BY L. B. RUSSELL

HENDERSON - The regular monthly meeting of the Citizens Improvement Association was held last Thursday night at the Spring Street Baptist Church. The main address for the Association was delivered by the Rev. Arthur Poole, minister of the United Holiness Church. Rev. Poole put special emphasis on unity. He pointed out how and what we do in order to stick together. "To do this," he says, "we must put God in front." Visitors present in the meeting was Mr. James Y. Eaton, the son of the late J. Y. Eaton, who practiced law here for a number of years and was principal of the grade school now known as the Eaton Elementary School. Mr. James Yeoman commented on the remarks and message given by Rev. Poole.

After the regular routine of business, the president, Rev. A. L. Day, noted the presence of Mrs. C. C. Faucette, who is an instructor in the Adult Education classes. She told the adults that the second of three adult classes has been set up at the Spring Street Baptist Church. They are free and those who will take part can earn a high school diploma. Mathematics and English are being taught. Since there is room for more adults to be enrolled, this writer suggests that all adults whose literary training is below high school level should enroll immediately and take this course.

The Association made a donation to the Voters League for the operation of its school bus project. The president asked Rev. L. B. Russell to deliver the next address in the monthly meeting.

DEATHS

The old enemy of death has visited our city many times during the past week. Among those who have passed are Mr. R. Brooks Hawkins, formerly president of the Vance County Fair. He was the son of the late Annie C. Gill and Robert Hawkins.

Mrs. Minnie Gray Marrow, who died while attending a funeral at the Big Zion Methodist Church in Granville County, was buried Saturday in the Rowland Chapel Christian Church in Franklin County. The pastor, Rev. C. P. Meadows officiated. Mrs. Ellen Williams Mitchell died at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. Thomas Williams of 637 Vance St. Interment was in the Mitchell Chapel Baptist Church cemetery. Rev. J. A. Watson officiated.

Mrs. Mattie Gooch, the wife of Mr. Robert Gooch and who was confined for many days in the Granville Hospital departed this life.

Mr. Jerome Burt of 1528 Nicholas Street and the next door neighbor of this writer, was funeralized Sunday and buried in the Welcome Chapel Baptist Church where he often attended. Rev. L. B. Russell officiated.

ST. ANDREWS UNITED CHRISTIAN CHURCH NDWS BY MISS VICKIE FIELDS

Our Sunday School met at its usual time. We had 88 people present. There were 8 visitors. The title of the lesson was "The Lord God of Babel?" The lesson was found in I Kings.

Our second Sunday services started at 11. We had consecrational services until 11:30. Sister Mary Nicholson and Sister Cherry Terry opened that part of the service. MISS FIELDS Our mission offering was taken and Rev. Adams prayed. Our pastor, Rev. W. J. Wilson, then took over. The junior choir sang, "Praise Him," and "Standing On the Promises." Rev. Adams, a visiting minister, read the scripture from St. John, 8:6-11. Rev. Pompey Jones, also a visiting minister, offered prayer. The choir sang "At the Cross," and "He Will Supply Your Need." Our pianist for the day was Sister Mary Holmes, due to the fact that our regular pianist, Mrs. Barbara Gales, was absent, visiting her daughter in Greensboro's A&T University.

Rev. Wilson chose his text from the 8th chapter and 6-10 verses of St. John's gospel. His topic was "Look Your Accusers In the Face." This they said, tempting Him, that they might have to accuse Him. But Jesus stomped down, and with His fingers wrote on the ground, as though He heard them not. So when they continued asking Him, He lifted up Himself, and said unto them, 'He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.' And again he stooped down and wrote on the ground.

We ended our services with prayer around the altar. Visitors for the day were from Sanford, Mrs. Katie Hooper's nieces and nephew. We had two selections rendered by her great nieces, which were enjoyed by all.

The mother and father of the girls are Mr. and Mrs. John Chalmers, members of the Freewill Baptist Church of Sanford. Also visiting was Mrs. Chalmers' sister, Mrs. Lillian Lanier.

The collection was lifted by Mr. Johnny Mason and Deacon John Rayland.

Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Wilson had dinner with Sister Roberta Holloway on Ransom St.

The NAACP will meet at our church the third Sunday at 3 p.m. Sunday services will be held on the fourth Sunday.

STUDY MODEL CITY TRANSIT NEEDS

The City of Dayton, Ohio has received a $40,477 grant from the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development to make a technical study of transportation needs in Model City areas.

Diggs Protests Stops U. S. Ads By African Airways

WASHINGTON, D. C. - In May of this year, Congressman Charlie C. Diggs, Jr., (D-Michigan) demanded that the Civil Aeronautics Board show cause why South African Airways should not be prevented from engaging in deceptive advertising. These ads, designed to promote travel to South African, referred to activities and accommodations which were not available to visitors on a non-discriminational basis.

It was the Congressman's view that where South African Airways advertises facilities in South Africa it should at the same time inform the public that said facilities are not equally available to all tourists, white or non-white.

The Civil Aeronautics Board's Bureau of enforcement has agreed in a letter to the Congressman today that in the absence of such a statement these advertisements are misleading. South African Airways has, therefore, been ordered to cease and desist from the distribution of brochures and other promotional materials which refer to facilities not available to persons of all races.

Diggs, in hailing this historic order, said it is analogous to the caution that "cigarette smoking may be hazardous to your health."
