

Gregory Heard At University Hate - Says

'Moral Pollution Is Problem'

*****

Shaw Releasing 14 Teachers

Comedian Addresses Body Here

Terming "moral pollution the top problem today," "Comedian Dick

THE CAROLINIAN

North Carolina's Leading Weekly

VOL. 28, NO. 19

RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, MARCH 7, 1970

SINGLE COPY 15c

In Ligon Death-Detective Urges Citizens,

Help Find Killers

*****

Over City's Pupil Placement

Black Parents Upset

Board Of Ed. Hears Parents

A group of black parents converged on the Wake County Board of Education at its regular meeting Monday to protest the phasing out of Riley Hill Elementary School in Eastern Wake County and Holly Springs Elementary School in southwestern Wake County.

Say One Already In Jail

The CAROLINIAN has learned through reliable, though unconfirmed information, that one suspect has been held in the Wake County Jail since last weekend in connection with the fatal bludgeoning death of Leonard W. (Biggie) Ligon. The attack took place on Thursday, February 19, and Mr. Ligon succumbed on Saturday, February 21, without ever regaining consciousness.

ROBBER CAUGHT IN THE ACT - Washington: Money falls to the floor as a suspect flees from the Security Bank, located in the National Press Building February 27 after a robbery. The FBI released this photo made by an automatic camera just after another suspect had fired a shot into the floor. Two men robbed the bank of more than $10,000 before fleeing in a waiting car driven by a third man, Washington police reported. (UPI).

Students React To Release Of Tutors

Shaw University students, disgruntled by a proposed faculty cutback of 14 teachers, protested at a campus convocation Monday.

The students said the discharged faculty members were "among the most outspoken defenders of the rights of the black community."

The Committee for Action, Rights and Ethics of Shaw Student (CARES), also asked for

1st Female Psychologist Is Licensed

GREENSBORO - Mrs. Hattie H. Liston, assistant professor of psychology at A&T State University, was informed recently that her application for licensure as a practicing psychologist has been approved by the North Carolina State Board of Examiners of Practicing Psychologists.

Mrs. Liston is the only Black woman approved to be a practicing psychologist in the state of North Carolina.

GOP Picks A. J. Turner

A. J. Turner of Raleigh has been named to the executive committee of the Wake County Republican Party by County Chairman Frank Dupree. The appointment was confirmed by the full executive committee meeting on Friday, February 27.

Turner is president of T&T Associates of Raleigh, a distributor of educational materials, and T&T Travel Service. He is also a representative of the John Roberts Company, a manufacturer.

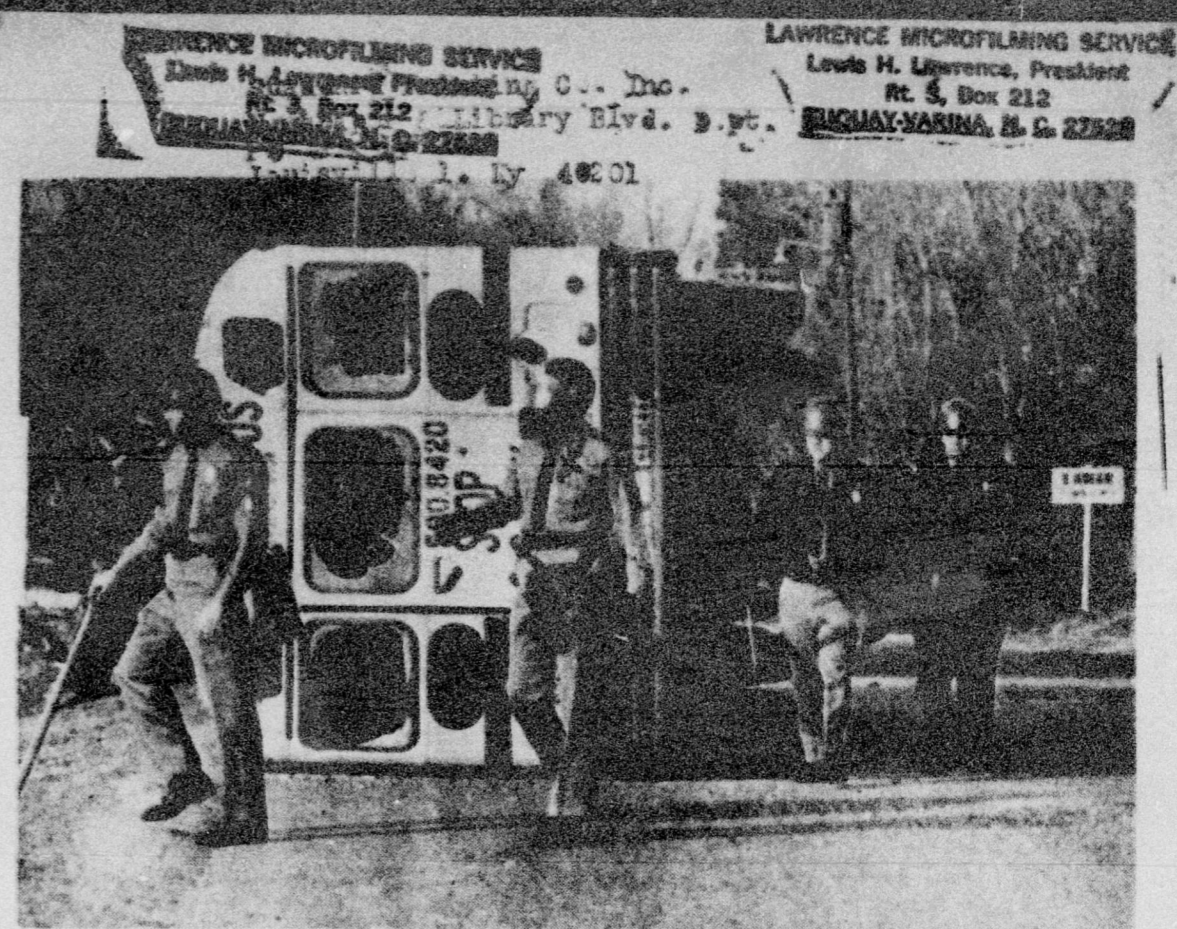

DICK GREGORY

Gregory lashed out at the nomination of Judge Harrold Carswell to the U. S. Supreme Court here Monday night and received a standing ovation.

Gregory, also termed a social critic, spoke at North Carolina State University and pointed out what he considered the ills of this country. He said this country's only hope lies in its young people.

"You have to solve the problems you had nothing to do with creating," he told the standing-room-only audience, consisting mostly of young people. "Not only did the older generation not solve the problems, but they used all the tricks of the game in not doing so. Today it's a different game," he said.

The state of this country, according to Gregory, is evidenced in President Nixon's statement.

ANGRY WHITE PARENTS OVERTURN TWO SCHOOL BUSES-Lamar, S. C.: South Carolina Highway Patrolmen walk past the school buses overturned here March 3 by an angry group of whites in efforts to prevent integration of Lamar High School. Several patrolmen, some of the whites and several children were injured. Tear gas was lobbed into the crowd as the attack on the buses continued. (UPI).

Charles R. Frazer, 90, Raleigh Resident For 50 Years, Succumbs

EAST ST. LOUIS, Illinois: Charles Rivers Frazer, Sr., retired educator, businessman, and author died here Monday, March 2. He was 90. Frazer was among the last of a group of pioneer Negro educators who were prominent a half century ago. He was a native of Auburn, Ala., the son of Edmund and Estelle (Mitchell) Frazer and grandson of Joshua Frazer.

CHARLES R. FRAZER

Funeral arrangements are set for Saturday at the First Baptist Church of Raleigh at 3 p.m. Frazer had been a member of this church for more than fifty years. He was director of the church choir on several occasions.

The Rev. Dr. C. W. Ward, pastor of First Baptist Church, is expected to preside at the funeral.

Interment will be in Mt. Hope Cemetery.

A resident of Raleigh for more than 50 years, Frazer moved to East St. Louis in 1963 to be near his son, Dr. C. R. Frazer, Jr.

Holder of B.A. degrees in languages from Shaw University

(See FRAZER DIES, P. 2)

Rev. D. Howard Resigns, Assumes New Scout Post

CHICAGO, Ill.-The Rev. D. N. Howard, Sr., District Scout Executive in the Chicago Area Council, Boy Scouts of America since 1965, has resigned this position to become the Assistant Scout Executive in charge of Community Services for the Okaw Valley Council, East St. Louis, effective March 1, 1970.

According to Joseph R. Klein, Scout Executive, Chicago Council, Howard has rendered invaluable services in this council during the last five years. Before coming to Chicago, he served in similar positions in Goldsboro and Raleigh, North Carolina. His 20 years of professional service in scouting has enriched the lives of more than 15,000 boys and adults.

In 1949, he was graduated from Knoxville College in Tennessee and the 137 National Training School for Scout Executive. In 1963, he completed

Rep. Chisolm Blasts Acts Of Maddox

WASHINGTON, D. C. - Congress Shirley Chisolm (D-N. Y.) last week released the text of a Congressional Record Extension of Remarks in which she condemned Lester Maddox, Governor of Georgia, as displaying anti-American and racist feelings on his visit to Capitol Hill.

The battling little lady from Brooklyn said, "The axe-handle relative to Lester Maddox, must be seen as a weapon of resistance to the United States Government," and a racist symbol.

She then went on to question whether members of the House might not by "open agreement or tacit acceptance" of such actions be "endangering the sanctity and validity of our oaths of office?"

The freshman Representative further stated that the Extension of Remarks would form the basis of a memo to Representative Richard Ichord (D-Mo.), Chairman of the House Internal Security Committee.

A part of the Congressman's statements follows:

Today Mr. Lester Maddox, the governor of Georgia, was allowed to present one of the most flagrant anti-American displays ever performed in this Nation's Capitol.

As a Black woman, I am dismayed by the fact that within

BOARD OF ELECTIONS MEMBER - J. J. Sanson, Jr., 1836 Rock Quarry Road, vice president of Mechanics and Farmers Bank here, was sworn into office Monday as one of the two Democratic members of the Wake County Board of Elections. The ceremony took place at 12 noon at the Board of Elections Headquarters. There are only three persons on the Board and Mr. Sanson is the only Negro ever to serve. A graduate of Morehouse College in Atlanta, Ga., the banker holds a law degree from North Carolina Central University, Durham.

CORRECTION!

Editor's Note: Mrs. Marguerite Hamans, a resident of 1001 Manly Street, issued the following statement to the managing editor of this newspaper on Tuesday of this week:

"I am a resident of Southside and was misquoted in The CAROLINIAN dated February 28, 1970, concerning the urban renewal. It was stated that I have never stated that I was

Narcotics Almost Kills Students

An overdose of narcotics has been diagnosed as the cause of illness of two young men who remain in critical condition at Wake Memorial Hospital, after being admitted Monday night, near the point of death.

An emergency room physician was credited with saving the lives of the two men by recognizing the symptoms as an overdose of narcotics and im-

(See NARCOTICS P. 2)

In The Sweepstakes SPOTLIGHT THIS WEEK Washington Terrace Super Mkt. A Friendly Place To Buy Your Food and Goodies See SWEEPSTAKES Ads Read Page 10 For Winners

Sweepstakes Growing

Winning numbers in The CAROLINIAN's Revised Sweepstakes follow: Number 0781, first prize, is worth $25 in merchandise at Hellig-Levine Furniture Company, corner S. Wilmington and E. Hargett Streets; 0335, second, worth $15, may be redeemed in merchandise at Maus Plano Company, 2420 Old Wake Forest Road; and number 12474, third, is valuable, $10 worth at Roses Stores.

Veteran Editor To Be Feted

DURHAM-In an effort to not only show its appreciation of the contribution L. E. Austin, veteran editor and publisher of the CAROLINA TIMES, has made to Durham, the state and the nation, but also to implement his resources so that he will pass his rich legacy to coming generations, a group of interested citizens, have combined, under the sponsorship of the Durham Committee on Negro Affairs and the Durham Branch of the NAACP, to honor him, at a Testimonial, which will be held at North Carolina Central University at 8:15 p.m. on Tuesday, March 17.

CEO AFFILIATE LEAVES TRASH BEHIND - This trash was left behind last weekend when the director and staff of the Chavis Heights Community Action Center, 520 E. Martin Street, vacated the premises. The action was taken when Mrs. Dorothy Allen, executive director of Wake County Opportunities, Inc., announced that two Centers would have to be eliminated. However, when the place was rented from the owner some four years ago, the above trash and refuse was not present. This is a view from the back yard of the former Center.

A&T's Head Denounces Big Rumor

GREENSBORO - Dr. Lewis C. Dowdy, president of A&T State University, last week moved to calm students on his campus who were troubled by rumors of a merger between A&T and the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

CRIME BEAT

BEATEN BY HUSBAND - Mrs. Mary Louise McCutchen, 527 E. Davie Street, told Officer K. W. Lee at 11:14 p.m. Wednesday, that her husband, Willie McCutchen, came back home from being out of town and beat her up with a metal pole. She said she caught a cab to Wake Memorial Hospital and said she was, "hurting all over my head."

Mrs. McCutchen said she did not want to sign an assault with a deadly weapon warrant against her mate. She suffered abrasions of the head.