark clothes. Damage to the pie case was $18, and to its contents,

RADIO TAKEN

Mrs. Beatrice Williams Thompson, 1501 New Bern Ave., reported to Officer R. E. Tant at 9:09 a.m. Friday, that she left a radio in her house last Thursday morning. When she went to get it Friday morning, she said, the radio was missing. She searched the house, but was unable to find it. She said several of her friends had seen a youth, about 14, who lives on Dakar Street, in the vicinity of her house, carrying a radio of the same description about 2:30 p.m. Thursday. The solid State AM-FM radio was valued at $50.

According to the license number, the car is registered to Jeanne Blackman Johnson, Box 614, Four Oaks. The Philco radio is valued at $24.

For Garden Clubs
Durham Chosen As Convention Site

RICH SQUARE - Durham has been chosen as the convention site for the 61st annual meeting of the North Carolina Federation of Negro Women's Clubs, President F. T. Newsome announced last week.

In making the announcement, Mrs. Newsome said the Downtown Motel would be the headquarters for the three day meeting June 11-13.

Mrs. Newsome also named the convention committee which will be charge of planning, arrangements and services. Members include Mrs. Helen Jones, Durham, Mrs. Esmeraldo Hawkins, Rocky Mount, Mrs. Bertha Thompson, Lumberton, Miss Iona Henderson, Hickory, vice presidents; President Newsome, Mrs. Willie Moultrie, Asheville, Mrs. S. T. Henley, Fayetteville, and Mrs. T. W. Moore, Rich Square.

Mrs. Newsome said that Durham was chosen because of the splendid contribution NCFNWC has received from the Central District which includes the host city. Also, Durham is the home of the Negro Braille magazine, which the federation has supported since it was started many years ago. Features of the annual meeting include a special "Recognition Night", President's Luncheon and election of officers for a two-year period. Additional plans are being finalized to make this one of the best conventions in the long life of the organization.
