

Black Churchmen Demand Millions At NC Meet

Advance In Missions Is Stated Goal

BY J. B. HARREN

CHARLOTTE - Nearly two hundred ministers, laymen and students, representing the Black Presbyterians United gathered here in a three-days strategy conference, at the Barringer Motor Inn, April 3-5, where plans were outlined to make urgent requests (some said demands) to the United Presbyterian Church in the United States of America (UPUSA) for upwards of a million dollars as an "Advance In Missions" to accelerate the work of the estimated sixty million Negro members of the national UPUSA body.

THE BREATH OF LIFE-Boston: Boston policeman Randolph Lamatina (R) of Dist. 11, applies mouth-to-mouth resuscitation to 3-mos. old June Floyd of Dorchester section, Boston April 6. Running at left, June's mother, Mrs. Karen Floyd. The child, who had choked on a bone, was rushed to Boston City Hospital, and later released. (UPI).

Alliance Sues US Post Office

THE CAROLINIAN

North Carolina's Leading Weekly
VOL. 29, NO. 24 RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, APRIL 11, 1970 SINGLE COPY 15c

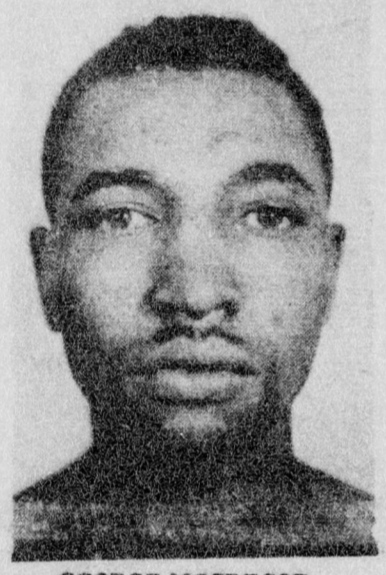

Raleigh Man Brandishes Shotgun

Shoots Two In Head

Suspended From School

Boy, 15, Kills Himself

McGregor Jailed In Shootings

GEORGE MCGREGOR

A 48-year-old Raleigh man whose active police record dates back to August 23, 1952, when he was picked up on an assault with a deadly weapon rap, was jailed again early Saturday morning and charged with the same raps. This time, however, the words "with intent to kill" were added.

NAPFE Head Announces Two Suits

WASHINGTON, D. C. - Postmaster General Winton M. Blount and Secretary of Labor George P. Shultz are named as defendants in a suit for injunctive relief brought by the National Alliance of Postal and Federal Employees and its president, Ashby G. Smith, last Thursday.

Luther Sanders, 30, 830 1/2 E. Lenoir Street, told Officers R. D. Goodwin and B. W. Peoples at 2:30 a.m. Saturday, that he and George McGregor, 621 Dorothea Drive, had an argument in the 600 block of Dorothea. He said McGregor threatened him and he got into his car, containing several more

Vice Mayor Of Atlanta Will Speak

DURHAM - Maynard Jackson, vice-mayor of Atlanta, Georgia, will be the speaker for North Carolina Central University's annual Awards Day program at 10 a.m., April 24, in B. N. Duke Auditorium.

Jackson, the first Negro to serve in the vice-mayor's post in Atlanta, is an alumnus of the university's school of law. His mother, Dr. Irene Dobbs Jackson, is chairman of the university's Department of Modern Foreign Languages.

The speaker is a graduate of Morehouse College in Atlanta. The holder of a Ford

GILBERT L. PARKER

Return Of Jim Crow Predicted

ATLANTA - A well-known Southern liberal said Sunday that a new White House policy on race, abetted by black separatists and some Northern liberals, threatens to reimpose old racial patterns on the nation.

Charles Morgan, Jr., attorney in school desegregation and other civil liberties cases, said recent developments provide respectability for "an all-out and undisguised attack on desegregation." Mr. Morgan, now Southern director of the American Civil Liberties Union, expressed his views in an article

NC Shriners Readies For Goldsboro

GOLDSBORO - From reports given out by C. I. Bland, general chairman of Gala Ceremonies, Shriners of the Desert of North Carolina, which will

Turns Gun On Self In Durham

DURHAM - A bomb threat on Carr Junior High School in Durham Monday has been attributed to the apparent suicide of Gilbert L. Parker Friday night.

Parker, 15 years old who was depressed because he had been suspended from school (Carr Junior High), went upstairs after he had been scolded by his mother, Mrs. Lillie Parker, and shot himself with his brother's rifle. He was dead upon arrival at Duke Hospital.

The youth's father was killed in Vietnam.

Mrs. Parker said she received a letter Friday from the assistant principal and dean of the school saying her son had been suspended.

Ham, Egg Show In Smithfield

SMITHFIELD - The 23rd Annual Ham and Egg Show and sale will be held at the Johnston County Agricultural Building in Smithfield, April 8-9, according to an announcement from Hernando J. Palmer, agricultural Extension Agent.

Last year's winners were Robie Williams, Route 1, Clayton, whose ham brought $232; and Mrs. Mamie Hocutt, whose champion dozen eggs sold for $200.

Registration for all hams and eggs took place between 9 a.m. and 11 a.m. April 28. No entries were accepted after these hours. The winning entries will then be sold at public auction, at 2 p.m. Thursday, April 9.

All hams will fall into one of two classes for both sugar-

North Carolinian Nominated For Vice Presidency Of National PTA

Mrs. Carlton G. Watkins, of (4741 Hedgemore Drive) Charlotte, president of the North Carolina State PTA, has been nominated for the office of National PTA vice-president, Region III.

Elected at the 1970 convention of the National PTA to be held in New Orleans, May 31 through June 3, Mrs. Watkins will represent Alabama, Florida, Georgia, North and South Carolina, and Tennessee as the vice-president from Region III.

As North Carolina state president, Mrs. Watkins has been a member of the National PTA board of Managers since 1966. She is a daughter of the PTA Magazine and a member of Crown And Scepter To City Sat.

The Thirty-ninth Annual Convocation of the Crown and Scepter Honor Society will be held at Saint Augustine's College April 11. The theme will be "The Crossroad: Where Do We Go From Here?"

The general session will begin at 9:45 a.m. in the Emery Health and Fine Arts Center. The keynote speaker for the session will be Mrs. Thelma C. Lennon, director, Division of Pupil Personnel Services, Department of Public Instruction, Raleigh.

Workshops will be held during the day with discussions on the following topics: (1) "With Regard to Contemporary Social Issues," (2) "With Regard to Community Problems and Involvement," (3) "With Regard to Business Industry and Other Related Fields," (4) "With Regard to Post-High School Education."

The workshop leaders will be Miss Ruby L. Pinchback, Norlina High School, Norlina; Charles Swindell, Enfield; Reverend Charles T. Bullock, pastor First Baptist Church, Weldon; J. Frank Toller, consultant to Migrant Programs, Department of Public Instruction, Raleigh; Wiley M. Davis, Department of Local Affairs, Raleigh.

The state officers are Miss Edith Brown, president, Weldon; Howard Manning, vice the committees on National PTA publications and on state and national relationships.

Before becoming a member of the National Board, Mrs. Watkins was active in state, council, and local organizations. She continues her interest in local PTA affairs as a member of the Park Road Elementary School PTA and the Independence High School PTSA, Charlotte.

Active in civil affairs on the local, state, and national levels, Mrs. Watkins is a member of the United Forces for Education in North Carolina, the North Carolina Task Force for Education, the Governor's Beautification Committee, and the North Carolina Committee for the American Social Health Association.

Mrs. Watkins is a member of the board of directors of the Mecklenburg Family Life Council and the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Council on Alcoholism. She is also a member of the Charlotte Chapter of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, the North Carolina Council on Crime and Delinquency, and the Mecklenburg Auxiliary.

Dr. and Mrs. Watkins are the parents of two sons and two daughters.

Marine Is Sentenced To 9 Yrs.

CAMP LEJEUNE - Sylvester T. Hundley, Jr., an eighteen-year-old Negro Marine was found guilty of involuntary manslaughter in the death of a 20-year-old white Marine during a race riot at Camp LeJeune last July, and sentenced to nine years at hard labor here Monday.

The six member trial board (jury), after deliberating only 72 minutes, also found Hundley guilty of rioting and one count of assault. It acquitted him on

BEATEN OVER MAN - Miss Bobbie Jean Archible, 1116 Hazelnut Drive, told Officers H. F. Gay and K. J. Johnson at 9:32 p.m. last Monday, that she was at the Torch Drive In, 5 Hayti Alley, when Haywood Sanders, Jr., 26, 1033 Walnut Street, "A friend I used to go with," came in and started talking in an ill manner to her and the man she was with. She said Sanders told her he would shoot her if he ever caught her with another man. She said he then pulled out a .22 calibre pistol and dropped it on the table. Miss Archible said she picked up the weapon and ran out of the Torch. He followed and caught her, she said, then he hit her in the mouth with his hand. Sanders then reportedly took the gun away from her and Miss Archible called "the law."

She said she was there twice on March 27. Sanders was charged with assault on a female.

Abernathy, Kilgore To Speak At NCCU Mon.

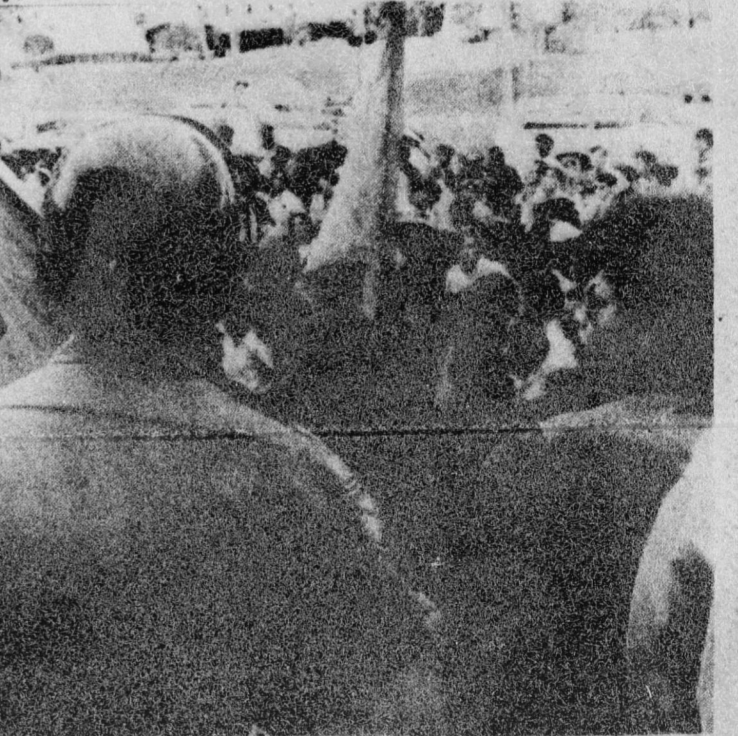

DURHAM - The Rev. Ralph D. Abernathy, president of the Southern Christianity Leadership Conference, will be the first of two speakers sponsored by the North Carolina Central University campus ministry Monday, April 13.

The successor to Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., will speak at noon in B. N. Duke Auditorium. The Rev. Dr. Thomas Kilgore, Jr., will speak at 8 p.m. that evening in B. N. Duke Auditorium. Kilgore is president of the predominantly white American Baptist Convention.

Dr. J. Neal Hughley, NCCU's campus minister, announced a list of topics he expects the two speakers to cover. They included "Religion, Violence and the Black Revolution," "The Spirit of King and the Strategy of Non-Violence," "Christianity and the Church Facing a New Day," and "How Much Longer Segregated Education... Segregated Housing?"

Abernathy has served Baptist Church, Montgomery, Alabama, and West Hunter Street Baptist Church, Atlanta, as a minister. He was a close associate of the late Dr. King and was co-leader of the Montgomery Bus Boycott and co-founder of the SCLC.

In 1964, Abernathy conferred with Pope Paul in Rome and in the same year he traveled with Dr. King to witness King's acceptance of the Nobel Peace Prize. In 1968 Abernathy toured the world with other United States leaders on a peace quest of his own.

AT ANTI-CARSWELL DEMONSTRATION - Tallahassee, Fla.: A young standard bearer for the Malcolm X United Liberation Front waves his banner in the face of a Leon County sheriff's deputy during an anti-Carwell demonstration on the steps of the capitol. The demonstrator was asked to move his flag and a verbal encounter ensued. (UPI).

DAY OF REMEMBRANCE-Atlanta: Members of the Martin Luther King family lead the Nation in commemoration marking the second anniversary of the assassination of the slain civil rights leader, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., at the crypt. (Two children at extreme left are (1) Angela Farris and Issac Farris (2), grandchildren of Rev. and Mrs. Martin Luther King, Sr.; L to R, Rev. Martin Luther King, Sr.; Mrs. King, Sr.; grand-daughter, Bernice; Coretta; daughter, Yolanda; sons Martin Luther III; and Dexter. (UPI).

In The Sweepstakes
SPOTLIGHT THIS WEEK
G. S. TUCKER & BROS.
Your Complete Family Furniture Store For Generations

See SWEEPSTAKES Ads
Read Page 12 For Winners

In Sweepstakes
Prizes Now Worth $600

Merchandise worth some $600 is now available at participating businesses in The CAROLINIAN's Revised Sweepstakes Promotion, since no lucky person has appeared at the office of the newspaper with corresponding numbers to those having appeared in the newspaper since the beginning of the Promotion.

Numbers this week are as follows: 0498, first prize, is worth $25 in trade at National Pure Food Market, E. Martin Street, 12602, second, worth $15 at Stephen's Appliance