MY LIVING SHALL NOT BE IN VAIN "If I can help somebody as

I travel on, If I can cheer somebody with a word or song,

If I can show somebody that he's doing wrong, Then my living shall not be in vain. If I can do my duty as a Christian ought,

If I can bear love's message as the Master taught, He can heal the sick,

He can cleanse the stain. Then my living shall not be in vain."

Your hair is precious and delicate . . . and none of us like to see it break off for any reason. Now in the days of youth, when life flows fresh and free, Thou Lord of all our hearts and lives, we give ourselves to Thee. Our fervent gift receive, and fit us to fulfill, through all of our days, in all of our ways, our heavenly Father's will. Teach us wherever we live, to act as in Thy sight, and do what Thou wouldst have us do with radiant delight. Not choosing what is great, nor spurning what is small, but take as from Thy hands our task, and glorify them all. Teach us to love the truth and the beautiful and pure, and let us not for one short hour an evil thought endure. But give us grace to stand decided, brave and strong; the lovers of all holy things the foes of all things wrong.

Dear heavenly Father, we would be such persons as we ought to be. Help us to be Christians and rise to a life of service in Thy kingdom, Forgive us, O God, for those times when we have looked elsewhere rather than to Thee for salvation. Help us to always look to Thee in trust for delivery. Like Thy servants in the past, O Lord, who trusted and were blessed by Thy grace, we ask that we may plainly feel today Thy protection. So often we are in distress and we have no other help than Thine. We pray Thee, hear the calling of Thy children as Thou art our rock, steady and firm. Our hearts are thankful and we praise Thy holy name, in Jesus name, Amen.

Mrs. Geneva Brown led the devotions with a beautiful selection on "Why Always People's Faults?" It spoke of the matter of criticizing others and finding fault rather than entphasizing their virtues. Names were drawn for the Christmas party which will be held at the home of Mrs. Mary Culler at our next meeting date

All were urged to attend. The meeting adjourned with the Mispah, afterwhich the hostess invited us in to a delectable buffet lunch consisting of deviled eggs, potato chips, various kinds of sandwiches, congealed salad, home made cake, nuts, mints and coffee which was good to the last drop.
