Coach John D. Marshall, head Bear mentor, noted that the 42-14 Elizabeth City victary was by no means in indication of the strength of the Rams.

Marshall said that the Rams cannot be taken lightly. They 4 had scored two impressive wins this season before falling to the Vikings at Elizabeth City last weekend.

The Rams are 2-1 overall and 1-1 in the CIAA conference. Livingstone, with one less game under its belt, is 1-1 overall and 0-1 in the conference.

The Bears opened with a 21-6 victory over the Fisk University Bulldogs and fell to the North Carolina Central Eagles, 31-20 in their last outing week before last. The Eagles then went on to best once -powerful Morgan State, 34-7, indicating that the Eagles may be the team to watch again this year.
