Hungarian String Quartet To NCSU

Masterworks from the three great ages of Western music, performed in the best of Continental tradition, will be presented by the Hungarian String Quartet, Monday, November 17, at 8 p.m. at North Carolina State University's Erdahl-Cloyd Union Ballroom. The program is second in the Raleigh Chamber Music Guild's 1969-70 season of small ensemble concerts.

Acclaimed on five continents for its unsurpassed interpretations of great string quartet literature -- from classic to modern -- the Hungarian String Quartet is described by critics as "the ultimate in expressiveness, understanding and technical mastery."

Their program here explores works representing quartet development from its first 18th century polishing by Joseph Haydn, through its romantic expansion in his brilliant and searching pupil, Beethoven, to its modern culmination in the hands of the modern giant, Hindemith -- himself a violinist.

Zoltan Szekely and Michael Kuttner playing violin, Denes Koromzay, viola, and Gabriel Magyar, cello, will perform the Quartet in D Major, Opus 64, No. 5 ("Lark") by Haydn, Quartet No. 3, Opus 22 by Hindemith, Quartet in A Minor, Opus 132 by Beethoven.

Subscriptions including this and two following Guild concerts are available at the Erdahl-Cloyd Union and at the door on the night of performance (special student rates are offered). Following in the series, the Juilliard String Quartet will play a Beethoven Centennial program Sunday, January 18 and French flute virtuoso Jean Pierre Rampal will play with keyboard partner Robert Veyron Lacroix, Thursday, February 19.

TWO MINUTES WITH THE BIBLE
BY CORNELIUS R. STAM, PRES. BERNESE BIBLE SOCIETY CHICAGO 35, ILLINOIS

CHURCH ON FIRE
The Chicago newspapers carried an account several years ago of a large church, burned to the ground, at a loss of about half a million dollars. Our sympathy went out to the pastor and congregation who, at best, had to carry on for a time under makeshift arrangements.

But the account reminded me of the story of another church on fire. The crowds had gathered to see the fire engines pour water on the burning building, when one man spotted a friend in the crowd. "Hi Bob!" he shouted. "This is the first time I've seen you at church!" Well," responded the other, "This is the first time I've seen a church on fire."

We write this as a special appeal to true, born-again Christians. Isn't it true that if believers were more "on fire" for Christ, more completely sold out to Him, those who are now disinterested would be more apt to become interested and come to know Him as their Savior? We so soon lose interest or become discouraged, and quit. This is why the Apostle Paul, that tireless ambassador for Christ wrote:

"Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord" (1 COR. 15:58).

This, we repeat, is his exhortation only to believers, for God will not accept our money or our good works, until we have first accepted from Him "the gift of God", which is "eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord" (Rom 6:23).

Accept that gift; trust the Christ who died for your sins and He will give you plenty to do--the most rewarding service any man can possibly render.

MEDITATION
A SERMONETTE
BY COLIN DOUGLAS

"Jehovah will guide thee continually." -- Isaiah 58:11.

There are times in everyone's life when he has a need of guidance and direction. And it is well for us to remember at these times that we have within us the Spirit of God, the source of all wisdom and knowledge.

Even though we may not have an important decision to make today, we can build up our faith in the power of God to guide us so that if such a need does arise we shall know the answer is forthcoming and that we shall act wisely.

Until we have this strong true guidance.

So, let us keep our minds open and receptive always to God's guidance, and let go of all thought of anxiety, fear, of doubt. Let us know emphatically that God is the answer to every need and that there are no problems that we cannot meet victoriously and happily when we rely on Him.

Let us cease thinking negatively, and think always positively of God and His loving, constant, powerful presence. Let us place our whole trust in Him, knowing that He is greater than any human limitation or condition. For He is the ONE, the SURE answer to everything. "He will direct thy paths." -- Proverbs 3:6.

During the first nine months of 1969, more than 187,000 motorists were arrested in North Carolina on the charge of speeding -- and average of more than 20,000 every month.

An investment in Your Future ATTEND CHURCH

The RESPECTED WORD

The bible is a book translated into every known language. It is the word that men have died for, in order that it may be available to all men. It is the textbook for God's people.

The bible, itself, is not worshipped, but is respected, for it is the story of God and his relationship to man. It is man's guide for worship and daily living.

Attend church regularly, study, and seek God's will in your life.

"I wait for the Lord, my soul doth wait, and in his word do I hope."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
