AKA Debutantes Attend Charm Clinic

The Governor Moorehead School was "alive" with AKA Debutantes who were eager to learn how to become more attractive for their presentation to society, November 28, at the Memorial Auditorium.

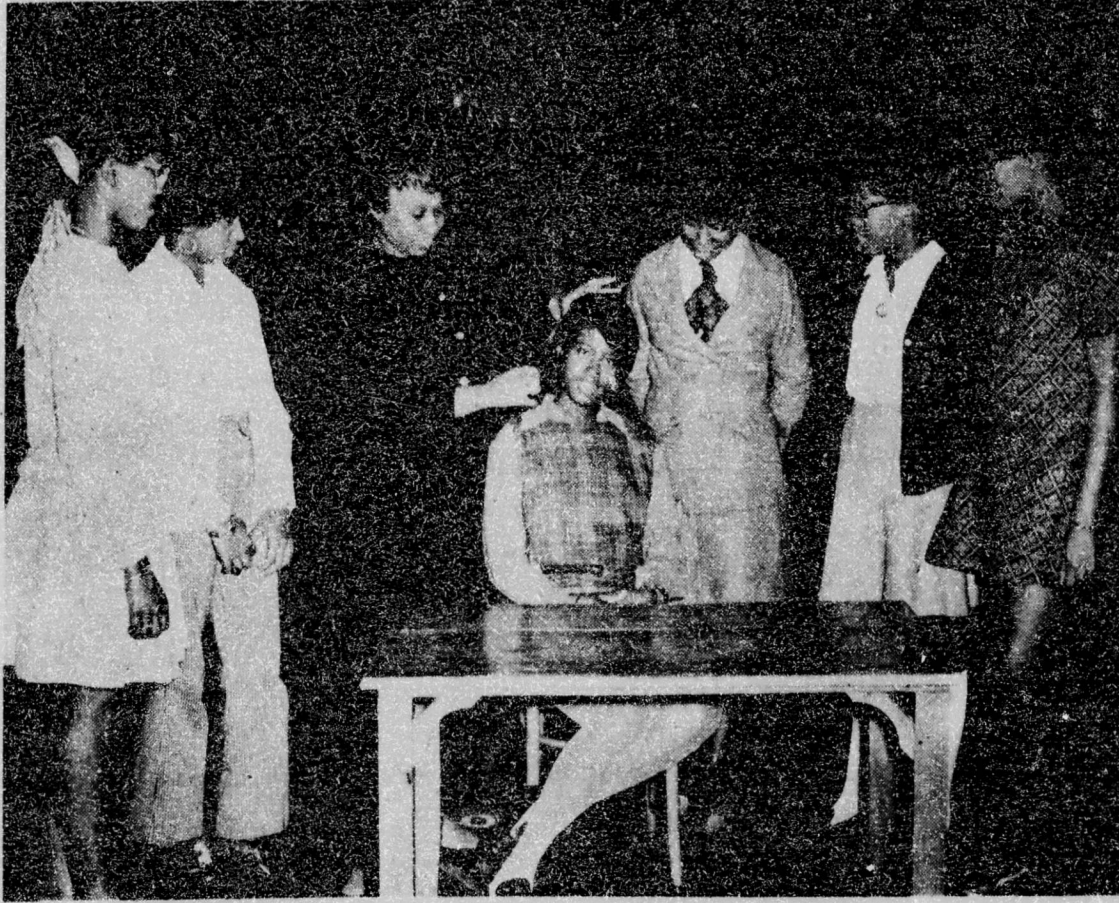

The main theme which was presented by Mrs. Mary Whitley was, "Choose what is right for you." After one discovers the hairstyle and make up that becomes you, begin to use a little of this, and some of that, but whatever you do, let your hairstyle, your eyes, and total make up reflect your personality.

Mrs. Marguerite Jordan gave tips on posture, walking, and sitting. Proper diet and exercise are important factors for developing a good figure. Proper care of the skin was also emphasized.

The selection of the proper clothes and accessories were discussed for different types of parties. At all times good taste in dress, and make up are to be practiced by all of us. Debutantes present: Shirley Lane, Elaine Barnes, Geraldine Smith, Meletta Duckens, Phyllis Gray, Sylvia Burch, Yvonne Lewis, Vera Green, Dante Butler, Hope Whitaker, Gloria Cameron, Jewelyn Geiger, Lorraine Bailey Dunn, Linda Wilson, Marion Costin, Denise Spough, and Dante Butler.
