Fuquay-Varina News

BY MRS. LOUISE CAESAR

FUQUAY - VARINA - Sunday School was held at all local churches with the superintendents presiding. First Baptist Church opened Sunday School at 10 a.m. with the Supt., Mr. Alford Thorpe, in charge of devotion. The teachers took charges of their classes. The subject of the lesson was, "God's Judgment on Judea." The text of the lesson was from Jeremiah 26:1-16. Remarks were made by Rev. Trice and Rev. George Wright who was visiting our Sunday School. Morning worship service began at 11:15 a.m. with the pastor Rev. N. A. Trice, presiding. The responsive reading was from Psalm 103:1-8. Scripture was read by Rev. Wright. Prayer was offered by Mr. Alford Thorpe. Rev. Trice delivered the message. He chose his text from the book of St. John 5:47 and used as a subject, "Are We Concerned About Jesus?" Music was rendered by the Gospel Chorus, accompanied by Mr. Charlie Prince. We welcome visitors at our church every first and third Sundays.

After morning service, dinner was served in the basement of the church, and the hospitality shown was very warm and friendly. Sunday afternoon at 2:45, First Baptist observed its annual Homecoming Day. Mr. Willie Lee Clay, Mr. Ned Daye and Mrs. Odell Thorpe were in charge of devotion. The Rev. G. A. Jones delivered the sermon. Music was rendered by the Juniper Level Chorus, also Northside Baptist Male Chorus, Durham. We are always glad to see new faces, friends and families of this community come home for the Homecoming Day. We hope their stay was an enjoyable one.

Let's all continue to pray for our sick and shut-in. Hospitalized are: Mrs. Lillie Stewart and Mr. Marvin Johnson, who are at Wake Memorial Hospital, Raleigh. A card or visit would be greatly appreciated.

Also observing its annual Homecoming Day Sunday was Bazzell Creek Baptist Church at 2 p.m. The Rev. C. P. Bri-ley was the speaker for the day. Music was rendered by the New Hope Baptist Choir and Wake Baptist Chorus from Garner. FUQUAY CONSOLIDATED HIGH SCHOOL MENU

Holly Springs News

BY MISS BETTY MERRITT

HOLLY SPRINGS - Sunday School was held at our churches with the local superintendents in charge.

Morning worship service was held at the United Church of Christ where Rev. John H. Jones presided. Pastor Jones chose his text for the morning message from St. Luke 5:4 and used as a theme "A Shallow Christian." Music was rendered by the Gospel Chorus. Our services were graced with many visitors, among them Rev. C. P. Briley, pastor of Good Hope Baptist Church. The doors of our churches always stand open to visitors.

On Sunday evening, we returned to U. C. C. for a service sponsored by the usher board. The following choirs appeared: The Young Adult Choir of First Baptist, Apex; and the All-Girl Chorus. We were favored with a solo by Mr. Charlie Allen of St. Mary's Free-will Baptist Church. Speaker for the evening was the Rev. Mrs. Betsy Thorpe of Apex. Her text was taken from St. John 21:12 and St. Matthew 10:6 she chose for her theme: "If You Love Me, Feed My Sheep." Mrs. Gladys Grigsby was hostess for the YWA's of First Baptist Sunday afternoon as they held their monthly meeting.

Henry Dean and Peggy Johnson will be celebrating their thirteenth and fourteenth birthdays on November 4th and 5th, respectively. Happy birthday to each of you.

Let's remember our sick and shut-ins and continue to pray for them. Hospitalized is Mr. Cecil Leslie.

A musical program will be held at the First Baptist Church here on Sunday at 7:30 p.m. Appearing will be the Amey Jubilee Singers and others. The public is invited to attend.
