WINS HONORARY SOCIETY

AWARD
Congratulations are in order for Mr. Carl Durham of 2104 Gilliam Lane, who received the Honorary Society Award at John W. Ligon High School, where he is a senior. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Durham of this city.
SYMPATHY EXTENDED
Our love and sympathy are extended to the Sanders and Byrd families in the death of their mother and sister, Mrs. Lillian Sanders, also the widow Sorrell family in the death of their mother, who lived to the ripe old age of 105 years. Our prayer is that God will sustain all of you in your hours of sorrow and will ever keep you in His care.
Note: Our many thanks to those of you who continue to call us from time to time. If you called us last Sunday and failed to get an answer, it was because we were in a meeting at Grace AME Zion Church, but thanks for the call.

Come to Church

Life is like a mountain railroad, with an engineer that is brave. We must make the run successful, from the cradle to the grave. Watch the curves, the hills, the tunnels. Never falter, never quail. Keep your hand upon the trolley and your eye upon the rail. You will roll up grades of trial; you will cross the bridge of strife. See that Christ is your conductor on this lightning rail of life. Always mindful of obstruction, do your duty. Never fail. Keep your hand upon the trolley and your eye upon the rail.
Dear God, our Heavenly Father, the day is Thine, the night also is Thine. The darkness and the light are both alike to Thee. Protect us through the hours of sleep, that our rest may refresh us in body and mind. Increase in us, O Lord, a true knowledge of Thy holy will, that we may devote ourselves to Thy service in word and deed. Grant us in this world, knowledge of Thy truth and in the world to come, life everlasting. We pray in His name, Amen.

The offering was lifted by the senior men ushers under the direction of Mr. Lorenza Sanders. A great sermon was preached by the pastor, Rev. D. L. Morrison.
CHURCH OF GOD - The early morning prayer meeting began at 6 p.m. and Sunday School followed at 9:30. The superintendent, Mr. Luther E. Perry was in charge. The lesson for the Bible class was "The Lord God or Baal."
The morning worship services began at 11 with the pastor, Rev. Sister N. A. Ford, bringing the message. "The Three Calls of God," was her subject from the Books of Acts, Thessalonians and Romans. This was a wonderful doctrinal message.
Evening worship began at 7 with the speaker, Rev. Ford. Her subject was "Results of Continued Prayer." This was a message that we could witness with our hearts. Special music was rendered by our trio Sisters E. Foreman, O. Adams and G. Evans. During the evening service Bro. Ford along with Miss Gloria Upperman, at the organ and Mrs. R. Price Hunter at the piano, made all feel welcome to the House of God.
Activities for the week: Tuesday night at 8 p.m.; choir rehearsal; Wednesday - 8 p.m.; mid-week prayer service; and 4:30 p.m. Thursday, Youth Fellowship meeting. On Friday, during the afternoon, the youth choir will meet. All members and young people are urged to attend their respective meetings and participate in the activities.
Our closing thought: "Sweet hour of prayer, that calls us from a world of care, and birds meet my Father's throne. Make all my wants and wishes known." Mrs. R. Price Hunter is reporter.

pastor. The senior choir was in charge of the music. The mission prayer was by Deacon Dudley. The pastor delivered a wonderful message from St. Matthew 26:31 and 75. His theme was "Remember." Mr. Delma Hodge was home for service. He is serving in the U. S. Army. Offertory prayer was led by Deacon Collins. You are cordially invited to worship with us at all times. Services are held each second and fourth Sunday. Rev. James M. Harris of Durham is pastor.
RUSH METROPOLITAN - Church School began at 9:45 a.m. with the supt., Mr. Leslie Campbell, in charge. The Junior Church services were conducted by the pastor and the junior church leader, Mrs. Alda McCullers. The 11 a.m. worship services were also conducted by the pastor, Rev. T. H. Harris, being assisted by Bro. Neal Sanders. Music was rendered by the senior choir and spiritual chorus. Rev. Harris chose his text from St. John's gospel, the 15th chapter and the 13th and 14th verses. His subject was "In Christ All Mankind Has A Brother And A Friend."
At 7:30 p.m., the Community Chorus, the Smith Temple Chorus and Spiritual Chorus presented a musical program and a short play, entitled, "The Highway To Heaven," which was indeed a beautiful picture in that it depicted the many struggles and trials of life that one undergoes in trying to live as a Christian, trying to make it into the City called Heaven. More than $100.00 was realized. Mrs. Annie H. Thorpe is church reporter.

BY MRS. RUTH M. BETHEA
844 E. Lenoir St. PHONE 832-6389

We, as readers, should be eager each week to grasp thoughts that will fill our minds with worthwhile ideas.
We mention for instance, the recent speech of Mrs. Elizabeth Duncal Koozta, here and in Durham; that of Mr. Douglas F. Brown, Men's Day speaker at Manly Street United Church Sunday; Dr. Penne E. Perry, who was Woman's Day speaker at Martin Street Baptist Church.
Another thought-provoking idea is giving attention to the various church bulletin boards. Note what the ministers message is all about. Think how it may be applied to our lives.
We never want our sick friends and readers to feel that we have forgotten them, for we never will. We ask our readers to remember them in your prayers, with cards and visits where it is possible. The known sick are: Mr. A. E. Brown, 1014 S. Person St., Mr. W. R. Edmundson, 314 Smithfield St., Mrs. Fannie Williams, Room 2B9, Wake Memorial Hospital, Mr. Anderson James, 110 N. State St., Mrs. Isabella Muldrow, 506 Smithfield St., Mrs. Olessa Roberts, 916 S. Bloodworth St., Mrs. Florence Robinson, 919 S. State St., Mrs. Lucille Warren, A-1 Washington as an instructor and by Fayetteville State University as Visiting Instructor of Curriculum and Reading.
Presently, Mrs. Debnam is president of the Wake County Unit, North Carolina Teachers' Association, and chairman of the Division of Supervision, North Carolina Teachers' Association.
Mrs. Debnam is the wife of Henry D. Debnam, former principal of Spaulding High School and currently works as a social studies teacher in the Raleigh Public School System.
The public is invited to Mrs. Debnam's delivery.

Mrs. Debnam To Be Woman's Day Speaker

Scheduled Woman's Day speaker at Tupper Memorial Baptist Church will be Mrs. Caesarea D. Debnam. The observance is slated for 11 a.m. Sunday, October 19 at the church.
Mrs. Debnam holds the A. B. Degree from Shaw University and was awarded the M. A. Degree by Columbia University's Teacher College. She also received the Professional Diploma in Administration and Supervision from Columbia.
She has taught for many years in North Carolina on both the high school and college levels. She has been employed by the Durham Public School System

Your professional beautician knows the answer...

Is peroxide needed to color unwanted gray hair?

Hair care and beauty experts know that the first traces of gray hair—and even slight fading of natural color after chemical relaxing—can dull a woman's appearance and make her look older than she feels. While most women hate these premature aging effects, many are hesitant about using permanent peroxide haircoloring which may change the natural hair color white coloring gray.
Professionally-trained hairdressers know the importance of their customers' preferences when unwanted gray becomes a problem. These experts also know that Clairol created semi-permanent Loving Care® hair color lotion without peroxide... to color only the gray without changing the natural shade. They also find Loving Care blends back color faded by chemical processing. Because of its mildness, Loving Care maintains healthy looking hair and lasts through a month of shampoos.
Whatever a woman's reason for wanting Loving Care for her hair, she is always wise to consult a professional beautician. Hairdressers are equipped with a family of fine Clairol products and the training to promise each patron the loveliest and most personalized haircoloring effects every time she visits her salon. If you dislike gray, and want no peroxide, why not ask your beautician to glamorize it with Loving Care?
