Many Expecting Santa, According To Letters

Because of the great number of Letters to Santa received by The CAROLINIAN, those on this page had to be reproduced on the Linotype machine in order that all of the letters could be used. However, others, in the handwriting of the senders, are to be found elsewhere in this section. The CAROLINIAN wishes to thank persons responsible for aiding it in obtaining the letters, such as school teachers of first graders and some churches in the area for their help of these persons in encouraging their pupils to write a Letter to Santa, via The CAROLINIAN.
