

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE)

ACCUSED IN CHOKING

Chester and the state of the second second

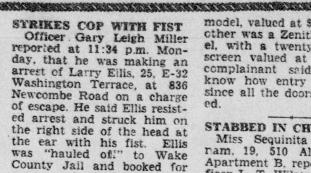

Miss Barbara Ann Bradshaw, 10 S. Swain Street, told Officers G. W. Black and R. L. Smith at 6:20 p.m Monday, that Sam Williams, address unknown, was playing cards at her house, and after she caught his arm, he jumped up and started to choke her. The woman was not seriously injured. Williams' age was given as 19.

SAYS MATE BUSTED LIP Mrs. Rosa Lee Locklear, 37, 910 E. Jones Street, informed Officers K. W. Lee and Gabriel Sanders at 11:37 p. m. Monday, that she and her husband, Leroy Locklear, 11, same address, had been drinking and he slapped her down. Mrs. Locklear said she then left home with their children and went to her uncle's house. She signed an assault on a female warrant and Mr. Locklear was arrested. The woman suffered a busted lip.

JAILED FOR STEALING

Johnny D. Weaver, an employee of Ivey's 4200 Six Forks Road, reported to Officer C. Pittman at 8:58 p.m. last Monday, that he was observing a subject and saw her take two dresses and conceal them in a bag. He also said the woman attempted to leave the store, but was stopped by him. Weaver is a security officer at Ivey's. Arrested and charged with shoplifting was Miss Mary Lee White, 25, 515 E. Martin Street. She was charged with taking one red dress, valued at $27; and one blue dress, listed at $30.

eighteen inch screen RCA ALLER COLORS COL escape and assault on an officer. The officer suffered a bruise on the right ear and a

Herman Wallace Crowell,

40, 825 E. Hargett Street, told

Officer L. R. Womack at 9:08

p.m. last Monday, that his mother, Mrs. Mary Crowell

Mitchell, and her husband,

Hazel Mitchell, 65, same ad-inches long, on his back, and one slash on the forehead.

Mrs. Mitchell was cut on a

Walker Garrison Atmore,

E-15 Washington Terrace, informed Officer James E.

(Bobby) Daye at 8:23 p. m.

last Monday, that when he arrived home at 8 p.m., he discovered that two television sets were missing. One was an

TV SETS "SWIPED"

CHILDREN'S

DEPARTMENT

DOWNTOWN RALEIGH

ONLY

from Johnston .

hand.

bruise about the right ear.

STEP-DAD "FINGERED"

model, valued at $169; and the other was a Zenith color model, with a twenty-'hree inch screen valued at $500. The complainant said he didn't know how entry was gained since all the doors were lock-

STABBED IN CHEST

Miss Sequinita Ann Debnam, 19, 510 Alston Street, Apartment B, reported to Officer L. T. Wilson at 10:27 p. m. Friday that Cleon Berry 24, of "somewhere on Alston Street", stabbed her with a socket knife at the corner of E. Hargett and S. East Stree's because she told her brother to "come on home." She further stated that her brother and some other boys were going to fight. She suffered a one inch wound in the upper chest.

dress, were arguing about him NOT "SWEET PEA" GREEN (Herman) living with then. Frazier, 8100 Liberty He said his stepfather grab-Ira bed a butcher knife and cut who was identified in Place. him and his mother. Both re-CAROLINIAN's Crime the Beat in the issue of Saturday, fused to sign assault with a deadly weapon warrants a-February 28, as being the ingainst Mitchell. Crowell redividual who reportedly was ceived four slashes, each four

'Accused of Assaulting" Miss Judy Evans, 112 Camden St., at her home on the night of Sunday, April 15, by placing his hand between her legs, came into the office of The CAROLINIAN this week and informed the editor of this column that he was innocent of the charges. Mr. Green denied any knowledge of this incident. This column apologizes to Mr. Green for any embarrassment caused him by the publication of the item. but it was reported on the files of the City-County Bureau of Identification in the form in which it appeared. However, Mr. Green had not been contacted for his version of the alleged incident.

ACCUSES MOM-IN-LAW Curtis Titus, 37, 313 Pugh Street informed Officers H. W. Hagwood and C. R. Smith

at 2:25 a.m. Saturday, that he had an argument with his mother-in-law and she struck him with a drinking glass, cutting his forehead. The mother-in-law was listed as being Mrs. Lula May Spence, 38, 313 Pugh Street. The incident occurred there. Titus exhibited a one-inch laceration in the center of his forehead. He was advised by the cops to sign an assault with a deadly weapon warrant.

ROBBED BY TRIO

Bobby Darrell Adams, 24year-old white resident of 227 Carlton Avenue, told Officer J. L. Denning at 12:47 a. m. Saturday, that he had just left George's Grill, 200 block of S. Person Street, and was walking north on Person St., behind Moore Square, when three colored males attacked him. He said they got his wallet, but did not get his money. He was unable to identify the subjects. "The complainant was heavily intoxicated when I talked to him," stated Officer Denning in his report. Adams suffered a cut on the chin, caused by a knife.

NABS SHOPLIFTER

Larry A. Stroud, an em-ployee of Hudson-Belk Department Store, 319 Fayetteville St., reported to Officer B. W. Peoples at 2:08 p.m. Saturday, that Larry Dennis Watkins, 16, Route 1, Box 45, Knightdale, entered the store, stuffed a green Van Heusen shirt under his coat and started to leave. A warrant, charging shop-lifting, was issued and served and the subject was cited to court, due to his age. The shirt was valued at $7.50.

SLAPPED IN MOUTH

Miss Mary Louise Knight, 23, 514 Dorothea Drive, told Officer T. T. Street, Jr., at 11:10 a.m. Saturday, that she had an argument with Leroy McMillan, 25, 908 Manly St., at her house, and he struck her in the mouth with his fist. She said she would sign an assault on a female warrant against McMillan. She had a small laceration on the inside of a lip.

FORCES WAY IN Mrs. Esther Jones, 106 W.

missing.

Lee Street, informed Officer M. Bissette, Jr., at 11:17 a.m. Saturday, that during the night, a colored male forced his way into her bedroom, via a window in the room. She said when he realized he was in the wrong apartment, he ran out through the door. The screen was cut and the window broken. Damage was set at $10.

SUSPECT, RADIO VANISH John Edward Reeder, 51712 S. Person Street, reported to Officer R. Clayborne at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, that while he and Robert Adams, 32, same address, were watching television at this address, he (Reeder) fell asleep and when he woke up both Adams and a $200 radio which he had on a table in his bedroom were

TRIES TO ASSAULT COP Officer Robert Lee Smith, 22, reported at 2:35 a.m. Friday, that he had arrested Jas.

Ronnie Monroe, 23, 522 East Hargett Street, and was attempting to handcuff him

when Monroe grabbed his left arm and pushed him away. Mr. Monroe was charged with assault on an officer.

CONGRATULATIONS - Dr. Prezell R. Robinson, president, Saint Augustine's College, congratulates Miss Alma Lucille Thomas of Raleigh, on her recent appointment by President Nixon to the Foreign Service of the United States Embassy in Paris. At right is Mrs. Ernestine Sanders, head, department of modern language, who was advisor to Miss Thomas, a St. Augustine's graduate in the class of 1966.

thing without a struggle and urged his listeners to enlist full time in the struggle for black independence. Following the address, Mr.

the audience.

Student Union, Miss Sarah Rutherford introduced Mr. Fuller.

Drive Safely Fuller answered questions from

Earl Hart, a junior at the University is chairman of the Black

MR. BUSINESSMAN

Your Problems Are Our Business

Our well-trained staff can prepare your business and personal tax return, and set up a bookkeeping system which will give you the flow of information best suited to your needs, and give you more knowledge in how to obtain a larger net income from your business. Postpaid return for out-oftown clients.

- AUDITING
- BOOKKKEEPING
- BUSINESS PROMOTION
- COMPUTERIZED ACCOUNTING
- · COPYING (Xerox and A. B. Dick Offset Machines)
- · RESEARCH AND ANALYSIS
- SECRETARIAL SERVICE (Dictating equipment

THE CAROLINIAN

NC State U.

Edward L. Graves, assistant

band director at Shaw University, will display his musical gentus as a clarinet soloist on March 10. Graves will play the

Mozart Clarinet Concerto in A,

with the North Carolina State

University Symphony Orchestra

at a concert to be held at 8 p.m. in the Student Union Build-degree from the University of

At Shaw, Mr. Graves is in charge of the Woodwind section of the band. Prior to his present position, held a similar position at A T State University and has worked as Band

Illinois.

RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, MARCH 7, 1970 Shaw Joins

He is a member of the Music Educators National Conference and the National Association of College Wind and Percussion Instructors.

Vets Number In Colleges increases

There are significant increases in the number of disabled veterans studying in colleges and pursuing on-the-job training, Administrator of Veterans Affairs Donald E. Johnson has reported.

ing on NCSU campus. Johnson said nearly 14,800 Graves is a native of Forest, trainees, some 4,100 more than Mississippi and a graduate of last year, were participating in the E. T. Hawkins High School, training programs on January He obtained his undergraduate 31, 1970 degree from Tennessee A&T "More than 9,500 disabled State University at Nashville, Tennessee, and his masters veterans, almost 3,400 more than last year, are attending college this year, thus continuing the trend toward college level training," he said. The enrollment of disabled veterans in schools other than college rose over 400 from more than 3,800 in January •1969, to more than 4,200 in

available if needed

NATIONAL ACCOUNTING & MAN-AGEMENT RESEARCH COMPANY

133 FAYETTEVILLE STREET Box 2314 (919) 828-0401

To some people, ,college is just another bill they can't pay.

Lets take it if you're Black, one of the toughest Mings to get your hands on is a college education. Why? It costs money the for furtient. Money for books. Money for clothes. Money for food and most of a money that the average Black household doesn't have. R. J. Reynolds know it is That's why they ve made Black colleges like Winston Salem State University the promients of R. J. Reynolds cholarship funds. That's also why is 1. Prynolashas supported the United Negre College Fund during the 10 of decode with grants of a quarter of a million dollars.

> But R. J. Revealds won to the there. That's because they believe between ducation offers the best hope for eradicating powers and bringing Black people into the mount war, of American life.

It's R. J. Reynolds, way of keeping the cost of edu cation down and the worth of a people up. And it you want to know who R J. Reynolds is just check the small print on My-T-Fine Desserts Chun King Oriental Foods

> Vermont Mold Syrups, College Inn Chicken and Tomata Products, Davis Boking Pewder, Winston, Salem Camel and Doral cigarettes and many many other fine products Were doing a lot for the community because the community has done a lot for us.

dance.

western civilization, white oppressors, some anti-poverty efforts, so called black intellectuals, integrationists, conservator black educators, pseustatus quo. He criticized those among the listeners who would be black during the day or for a week and then go back to doing what they had been doing all of the time,

Applause and "Rightons" became less numerous as Fuller shifted his attack to include members of his audience, "The struggle is in the real world and not on cloud nine," he said. "You are a double fool if you get caught up in dope," he added.

select professors who give the shortest assignments and assign grades on the basis of the number of visits to his office or the length of the mini skirt. He told his audience that they could rid their institution of such instructors. "Learn some skills so that you can serve our people, we have e-nough empty headed people," he said.

Beteffices starssiduateret taue sit spelerest si aging anowers seenders, erenserengents itte b

Howard Fuller Speaker At Winston-Salem

WINSTON-SALEM - Howard Fuller, president of Malcolm X Liberation University and a black activist urged students at Winston-Salem State University last Tuesday to enlist full time in the struggle for black independence. Fuller spoke during Black History Week.

Black History Week followed the celebration of Negro History Week at the University. It was sponsored by the Black Student Union at the University. Activities, scheduled each day of the week, included speakers, a film, discussions and a Fuller's talk on "Who Are We" and "What Are We About" was punctuated frequently by applause and the Black Panther Slogan "Righton Brother."

Fuller chided and castigated do-liberals and advocates of the Fuller censured students who