Parents Day Set For FSU

FAYETTEVILLE - Athletic officials at Fayetteville State University have designated Saturday's football game with Johnson C. Smith University as "Parent's Day."

Kick-off for this important Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association contest has been set for 2:00 on the University Athletic Field.

A spokesman from the University said that all parents of the football players would be cited during the half-time ceremonies. This is the initial effort to honor parents.

Heretofore, FSU has held "Dad's Day," "Alumni Day," but never a parent's day. "It is only fitting and proper that these persons should be honored. The University and the parents have a unique relationship -- student and support -- and we want the parents to know that the University appreciates their efforts in supporting the athletic program." Athletic Director P. R. Leazer said.

Fayetteville State, boasting one of their best grid records in years, will come into the Johnson C. Smith contest fresh from a smashing 42-2 triumph over Winston-Salem State University last Saturday. The Broncos have a 3-2-1 record in CIAA play and 3-3-1 overall.

Coach Hubie Doubt's charges assured themselves of a 500 mark in league play with the victory last Saturday but would like to present the coaches and parents a victory on Saturday. Incidentally, Coach Doubt has firmly established himself as a candidate for "CIAA Coach of the Year."

Your Weekly Horoscope

November 20 through November 26

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Energy cycle still high for at least first three days of week. Get going on creative venture. Avoid alcohol or any other stimulants. You'll already have a natural edge on.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Keep home life on an even keel, Taurus. You usually get your own way in the final analysis, anyway, but this is NOT the week to press your luck. One who is infatuated by your natural charm may contact you toward end of week. Be kind, at least. If you find you can't even be kind, then at least be civil.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): First two days of week may find you in a bit of a fog, Gem., but by third day the sun shines again. Life in general will be more relaxing. Juicy bit of gossip may come your way. If so, keep it to yourself. Don't noise it all over town.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Excellent opportunity to improve yourself, Moonchild, in week ahead. Stress practical, down-to-earth plans. Be very cautious concerning one who would like you to fall for the "old-sweet-nothings-whispered-under-the-stars-routine."

LEO (July 23-August 22): Whoopie, Leo... here you go again. Last week may have been a dog, but the one coming up is going to be so zesty that you will probably be run ragged. New associate will trigger your imagination. Don't over extend yourself financially. No one will be impressed and you'll only wind up kicking yourself if you do.

VIRGO (August 23-September 22): O Virg., first two days may be kind that will make you wish you had "stood in bed." Dissent seems to be everywhere. Use restraint, and by the week-end your good judgment will pay off. Week winds up on a note of cheer from one far away.

LIBRA (September 23-October 22): Your popularity will be at a peak in week ahead, Libra. But play it cool. Don't get all in a tiz. Avoid any stand which seems to smack of revolutionary nature.

SCORPIO (October 23-November 21): Scorp, you will have to exercise a great deal of restraint in week ahead. Your desire will be to dodge responsibilities. Think twice. Then thrice. Be extra nice to those at home over the week-end. Then by Monday you'll be ready for the chase again.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22-December 21): Fresh directions open up to you Sag. Ponder them seriously. Forget the darn tee vee over the week-end and instead, pay a bit more attention to those you love. You may be projected into the spotlight on last day of week. If so, wear your best bib and tucker.

CAPRICORN (December 22-January 19): Minor changes are in the works, Cap. If you find yourself in a state of confusion, step back and try to discover root causes. A one-sided love affair could start this week. Cap. Can you bear the thought of unrequited love? No? Then nip it in the bud.

AQUARIUS (January 20-February 18): Good week to double-check your income and your out-go, Aquarius. Does the old check book balance? Remember the old gag about the road to hell being paved with good intentions? Cash in the final analysis is what really counts. No one gives a fig about your "good intentions."

PISCES (February 19-March 20): Be regal, Pisces. All heads will be turned your way. Be conservative for at least the first four days of week. You will be tempted to dance but the band just won't be playing your tune. Last days of week are for getting romantic situation under control. Nudge the one you love. Stop being so cavalier in attitude.
