FROM RALEIGH'S OFFICIAL POLICE FILES
THE CRIME BEAT

ROBBED AT KNIFEPOINT
 Rudolph McCullum, 319 Idlewild Avenue, told Officer H. L. Rushing at 11:16 p.m. Sunday, that he was at 926 Oakwood Avenue, "talking with some Avenue, "talking with some friends," when one of the men there placed a knife at his throat and "relieved" him of his $30 Timex watch and his knife, valued at $1.30. He said the robber's first name is Eugene and that was all he knew about him. "The complainant had been drinking," ended the officer's report.

STRUCK IN FACE
 Miss Phyllis Marie Hinton, 18, 710 Quarry Street, informed Officer Gabriel Sanders at 2:20 a.m. Sunday, that James Edward Hinton, 24, of "somewhere on Quarry Street," assaulted her by hitting her in the nose with his fist. She said she would sign a warrant, charging assault on a female against Mr. Hinton. Miss Hinton suffered an injured nose. The incident occurred in the 400 block of E. Cabarrus Street.

WOMAN BEATEN, KICKED
 Miss Louise Watson, 554 E. Davie Street, told Officer V. Maynard at 11:51 a.m. Sunday, that she was walking south in the 200 block of S. East Street, when Willie Hinton, 53, Knightdale or 534 E. Davie, called her over to where he was standing. She said he then started hitting and kicking her. She said he knocked her down on the sidewalk and kicked her several times. She signed an assault warrant against him. Miss Watson had a cut on the right leg and cuts and scratches on the right side of her face.

TRIES TO KICK DOOR DOWN
 Mrs. Pearlene Dunn, 303 N. State Street, reported to Officer L. T. Wilson at 7:03 p. m. Sunday, that Harvey Pulley, 35, address unlisted, tried to kick down her door, but failed. He had been arrested earlier in the day for the same thing. Pulley was charged with damage to property and trespassing. Damage to the door was listed at $15.

FIGHT OVER HUSBAND
 Mrs. Dorothy Lee Pulley, 20, Route 5, Raleigh, informed Officer H. L. Rushing at 12:20 a. m. Sunday, that she and Mrs. Frances Jean Rodman, 1505 E. Edenton Street, got into a fight over her husband. During the fight, Mrs. Pulley received a cut on her nose and some loose teeth. She signed an assault and battery warrant against Mrs. Rodman. The fight took place on N. Fisher Street.

TWO FIGHT ON BUS
 Henry Davis, 44, 205 1/2 Cuba Street, told Officer W. E. Radford at 8:15 a.m., Friday, that he was on the bus when Jack Price, 42, 2525 Glenwood Avenue, got on the bus and sat beside him. He said Price started cursing and arguing with him and finally started hitting him. Upon seeing this, several school boys on the bus pulled Price off of the complainant. The bus pulled up behind the Police department and the driver blew his horn and told Officer Radford there was a fight on the bus. Both men were then taken off. Jack Price was arrested and charged with assault and battery.

TAPE PLAYER "SWIPED"
 Mrs. Jolene Smith Peppers, 8 Mecklenburg Terrace, informed Officer K. N. Privette at 8:12 p.m. Thursday, that she parked her 1965 Chevrolet in the parking lot off S. Haywood Street at 9 p.m. the day before and she locked both doors. However, when she returned to the car the next morning, she discovered her eight-track stereo tape player missing. It was valued at $49. The City-County Identification Bureau was called in to check for fingerprints.

SLASHES FOUR TIRES
 Robert Louis Young, 845 Newcomb Road, told a cop at 4:52 a.m. Friday, that he arrived at 1347 Branch Street at 11:30 p.m. to have a late dinner with some friends. He was there for about two hours, and when he returned to his car, all four of his tires were flat. Further investigation revealed that they had been cut with a sharp object such as a knife. Damage was placed at $60.

STRUCK WITH JAR
 Miss Annie Mae Williams, 29, 721 S. Saunders Street, reported to Officers J. L. Arrington and N. A. Carter at 10:14 p.m. Thursday, that she was sitting in her kitchen at a table eating when Robert Smith, 23, Deluxe Hotel, 220 E. Cabarrus Street, came in. She said she and Smith exchanged some words and he picked up a quart jar, hit her, then ran out of the house. Miss Williams, who suffered bruises on the right shoulder, said she would sign an assault with a deadly weapon warrant against Mr. Smith.

"TOO DRUNK TO TALK"
 Swade Archibald, Jr., 306 Pugh Street, was unable to give any information to Officer E. V. Curran at 8:39 p.m. last Wednesday, because the officer's report stated he was "too drunk." Robert Hill, Jr., 902 Holmes Street, brought Archibald to Wake Memorial Hospital, but knew nothing of what had happened. Archibald was shot with a gun of .22 calibre and had a wound in the left

STRUCK ON HEAD
 Miss Augustina Miller, 37, 506 E. Hargett Street, told Officer F. L. Benson at 3:24 a.m. Sunday, that Laco Clendenon, address unlisted, hit her during an argument. "Unable to obtain any more information because of her condition," ended the report. She had bruises on the right side of her head.

HIT WITH BRICK
 Robert Edward William, 721 S. Saunders Street, informed Officer W. R. Vaughn at 6:10 p.m., Saturday, that a colored male, about 16, stopped to "pick at" him on Dorothea Drive and struck him with a

Porter Becomes Fellow In LOMA Inst.

DURHAM - Lee B. Porter, associate actuary of the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company became a Fellow of the Life Office Management Association Institute at its 46th Annual meeting in Dallas, Texas. The Life Office Management Association is a voluntary, non-profit organization through which life insurance companies engage in cooperative research and educational activities. Its purpose is to improve life insurance company management. The Association, founded in 1924, now has more than 460 member companies.

A graduate of the University of Michigan, Mr. Porter received a Bachelor's degree in 1949, his MBA degree in 1950 and joined North Carolina Mutual in 1952. Along with his duties as associate actuary, he serves as a member of the Annual Statement Committee and Secretary of the Tabulating Committee. In addition to studying for his Fellowship, he has, over the years, taught LOMA classes at NCM.

The LOMA Insurance Education Program is designed to give a thorough knowledge of the principles of life insurance and the operation of life companies, with an emphasis on management rather than on sales. The program is divided into two courses of study: Principles of Life Insurance and Advanced Life Insurance. These courses consist of a total of eight examinations given annually in May. Since the inception of the program in 1932, more than 450,000 examinations have been written and nearly 3,600 Fellowships awarded.

MAN ASSAULTS OFFICERS
 Officer Robert Eugene Williams received a call at 4:47 p.m. Saturday to come to 531 E. Martin Street. "I had an occasion to be confronted with Earl Locklear. As I approached Mr. Locklear in reference to an assault on another officer (G. W. Abernathy), Mr. Locklear became violent, swearing and swinging his hands and fists, resulting in a blow to my left eye," the officer's report stated.

Locklear, 19, of 816-B S. Boundary Street was arrested, taken to the magistrate's court and charged with two counts of assault on an officer.

Homecoming Set
 CLAYTON - First Baptist Church, corner of Stallings and Limbard Streets, will observe Homecoming on October 19. Sunday School will begin at 9:45 a.m. The Rev. E. S. Simpson, pastor, will deliver the message at the 11 o'clock service.

At 2:30 p.m., Rev. Frank Weaver of Raleigh will be the guest speaker. His choir, deacons, ushers and members of Watts Chapel will accompany him.

Dinner will be served following the service. All friends and members are invited to attend this Homecoming.
