

Mayor Pro-Tem Of Southern Pines Says

"Black NC Leaders Have Not Been Sought Out"

Raleigh Native Held In ECU Rape

Grad Of Ligon Is Accused

A 19-year-old student at East Carolina University at Greenville, was arrested last Saturday there and charged with raping a coed at the same institution. Although ECU is a predominantly white university, both the accused and the accuser are black.

PERRY CRUTCHFIELD, JR.

Perry L. Crutchfield, Jr., a 1968 graduate of the John W. Ligon School, Raleigh, whose family is believed to be residents of 623 Quarry Street, was arrested around 3:10 p.m. by Greenville police and charged with raping Miss Connie Lynn Bake, who signed the assault warrant against him.

The arrest was made on the campus of the university.

Richmond To Host Expo Sat.

RICHMOND, Va.—Businesses from across the country are set to exhibit their products and services at the First Annual Black Is Beautiful Business Expo set for the Richmond Arena, March 29th and 30th.

The Expo is scheduled to open at 2 p.m. Sunday the 20th with Mayor Phil Begley of Richmond joining in the ribbon cutting ceremonies with Berkeley Burrell, President of the National Business League; Richmond City Councilman, Henry L. Marsh III; State Senator L. Douglas Wilder; Delegate W. Ferguson Reid; Miss Black America, Miss G. O. Smith of Detroit; Miss Glamour of Rad-

(See EXPO SET, P. 2)

Easter Coloring Contest

Again this year, The CAROLINIAN is sponsoring an Easter Coloring Contest in which three prizes will be given away. See Page 11 for further details.

This contest is open to all children up to 12 years of age, except those of sponsors or employees of this newspaper. You may submit as many sets of pictures as you like. However, you can only win one prize.

The deadline for submitting colored pictures is noon on Monday, March 30.

VIEW FILM ON HUSBAND, FATHER—Atlanta: The family of the late Dr. Martin Luther King arrives at a downtown Atlanta theater March 24 for the showing of the film documentary of the slain civil rights leader. (L-R) Yolanda, 14; Martin, 12; Mrs. King and Dexter, 9. Daughter Bernice not shown. (UPI)

THE CAROLINIAN

North Carolina's Leading Weekly

VOL. 29, NO. 22

RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, MARCH 28, 1970

SINGLE COPY 15c

Cop Also Assaulted As Woman

Stabbed In Face Here

From Newspaper's Tabloid Entrants

22 Winners Selected

Woman Is Stabbed In Forehead

A man whose address was listed as both Raleigh and Clayton has been arrested and charged with assault with a deadly weapon, assault on a police officer and damage to property, following an altercation last Monday night in the Southgate section of the city.

Jesse Clinton Watson, Route 2, Box 304, Clayton, and 1809 Liberty Place, Raleigh, was accused by Miss Rachel Wright, 39, of the Liberty Place address, at 9 p.m. of assaulting her with a knife or other similar instrument at her apartment. The woman said Watson came in the back door of the house, chased her out the front door, then cut her with the instrument, causing serious bodily injury to her head and legs. She suffered deep multiple lac-

NAPFE Shuns Mail Strike

WASHINGTON, D. C. - The National Alliance of Postal and Federal Employees is not participating in or supporting the strike in which certain locals of one of the craft unions are engaged.

President Ashby G. Smith is urging members of the Alliance

(See NAPFE NOE, P. 2)

4,500 TEACHERS STRIKE—Boston: A work stoppage by most of Boston's 4,500 teachers forced the closing of the city's 197 public schools March 24. The members of the Boston Teachers Union staged what they called a "Professional" day and set up pickets at several schools. Several hundred are shown as they marched down School Street from School Headquarters to Boston City Hall. (UPI)

Felton J. Capel Is Heard At NC State U.

"All America will benefit from increased earning power and improved economic status of the black community," a member of the N. C. Board of Conservation and Development told some 200 industrial development officials at a Rural Development Conference at North Carolina State University here Tuesday.

Felton J. Capel of Southern Pines, the Black Mayor pro-tem, told government, industry and education leaders attending

(See FELTON J. CAPEL, P. 2)

Distinction Award To Mrs. King

MEDFORD, Mass. - Mrs. Coretta Scott King, wife of the late Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., will receive the Jackson Award of Distinction, April 7.

(See MRS. KING, P. 2)

Shriners Gird For Gala Day

FAYETTEVILLE - Thurman J. Smith, Deputy of the Desert of North Carolina, Mystic Shrine, announced here last week that the most elaborate plans for the celebration of Gala Day, in Goldsboro, May 15-16, are now being unfolded and, if carried out, will make the event the greatest ever held.

A queen's contest, now underway in the 14 temples, seem to have the greatest lustre. It is being promoted by a committee, headed by Noble William Honeyblue. The first contestant to register is Miss Linda Powell Dixon of Farmville, representing Rofelt-Pasha Temple. She is a senior at H. B. Suggs High School and hopes to continue her education at Fayetteville State University. She is intensely interested in creative dancing.

Another feature that is an

Gifts To Be Given Winners

Among those who braved the rain last Friday and Saturday, there are twenty-two prizes, including a $100 cash prize, given by this newspaper in the $600 gift section published in The CAROLINIAN last week as a 20-page tabloid section.

Coupons were collected from the various stores advertising in the paper and drawings were made at the YWCA, 554 E. Hargett Street, Monday morning. The following persons were declared winners and the stores with which they are to identify themselves to receive their gifts are also included:

Mrs. E. H. Dempsey, 1409 E. Martin St., Hellig-Levine; Lawrence's Inc., 10 Heath St., Carter's Inc., Gladys Reddick, 1506 E. Jones St., Woodworth; Allene Pitts, 307 S. Tarboro St., Hudson-Belt; Mrs. Lillian B. Dunn, Route 7, Box 302, White Cross Drugs; Mrs. Queen Ester Hinton, 24 McKee St., Bosse Jewellers; Louise Curley, 418 S. Swain St., Rhodes, Inc. Stanley Graham, 1943 Rock Quarry, Wood's; Kenover Gill, 3 Franklin Terrace, G. S. Tucker

Drug Use Discussed

"The use of harmful drugs is now a serious problem in Raleigh and both parents and students are urgently in need of education regarding this menace," state Raymond Burton, drug education coordinator of Camp Polk Department of Correction at the Public Affairs Forum of the Bloodworth Street YMCA Friday night.

Types of drugs discussed included (1) the depressant drugs, barbiturates, seconal etc. (2) stimulant drugs, Benzadrine Pep pills (3) Hallucinogens such as LSD, STP, DMT, and (4) the hard drugs such as heroin. The latter two types were described as especially dangerous since they are destroyers of the mind. Three out of ten who begin using such a drug as Marijuana end up

(See DRUG USE, P. 2)

TWO TAR HEELS KILLED IN COLLISION—Wilmington: Two men died early Tuesday morning when their compact pickup truck slammed head-on into the side of a moving train on U. S. 421 north of here. Killed instantly were Carl D. Woodcock, 31, and Roy C. Woodcock, 30, both of Atkinson, N. C. Driver Carl Woodcock apparently never saw the train, as the truck left no skid marks. (UPI)

"Can't Afford To Write Off Black Vote...Anywhere," Sen. Scott Says

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Pennsylvania's U. S. Senator Hugh Scott told a group of black Republican elected officials Friday, "Our Republican party cannot afford to write off the black vote--anywhere."

Scott, the Senate Republican Leader, speaking at a Republican National Committee Black Republican Elected Officials Conference at the Statler Hilton, said, "The Republican Party must cultivate and expand its role in the black community, among the poor, among the middle class, and particularly among the young. He cautioned, "Any Republican strategy must compete for these votes and involvement. He must help."

"Like yourselves, I am by no means satisfied with the record of this Administration, or any other Administration, because wherever full equality of opportunity has not been achieved, the overriding obligation of that Administration is to see that it is achieved," Scott said. However, he added that he was proud of the "outstanding record of educational and economic progress for all Americans of our Republican

(See SEN. SCOTT, P. 2)

St. Aug.'s Audiences Challenged

Dr. James Brewer, professor of history, North Carolina Central University, and Dr. Earl E. Thorpe, chairman of the history department of that institution

(See ST. AUG.'S, P. 1)

First Phase Of OIC Ends, Reopens Apr. 6

ROCKY MOUNT - The first phase of seven weeks of the 'Feeder Program' of Opportunities Industrialization Center (OIC) engaged in the training of the unskilled to secure better jobs and advance to others came to a close here at the local OIC unit in the former BTA school building Thursday night when progress reports were given by members of the volunteer teaching staff and some advanced students.

Under the untiring efforts of guidance, teaching and coordination of programs by Mrs. Rosa Brodie and Mrs. Vivian Tillman, both of whom played the major roles in organizing

(See OIC ENDS, P. 10)

TESTIFIES - Washington: Charles West, 23, of Chicago, a former Army sergeant who witnessed the alleged My Lai massacre, told the Senate Juvenile Delinquency subcommittee March 24 that a majority of the GIs who participated smoked marijuana. He said that some of them did so the night before the incident. Dr. Joel H. Kaplan, a former Army psychiatrist who worked with drug users in Vietnam, told the subcommittee that if the soldiers were "chronic pot-heads" it could have contributed to their actions. (UPI)

CRIME BEAT

SCRATCHED BY DRUNK - Mrs. Mary D. McCullers, 918 Fayetteville Street, told Officer G. W. Abernathy at 1:04 a.m. Sunday, that she came home and found Bernard Tucker, 28, 1008 Mark Street, drunk in her house. She stated she asked Tucker to leave, but he got mad and scratched her face and eyes with his fingernails. Mrs. McCullers, who suffered a scratched face, said she would sign an assault and battery warrant against Mr. Tucker.

In The Sweepstakes
SPOTLIGHT THIS WEEK
Arlans Department Store
Where Super Savings Always Prevail
See SWEEPSTAKES Ads
Read Page 10 For Winners

Sweepstakes Grows

Number 3935, 12112 and 12446 are winning numbers in this week's CAROLINIAN'S Revised Sweepstakes feature. Number 3935, first prize, is worth 25 in merchandise at Terry Furniture Co., 214 E. Martin St.; 12112, second, is valuable for $15 at Briggs Hardware, 220 Fayetteville St.; and number 12446, third, $10 at Metropolitan Furniture Leasing Co., 3801 S. Wilmington St. In the Spotlight this week is Arlan's, 1920 North Blvd. (See SWEEPSTAKES, P. 2)

WILLIAM HONEYBLUE