Angier News

BY MRS. POLLY TAYLOR
ANGIER - Homecoming was observed, along with quarterly meeting, at Williams Chapel AME Zion Church on Sunday morning. Rev. William M. Freeman is the pastor. The service was well-attended as Rev. E. H. Beebe, presiding elder of the Raleigh District, delivered a very inspiring and soul-stirring message. He chose his text from the 23rd Psalm, the 5th verse. "Thou Anointest My Head With Oil; My Cup Runneth Over," was his title. Some excerpts from the sermon was: with life, if you expect to live it, you must also expect some bruises and hurts. Regardless of the trials and tribulations in life, when you are down and out, when you find it hard to forgive, you can always resort to God as your Shepherd, who understands the hurts of His children. He will anoint you. The speaker referred to Bible characters, David, Job, John the Baptist, Saul of Tarsus and the Twelve Disciples who chose the Lord as their Shepherd, and He anointed their heads with oil.

Out-of-town visitors at the service were Mrs. Odessa Beebe, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Beebe and Mr. Uriah Beebe of Fayetteville, Mrs. Ruth Tucker and daughter, Joyce of Roxboro. The receipts were $367.05.
