CUTS DOOR SCREEN

Mrs. Mary Irene Harris, 1342 Brance Street, informed Officer W. F. Booth at 7:25 a.m. Monday of last week that a colored male "was fumbling around" on her front porch at the time a six-inch cut was made in the screen door at the front of her house. The suspect, although the report did not give his name, was arrested soon afterwards on another charge. Mrs. Harris says she knows the suspect and will sign a damage to property warrant against him.

MAN ACCUSES GIRLFRIEND
Willie G. Haywood, 55, 1100 Oberlin Road, told Officer D.

R. Turnage at 1:54 a.m. Wednesday, that his girlfriend scratched him in several places on his chest with her fingernails at his home. He admitted that he had been drinking and he and the unnamed girlfriend had started "fussing," ending with her scratching him. He not only refused to name the woman, but said he wanted no charges brought against her. Mr. Haywood was treated for scratches on the chest at Rex Hospital and released.

SHOPLIFTERS CAUGHT
Officer R. L. Kidd reported at 6:20 p.m. Friday, that he saw a ten-year-old colored girl, and Diane Ann Thorpe, 16, take a pair of shoes and conceal them, then walk out of the K-Mart, 400 E. Six Forks Rd. They were stopped and arrested in the parking lot at the store. The Brown shoes were valued at $7.44.

CHARGES HUBBY, FRIEND
Mrs. Carolina Jane Bass, 21, 916 Baum Drive, told Officer L. T. Wilson at 11 a.m. Friday, that her husband, George Thomas Bass, 25, same address, and his friend, Lorenzo Smith, 29, Route 1, Knightdale, jumped on her and kicked her about the face and body. She also said she was knocked for a while and was brought to the hospital by a neighbor.

Mrs. Bass suffered abrasions of the legs and arms, facial abrasions, swelling of the right cheek and lips and a three-fourths of an inch laceration of the bottom lip. The incident took place in the front yard at the Bass residence. Both men were arrested and charged with assault on a female.

TELEVISION SET "SWIPED"
Willie Garfield Hooker, 802 E. Davie Street, reported to Officer Otis L. Hinton at 3:40 p.m. Wednesday, that his house was being repaired and workmen informed him that a Charles Davis, colored male, driving a yellow Javelin with Florida tags, went into Hooker's house and took a portable 19-inch Philco television set, valued at $199.

WOMAN CLAIMS DAMAGE
Miss Willa Mae Alston, 200 Bledsoe Avenue, informed Officer James E. (Bobby) Daye

Young Men's Jubilee Singers Thrill Audience

By Miss Lena M. Eure

".... And it brought joy, joy to our hearts" were the sentiments expressed by all who heard The Young Men's Jubilee Singers of the Friendship Baptist Church, Washington, D. C. on Sunday, November 2.

The Maple Temple United Church of Christ was host to the Young Men's Jubilee Singers at a three o'clock song service, presented by young Lawrence (Skipper) Miller, member of the junior choir and usher board of Maple Temple.

The junior choir opened the service by singing "The Awakening Chorus." The scripture lesson was read by the pastor, Rev. Steed from Ephesians. Prayer was offered by Rev. Sister Magnolia Debnam. Welcoming addresses were given by Mrs. Jessie Copeland, and Mrs. Salina Elliott, Mrs. Margaret Etheridge of Washington, D. C., aunt of Lawrence Miller, gave the response to the welcome address. The junior choir sang "Sell Out."

Miss Lorraine Batley, also a member of the junior choir and usher board, offered a special arrangement of "Precious Lord." The singers were introduced by Mrs. Ruth Banks.

The singers began their program by singing "There's A Bright Side Somewhere," followed by prayer by one of the members of the ensemble.

A capacity audience heard and rejoiced to the many other selections by the group as it sang with all its heart.

At the close of this song festival, remarks were made by Lawrence Miller and Mrs. Henrietta Jordan, vice president of the sewing and art club of the Friendship Baptist Church. Deacon William Hinton gave the offertory prayer. The offering was lifted by Deacon Artis McCave, Deaconesses Ruth O'Neal, Mrs. Geneva Dickerson, Bibleway world-wide church and Mr. William Bullock, of the Friendship Baptist Church.

Announcements were made by Deacon James T. O'Neal and the benediction was pronounced by the pastor.

The ladies of the church prepared and served refreshments at the close of the service, during the fellowship period. A sad note: the death of one of the members arriving here with the singers, failed to dampen the voices of the Jubilee Singers. The program was well-accepted and enjoyed by all.

at 6:05 p.m. Saturday, that Perry Parker, about 38, address unknown, broke the glass out of the front door at her house. Damage was estimated at $15.

NABS MAN AT DOOR
Landon Douglas Dunston, 705 Method Road, told Officer G. T. Lloyd at 3:51 a.m. Saturday, that he heard the glass break out of his back door and went to see what was going on. He said James D. Wright, 40, of Benson, was shaking the kitchen door when he arrived there. Wright was "hailed off" to Wake County Jail and charged with damage to property.

WALKS OUT WEARING GOODS
Officer Freddie L. Benson, reported at 11 a.m. Tuesday of last week, that he saw Michael Roger Judd, 17, Route 1, Fuquay-Varina, put on a pair of shoes inside the K-Mart, 400 E. Six Forks Road, and walk outside the store. Judd was arrested and charged with larceny. The shoes were valued at $15.95.

SON-IN-LAW JAILED
Mrs. Rosa Lee Massenbrug, 1115 Walnut Street, reported to Officer K. J. Johnson at 12:49 a.m. Tuesday, that Thomas Edward Bennett, 23, her son-in-law, came to her house and began using vulgar language. She said she asked him to leave and he left, but returned about thirty minutes later and disturbed her family again. She signed a trespassing warrant against Bennett, who lives at 11 Hayti Alley, and he was jailed.

TELLS MAN TO SHOOT
James Clinton Odette, Jr., 25-year-old white resident of Route 9, Raleigh, told Officer H. L. Rushing at 7:22 a.m. Saturday, that when he stopped for the red light at Wake Forest Road and the Beltline, a 1958 blue Oldsmobile pulled up behind him. He said there were two colored males inside the car and the driver started blowing his horn and driving close behind him. Odette said the men followed him to 815 N. Bloodworth Street, where he got out of his car. He also stated that they started cursing him and the driver put a pistol in his face. He stated he told the man to go ahead and shoot. Then he told the men they had better be gone when he got back and went inside to call "the law." While he was inside the car drove away. He said he would sign assault with a deadly weapon warrants against the men if they were located.
