

Final Rites Conducted In County Miller Williams

Over a period of many years a familiar face and personality has passed the scene and gone on to the great beyond.

On Friday, October 24, another old landmark succumbed in the person of Mr. Miller A. Williams, 66, of 3115 Rock Quarry Road. Mr. Williams, a farmer, was the owner of one of the few mules and wagons in this area. He could be seen in many parts of the city with his mule and wagon, peddling his home-grown watermelons and other vegetables. He also would do spring plowing for those who did some gardening.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday at 1 p.m. from the Springfield Baptist Church in Wake County by the Rev. W. E. Edgerton. Burial was in the church cemetery.

He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Beatrice Whitaker and Mrs. Gertrude Gills, Raleigh; three brothers, Mr. Hugh Williams, Mr. Russell Williams and Mr. Pete Williams, all of Raleigh.

The man with the mule and wagon has completed his peddling career an unforgettable memory.

If it's a festive dinner you're planning, try this elegant fruit cup. Place strawberries or a peach half in a champagne glass and pour American Dry or American Concord Red champagne over the fruit to fill the glass.

FSU Publicist To Appear On A Media Panel

SOUTHERN PINES—Perry R. Leazer, Director of Public Relations, Fayetteville State University, will be one of the panelist at the fall meeting of the College News Seminar of the Carolinas, October 30-31, President Marlon B. Peavy announced last week.

Responsibilities of the Press of Educational Institutions" is the featured subject of the panel and other participants include Bill Reasonover, Director of Public Relations, Pfeiffer College, Misenheimer, Gene Marlowe, Educational Editor, News & Observer, Raleigh, and M. S. Van Hecks, News Editor, Charlotte Observer, Charlotte.

Jim Rice, Director of Public Relations, Lenoir Rhyne College, Hickory, will serve as panel moderator.

According to Rice, the title of this panel discussion came about when a number of college news people began to ask themselves what they could do to assure that the general public gets an accurate picture of what is happening on today's college campus. This group of persons sitting around a coffee table begin trying to define the responsibilities of the press and the responsibilities of the ed-

Assistance Plan Urged By Shultz

WASHINGTON - President Nixon's sweeping welfare reform proposal would "set in motion forces that will lessen dependency and foster economic growth," Labor Secretary George P. Shultz has declared.

Calling the proposal "one of the most far-reaching pieces of social legislation in this area in several decades," Secretary Shultz underscored the fact that "work" is a major feature of the program.

The new program should be enacted because the Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) program "doesn't work" and "the Family Assistance Plan is a new start," the Secretary said in testimony before the House Ways and Means Committee.

He stated that the Family Assistance Plan is based on the foundations already laid by recent amendments to AFDC, and its changes "are consistent with the forward-looking changes made recently by this Committee with regard to training opportunities and the treatment of earned income."

The new approach "is a vocational institution.

The meeting will be noted by Sandhills Community College and headquarters for the two-day session will be the Holiday Inn Motel.

The featured panel discussion will be held on Friday, October 31, commencing at 9 a.m.

positive program of work incentives, training and employment opportunities, child care and income allowance," Mr. Shultz said.

The Secretary identified seven ways in which the Family Assistance Plan promotes work.

Music Notes And Half Notes

BY MRS. E. M. M. KELLY

Orchids to Mrs. Harvey Heartley, as soprano soloist in "Inflammatus" (When Thou Comest), by Rossini, in the Women's Day Service at First Baptist Church Sunday, October 26. The combined senior and Moseley - Jones Choirs were directed by Mr. Laddie Bell and accompanied by Mrs. Juliette Battle, also co-

MRS. KELLY directed by Mrs. Ruby Greene. The music was superb, as was the entire service. Dr. C. W. Ward is pastor. Keep up the good music, friends.

What did you sing, readers? I never know unless you tell me or I am there. Let me know, please.

The Thanksgiving Ecumenical Festival rehearsal was very good and helpful. Most of the juniors were present. Please check a previous article for the November rehearsal dates.

Raleigh Concert Music Association's first concert, October 28 was excellent. Hope you were there. Subscriptions are always available at the door. Nell Rankin is truly a Metropolitan Opera star. More about the program next week.

"The Hallelujah Train" with the Eva Jessye Choir will be next on December 8. Hope to see you there.

The Friends of the College, Inc., second concert, National Ballet of Canada, was most enjoyable.

Were you there? Don't fail to expose yourself to fine and beautiful music: ballet, opera, band, orchestra, duo-piano, Broadway musicals, choir, etc.

Thanks to all of you who have given me your applause for this column. Let me know what you are singing, playing or listening to. Keep good music in your heart!
