OUR THOUGHT

THE TENDEREST HEART

The tenderest heart is not the heart,

That makes the greatest show;

But the one that comes in the hour of grief and helps to bear the blow.

The greatest life is never the one that of wondrous deeds can boast;

But the life that sweetens some other life and supplies its needs the most.

And the life most needed is not the one that climbs to the mightiest deeds;

But the one that helps another and gives it the love it needs.

And so our prayer is not for a share of the things the world calls great;

But the power to help some other on to a higher and happier state. - Author unknown.
