Exchange Program Allows W-S Student To Visit South America

WINSTON-SALEM - History repeated itself last week in the C. B. Hauser family. The youngest daughter, Lois Patricia, left for an eight week stay in Bucaramanga, Colombia in South America as a part of the City's Sister City Program.

Almost six years ago to the day, Fay the other Hauser daughter packed up and was off for a similar visit to that South American city as a part of the same program.

These visits are part of an Exchange Program between Winston-Salem and Bucaramanga which have been going on since the fall of 1963. Under the program 72 Colombian teenagers have visited Winston-Salem and 63 Winston-Salem students have spent the summer in South America. Adult groups have participated also.

Traveling with Lois were four other teen-agers, three girls and a boy.

Eastside Reminders

BY MRS. RUTH M. BETHEA
844 E. Lenoir St. PHONE 832-6389

As we acknowledge and confess our short comings in this life of ours, we also must realize this is why many good things are sometimes taken from us often unexpectedly, because God wishes to make us realize that we must be given a shaking up at times to make us realize that He MRS. BETHEA says to us "I am God and there is none other and He wishes to teach us to hate our errors, cleanse us from our secret faults and make us better Christians.

The Rev. Dr. B. S. Foust, has left the city to serve the people of Baltimore, and soon Rev. John Bagby will be leaving Davie Street United Presbyterian Church. How sad it is to have these men of God leave us. As these go, others will come, watch, always to work with us harmoniously.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Tillman of Vardaman Street are the proud parents of a baby girl, born Sunday, June 21st at 1:15 at Wake Memorial Hospital.

The Oberlin Community was saddened this week by the unexpected death of Mr. Leonidas Haywood, who died in his sleep. Mr. Haywood a former principal of the Oberlin School and a kind, pleasant friendly person who will be greatly missed in his community and church.

Watch for we know neither the day nor the hour Where-in the Son of Man cometh.

Again sadness: Eulogistic services for Mrs. Alice L. Banks Baker were held Saturday, June 27th at 3:00 p.m. at Poplar Springs United Church of Christ in Raleigh. Rev. J. W. Albright, pastor, officiated.

Many tours are being planned and some already on their way to joyable and pleasant vacations. Join in and remember too, safety first.

Cheek Clarifies Shaw U's Role With Former Mich. Lutheran

Shaw University's Board of Trustees announced recently through its President, Dr. King V. Cheek, Jr. that contrary to erroneous statements appearing recently in various publications, there has been no merger between Shaw University at Raleigh, North Carolina and The Michigan Lutheran College of Detroit, Michigan, nor has there been and transfer of the Michigan College to the Shaw University Federation at this time.

Dr. Cheek said, "Contrary to statements which have recently appeared, the Michigan institution is not a branch of Shaw University in Raleigh. It remains a separate educational corporation incorporated under the laws of the State of Michigan. The Board of Trustees of Shaw University at Raleigh have no control over the Board of Regents of Michigan Lutheran nor over the college itself."

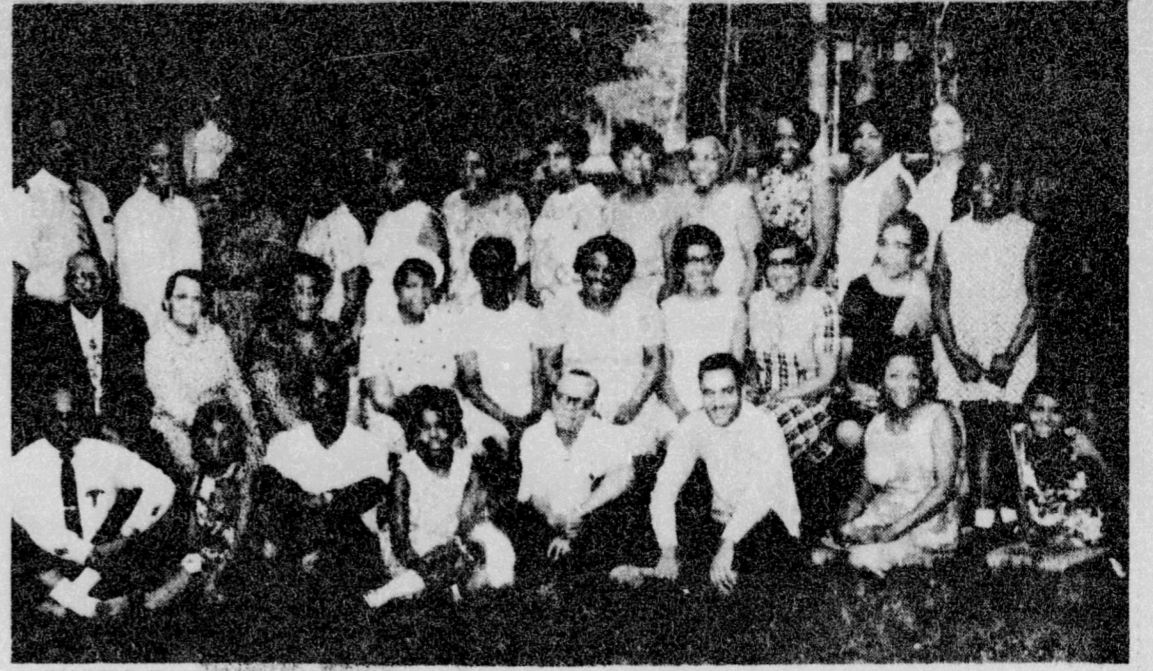

Dr. Cheek acknowledges that Shaw University initially provided technical and consultative assistance to the Michigan Lutheran College of Detroit during its recent financial crisis. He said, "The Executive Committee of Shaw University's Board of Trustees acknowledges that the work of the Shaw University administration and others had been consistent with the desire of the Shaw University Board of Raleigh to develop a satisfactory satellite program. However, the committee further acknowledged that developing a Satellite Program in Detroit through assumption of control over Michigan Lutheran College, as would be the case in other areas, should come about only when financial, legal and administrative matters are satisfactory resolved."

He said, "Attorney William C. Raines, a member of Shaw University's Board of Trustees, who has been interested in the Michigan project preceded to have the transfer made to him independently of any connection whatsoever with Shaw University.

He activated fund-raising projects to liquidate existing Michigan Lutheran obligations."

Dr. Cheek added, "The name 'Shaw College at Detroit', which was selected by the Board of Regents of the Michigan school, in no way connects the school with Shaw University at Raleigh. We assume the Board of Regents there deemed the name appropriate because of Shaw University's commitment to this area of concern," he said.

Dr. Cheek ended his statement by saying, "This does not preclude the Michigan institution from becoming a part of The Shaw University Federation once it is stabilized in those areas of concern by our Board of Trustees. Nor does it mean that the Urban College Concept has been repudiated by the Shaw University Board of Trustees.

State Considers Legislation On Kindergartens

TUSKEGEE INSTITUTE, Alabama is considering legislation to include kindergarten in its public schools, and when the legislation is passed, a Regional Training Center for Early Childhood Education at Tuskegee Institute will prepare teachers to certify for instruction in the program.

The Regional Center at Tuskegee Institute covers five states in addition to Alabama, Georgia, Florida, Louisiana, Mississippi and South Carolina.

The Center's coordinator, Mrs. Serreeta H. Reed, says the Center is insisting that participants "look at children from a development point of view as opposed to a set curriculum."

"Everybody develops differently," Mrs. Reed explained, "If a child hasn't learn to read at six, there is no need for alarm. It only means he hasn't developed to that point," Mrs. Reed continued.

In addition to emphasis on the development approach in teaching children, participants are also becoming acquainted with materials, procedures, and devices of teacher preparation, and establishing needs and methods of "critically evaluating" and selecting materials to aid teacher training.

Yes, We All Talk

BY MARCUS H. BOULWARE AMENDING BY SUBSTITUTION
The purpose of an amendment to a motion is to change the wording to make it more agreeable to most members. One of the ways to amend a motion is by substitution, that is, substituting one word or phrase for another.

Suppose that the motion being discussed is that the club assess each member thirty dollars for the annual dance. Through discussion, it appears that members think this is too much.

Member: Mr. Chairman, I move that we amend the motion by striking out the word "thirty" and writing in its place the word "twenty".

If amended, the motion would read that we assess each member twenty dollars for the annual dance.

READERS: For my free Parliamentary Motions Chart, send three stamps and a long, self-addressed business envelope to M. H. Boulware, Florida A&M University, Box 30-A, Tallahassee, Florida 32307.
