

FROM RALEIGH'S OFFICIAL POLICE FILES

THE CRIME BEAT

SPRAYED IN FACE

Kenny Holiday, 815 Cannister Street, told Officer J. W. Wright at 2:42 a.m. Saturday, that he was getting into a vehicle outside of Burnett's Grill, W. South Street, when he was sprayed in the face with an unidentified solution. He said he had no idea who did this. He suffered irritation of the eyes.

ACCUSED LUTHER HINES

Walter James Johnson, 911 Wade Avenue, Garner, reported to Officer D. Brinson at 8:30 a.m. Friday, that Luther Hines, Jr., 405 Walser Place, chased him with a knife at Hines' house. He signed a warrant, charging assault with a deadly weapon, against Mr. Hines, about 25 years of age.

JUMPED BY THREE

James Norris, Route 2, Benson, informed a cop at 7:15 a.m. Friday, that he was walking in the 300 block of East Lenoir Street when three colored males, approximately 20 years of age, jumped him and beat him up. According to the police report, "The complainant was drunk at the time of admission to the hospital." He was treated for abrasions of the nose, a laceration of the left eyebrow and a broken nose.

KICKED IN HEAD

John L. Harris, 1321-A Holman Street, gave the following information to Officer J. W. Wright at 2:42 a.m. Saturday: "My friend and I were getting into a car in front of Burnett's Grill, 320 W. South Street, when we were sprayed with something. After this, I was kicked in the head and struck on the side of my face with some type of blunt object." He suffered bruises of the face.

ACCUSED OF ASSAULT

Miss Joyce Ann Bennett, 201 Dorothea Drive, told Officer W. E. Radford at 2:18 p.m. Saturday, that a colored male came into Burnett's Grill and started arguing with and hitting her. She stated he followed her to the 300 block of E. Lenoir Street where he is said to have struck her some more and kicked her. She said that when she started calling for the police, he ran off toward W. South Street. Listed as a suspect was Sylvester Howland, 26, 1105 Walnut Street and 201 W. Lee Street. A warrant was signed by Miss Bennett for assault on a female. She had a laceration above the left ear.

SLUGGED FOR ERRAND

Miss Judy Ann Harris, 21, 215 Cooke Street, reported to Officer Lonnie T. Wilson at 8:30 p.m. Saturday, that Jno. Henry Washington, 51, Route 1, Louisburg, hit her beside the head with his fist in the 600 block of E. Lane Street because she went to the store for her father and another man. She exhibited bruises on the face. She signed an assault on a female warrant and Washington was "hauled off" to Wake County Jail.

ATTACKED, ROBBED

William Henry Thomas, 44, 218 Fowle Street, told Officer W. E. Hensley at 5 a.m. Saturday, that he took three unidentified subjects home, but he did not know the exact location. He said while they were getting out of his vehicle, they sprayed his face with chemical mace, then took his wallet, containing $17. He further stated that while he was trying to get away, he ran into a fire hydrant at the corner of West South and S. Salisbury Sts., because he could not see. The police report stated, "This subject did have the odor of whiskey on him. He suffered a cut lip."

HIT IN MOUTH

Mrs. Annie Pearl Brown, 32, 104 Kirkman Lane, informed Officer Lindsay W. Godwin at 8:33 p.m. Sunday, that her husband, Lonnie Ray Brown, 40, came home and had been drinking. She said they got into a "fuss" and he struck her in the mouth, then beat her head against the wall. Mrs. Brown suffered bruises of the mouth and a cut lip. A warrant was advised by the cop.

SAYS STEPSON BEAT HIM

David Louis Robertson, 48, 1902 Pender Street, Apt. C, told Officer J. W. Pegram at 4:59 p.m. Sunday, that he and his wife were "having a little argument," at which time his stepson, Lee Andrew Moore, 23, same address, and another subject hit him in the face with their fists. He said he would sign assault and battery warrants against both subjects. He said the other man lives in Apt. B at this address, but he only knows his first name to be Jimmy. Mr. Robertson exhibited cuts on the nose and left cheek.

BEATEN IN BOOTH

Miss Betty McKnight, 20, 1303 Walnut Street, reported to a cop at 11:45 p.m. Sunday, that she was in a telephone booth in the 300 block of E. Cabarrus Street when her boyfriend, Junior Lockwood, 215, E. Edenton Street, came up and started hitting her about the face and head with his hands and fists. A warrant is on file for Lockwood's arrest.

ATTACKED BY MATE

Mrs. Mildred Marie Ray, 913 Page Street, told Officer E. C. Currin at 3:33 p.m. on Tuesday, that she was beaten severely about the head and face by her husband, Wilbert Lee Ray, 35. She further stated that he had been drinking. When the officer arrived at the scene, he reported that the woman was bleeding from the right ear and the mouth. She was treated at Wake Memorial Hospital. Ray was arrested and charged with assault with a deadly weapon, since an unidentified solid object was used in the attack.

SHOOTS AT TWO

Mrs. Barbara Ann Thorpe, 609 1/2 S. McDowell Street, informed Officer S. E. Cobb at 10:02 p.m. last Sunday, that as she was on her way to 206 Dorothea Drive, someone shot at her. She said that while enroute back to her home, someone shot at her husband, Curtis Andrews, 1209 Holman Street, was listed as a suspect.

FOOD FOR THE HUNGRY

Every year, more than 16 million poor inhabitants of some 60 countries receive their basic nutritional requirements through Catholic Relief Services. They include nearly 5 million children — many of whom get their only meal of the day through a lunch program maintained by Catholic Relief Services.

Regular Health Class Held At Senior Citizens Center

The Senior Citizens Center, 416 E. Cabarrus Street held the regular weekly health class meeting on Wednesday, April 22.

This is a class, taught by Mrs. L. B. West, registered nurse, who has been giving volunteer service one morning a week to the Senior Citizens since November 5, 1969. This Center is sponsored by Wake County Opportunities, Inc. and is federally funded by OEO. One of the requirements of OEO is that part of the budget be met by volunteer service, money or materials and Mrs. West is helping in this capacity.

The health class began on January 7, 1970 and 75 people have enrolled with an average attendance of 40.

Mrs. West is a delightful teacher and enthalls the class with her discussion on the body, its functions and care. She started out by asking the group about their health problems and each week plans to teach and show pictures regarding different diseases such as heart
