LDF Sues Cannon Mills For 'Flagrant Job Bias'

TARHEEL GREETS EX-CHIEF JUSTICE-Charlotte Attorney Julius L. Chambers (r) greets former Chief Justice Earl Warren, guest of honor, at the 1970 Institute of the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc. (LDF) in New York City. Mr. Chambers, who directs much of LDF's litigation in North Carolina, addressed a gathering on the southern school crisis, one of six roundtable discussions at the late May event, which was attended by more than 2,500. LDF

Blacks-Liberals Top All Others In Orange's Bid For Party Power

three blacks were elected precinct chairmen of the Orange the county's only black precinct County Democratic Party Sat-possibly be the largest turnout Park precinct, near Hills- people turned out for the meet ever in a county in North Caro- borough, and Eddie Caldwell, lina for a precinct meeting, Jr., Northside precinct, Chapel Hill. Caldwell previously was ings in Glenwood Country Club and Estes Hills precincts in Chapel Hill. This Foushee said, represented about 20 precinct of the registered Democrats.

failure for the Conservatives who tried to regain control of the precincts they lost in 1968.

Their defeat insured the predominantly liberal-black coalition control of the county party

The conservatives' effort to regain control of the Chapel

Hill precincts was based upor

the defeat in the second run off on May 30 of the three candidates for county commission

but up by the liberal - black

The turnout on May 30 may spell a "changing day" for

Orange County in that the Mayor if a black man and the University of North Carolina, the nation's oldest coeducational institution, is located in this

The conservative voter is expected to "lick his wounds" until a better day arrives. This is (See CRANGE'S BID, P. 2)

Race Unity

Day Here

mankind under God.

ty of Mankind.

(See RACE UNITY F. 2)

On Sunday

coalition.

Saturday's elections spelled

According to county party The three blacks elected were chairman Roger Foushee Mrs. Armetta McPherson, West of Chapel Hill, the turnout was Hillsborough precinct, Mrs. the largest in the history of

Policemen's Institute Underway At College

Policemen's Institute spon-sored by Saint Augustine's College, at the Naval Reserve Training Center.

Dr. Andrew Gotteshall, associate professor of sociology, Guildord College Greensboro, was the keynoter. He stated that Community Relations has three thrusts: Community Participation, Community Service and Public Relations, Sociological

Blacks In Business' Published

WASHINGTON, D. C.-A bibliography that may be the most complete yet developed on black involvement in business has been published by the Institute for Minority Business Education, a division of Howard University's Small Business Guidance and Development Center. The 42-page bibliography, The Negro in the Field of Business, lists more than 200 books, articles, government reports and other material dealing with the black American's experience and problems as an entre-

"Community Relations and changes, which are affecting the Law Enforcement," was the American Community, demand topic of the main address Mon- increased professionalism in day morning. June 8, at the law enforcement, Furthermore law enforcement people have not been added in proportion to the increased population. He added that traditional forms of law enforcement have not really faced up the other part of its job, which is crime prevention. The police cadets were urged to participate in community affairs by becoming members of community organi-

Communications efforts to solve race relations have not been effective, he said, The whites will listen to the problems of the blacks, and that is about all, but the black community expects the white community to take action.

The second speaker for the morning was Herman Aldridge, human relations specialist from the Good Neighbor Council, Aldridge said that Community Relations in the Police Department of North Carolina are not very good. However, the Raleigh police campared more favorably than others in North Carolina, even in Wake County, as to attitudes. He said that the policemen's standards of education have been raised from what they were in the past. You, as policemen, will determine the long run the re-

TARHEEL ANNOUNCES NEW QUIDLENES ON WOMEN'S RIGHTS Washington Mirs. Elizabeth Duncan Koontz, director of the Labor Department's Women's Bureau, announces the Administration's new guidelines on women's rights at the White House June 9. The guidelines prohibit federal contractors from discriminating against women in job opportunities and working conditions. They include giving women time off from work to have babies and prohibit faderal contractors from using job wanted ads under "male" or "demale,"

VOL. 29, NO. 38

At Shaw University

Five-Day Religious Meet Set

THE CAROLINIAN

North Carolina's Leading Weekly

RALEIGH, N. C. SATURDAY, JUNE 13, 1970

SINGLE COPY 15c

Fifteen Escape Successfully, But

Fleeing Inmate Killed

City Council Approves

New Southside Plan

New Shape Taken In Southside

urban renewal plan took on a new shape Tuesday afternoon as the City Council approved a revised edition of the plan, scaled down from 113 acres to 98 acres. This new plan is 20 acres smaller than the original plan approved by voters in the March referendum.

In addition to the size change six other site changes are now proposed. They involve land use and call for alternate adaptions of various areas within the re-(See NEW SHAPE, P. 2)

St. Aug.'s Grad Picked By Reynolds

Dr. Joseph G. Gordon, M. D. director of the Reynolds Memorial Hospital's Department of Radiology, has been elected a trustee of the Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation, according to William L. Lybrook, Foundation

(See REYNO DS. P. 2) Race Unity Day is sponsored nationally by the U. S. Baha'i Community and is observed in 2,700 localitie The purpose of the day is to focus attention on the most challenging issue facing American-racial issue and stress the essential oneness of A public meeting sponsored by the local Baha'i Community will be held to observe the Day. The meeting will be held at 11 a.m. - 2 p.m., June 14, at Salter White Port, Henderson. Mr. Charles Abererombie will address the meeting on Uni-Lawrence Miller, chairman of the Baha'i Assembly of Raleigh, stated, "This year is In-

DR. JOSEPH G. GORDON

In The Sweepstakes SPOTLIGHT THIS WEEK BRIGGS HARDWARE

The Complete Hardware Store for Over a Century

See SWEEPSTAKES Ads Read Page 10 For Winners

For Sweepstakes Merchandise Sweepstakes Advancing

tickets are still being delivered, so check your mailbox daily to see if yours has arrived, The merchandise is really piling up in participating stores in the Revised Sweepstakes Pro-

First prize number is 0103, valuable for $25 in merchandise at the National Pure Food

CAROLINIAN sweepstakes Market, 208 E. Martin Street. Second prize, worth $15, is Number 08700, valuable at Smith's Shoe Shop, 1811 Old Garner Road; and the third winning number is 08886, $10, good at Roses in Cameron Village. This week's spotlight is on Briggs Hardward Co., 220

Fayetteville St. (See SWEEPSTAKES, P. 2)

SEARCH FOR ESCAPED PRISONERS-Scotland Neck: Department of Corrections prison guards search through a heavily wooded swamp area for 13 inmates s'ill on the loose following their June 9 escape from a prison bus. The prisoners escaped when the bus carrying them stopped at an intersection and several of the inmates broke through a door seperating them from the guards and overpowered them. (UPI).

Scarcity Of Theologians Is Discussed At Meeting

nary, 671 Beckwith Street, S.

ogical seminary from J. C.

Smith University at Charlotte to be combined with the Atlanta college complex, Costen, a former Tarheelia pastor who went to Atlanta and built a new church from scratch, has assumed to post of dean in charge of recruitment for the seminary.

Churchmen and women, knowing of youths religiously inclined for ministerial work, should stact one of the above-nam-d or the office of Dr. Elo L.

lenderson, Catawba Synod Of-

Since the moving of the theol-

W., Atlanta, Ga. 30314.

ROCKY MOUNT-A communi- High Street Columbus, Ohio 43que from the desk of Edgar 214; and the Rev. James H. Ward (475 Riverside Dr., New York, N. Y. 10027), associate minational Theological Semichairman, Board National Missions, United Presbyterian Church USA, conveys the discouraging info that there are only thirty Black Seminary Students - United Presbyterians, that is-enrolled in the several Schools of Theology the year just ending. "Four of these have finished or been classified as overseas students, les ing a total of only 26 sched uled to continue in study for the ministry, notes Mr. Ward, the Rev. Robert Newbold, Dept. Ministrial Relations, 4284 N.

Ex-Raleighite Is Tops At Manassas, Va

MANASSAS, Va.-The promo tions of Manice A. Banks, R. N., to managing nurse, personnel services; Carl Conklin to manager of equipment maintenance, third shift; and Arthur W. Hazlett to manager of business and control. accounting services, have been announced IBM

Manassas. Mrs. Banks MRS. BANKS joined IBM in 1966 at the Research Triangle Park, Raleigh, N. C. plant as a staff nurse. In 1969, upon transferring to Manassas, she was promoted to sentor nurse. Mrs. Banks taught nursing for a number of years at the Lincoln School of Nursing, Durham, N. C. She is a member of Daughter of Ists, Raleigh District, and is the wife of Mr. Festas Banks of Raleigh, and the only sister of Shaw's National "Miss Alumni," Miss Almetta Armstrong of Raleigh.

Tries To Run From N. C. BUS SCOTLAND NECK -

One inmate was killed Tuesday in an escape attempt in which 15 other inmates made good their getaway and 22 prisoners refused to run. Esau Cook, Jr., 25, of Charlotte was shot by guard W. D. Smith when he attempted to (See ONE KILLED, P. 2)

Native Of Wake 'Best' NCCU Grad

WENDELL-Miss Carol Ann Watson of Wendell, graduated Summa Cum Lauda at North Carolina Central University, Durham, on May 31st.

Summa Cum Laude is the highest title of distinction bestowed upon Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science candidates at all United States colleges and universities.

Miss Watson qualified for this nonor by maintaining a 3.8 cumulative averaged (out of a possible 4.00), her four years stay at NCCU. Out of graduating class of seven hundred and fifty, Carol and one other were the only candidates for the Summa Cum Laude

(See NATIVE OF. P. 2)

SALISBURY - Attornevs of the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc. (LDF) filed a complaint this week in the U. S. District Court here against what may be one of the most prevasive and tenacious policies of employment discrimiiation maintained by a najor U. S. corporabased in Kannapolis, North Carolina, is one of the largest extile companies in the nation and has therefore received key

According to LDF attorneys, in most cases of job discrimination complaints, textile companies have at least responded with written assurances of re-

However, despite several actions against Cannon Mills, they assert, the company has refused to offer any such assurances.

the following violations of the fair employment practices provisions of the 1964 Civil Rights Act (Title VII):

Recruitment of new employees through means designed to reach more white persons than black;

Use of arbitrary standards of hiring which are irrelevant to job requirements and have the effect of weeding out black applicants;

Segregated jobs, departments and classifications on the basis (See LDF SUES P 2)

Dr. Sampson To Keynote Shaw Talks

'The Church Confronts the Challenge of Change," will be the theme of a five-day religious meeting at Shaw University, to be held June 15 through 19. The University will host the 34th Annual Minister's Institute; the 33rd Annual Woman's Missionary Training Conference and the 20th Annual Youth Bible Camp.

Dr. Frederick Sampson, Pas-(See DR. SAMPSON, P. 2)

Wather Ernest Clark, 704 Method Rd., told Officer C. Y. Pittman at 1:17 p.m. last Friday, that he went to 716 Lunar Drive (Apollo Heights), to see his wife, from whom he is legally separated. Mr. Clark said that when got to the door, Johnny Evans, 716 Lunar Dr., threatened him with a gun. then hit him on the nose with the ,38 calibre pistol. Mr. Clark, who suffered a broken nose, was advised to sign an assault with a deadly weapon

(See CRIME BEAT P 3)

SPEEDSTER GIVEN AID-Gainesville, Fla.: Melvin Young (C) receives aid after smashing into a parked semi tractor trailer while driving at a very high speed, Gamesville Police Department Sgi. Tom Gant lends a rand (upper right), (UPI).