Cumberland Community Action Center

CO-OP NEWS

Your Co-Op is moving along a normal pace. We are hoping that you are keeping abreast with the many changes that are taking place these days.

The Cumberland County Consumers' Co-Op Board of Directors met on June 24, 1970, to make changes in the By-Laws which were necessary to bring the program within the guideline of the OEO.

You will be hearing from us very soon regarding our store. We remind you to - "Keep knocking at opportunity's door."

NEWS FROM THE AREAS

AREA "G"

The group of ladies that have been working with the sewing class on the River Road are making small playsuits, dresses for children, and aprons. These garments will be sold in the community to help purchase needed material for the community center in their area.

Several homemakers have visited their classes and have shown the ladies how to use short cuts in sewing.

Lula Crumpler is Community Developer.

AREA "J"

The youths in area "J" are forming a Drill Team. In the future they are planning to have a hot dog and hamburger sale to raise money for uniforms.

AREA "K"

The Gary's Creek Council met on June 16 and made the final plans for the buying club. A call meeting has been planned for June 30, 1970 to make the list of their first small order.

Queen E. Shaw is Community Developer.

AREA "H"

The Linden Neighborhood Council held its evaluation on Monday night, June 15, 1970. It was a very successful meeting and many interesting points were stressed as well as questions asked.

Our Board elections were held on Tuesday, June 16, 1970. The participation was great and Mr. Knox was elected to represent us.

CHILD DEVELOPMENT CAPE FEAR CENTER

We wish to thank the management of McLead's Barber Shop for hosting our children and staff on Monday.

The barbers placed several of the children in the chairs and illustrated how a haircut is accomplished.

Tuesday found us at Howard Johnson's Restaurant. Here, we were guided through the dining room and kitchen. For being so well-behaved, the children were given balloons, which they thoroughly enjoyed.

Republicans Slate National Confab On Capitol Hill

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Lee Potter, landlord, and Rogers C. B. Morton, tenant, have announced that everything is in order for the Republican National Committee's move to Capitol Hill in July.

"The central portion of the new Dwight D. Eisenhower Republican Center will be ready for occupancy July 15," declared Potter, who, in addition to his hats as Executive Director of the GOP Boosters Club and as National Committeeman for Virginia, recently put on another hat as president of Capitol Hill Associates, builders and owners of Eisenhower Center.

Youth Council Activities

Prepared By Members Of The Fayetteville Youth Council BY CONNIE COLE

Today the Fayetteville Youth Council radio show will be about the FYC play to be presented next month. "Spoon River" will be put on two nights, with the Fayetteville youth doing the casting, directing and the make-up. Patty Mann and Dottie Rankin are in charge of the production. On the radio show today at noon, Patty, Dotty, and Patricia Walker will be on the air. Patricia was in charge of last year's FYC play, "Every man Today." Be sure and tune in to station WFLB and listen!

The Youth Councils of North Carolina, Inc. held an executive board meeting in Mount Airy last week. Attending from Fayetteville were Murry Fogler, YCNC chairman; Walter Cummings, YCNC secretary; Rick Harper, district director; Woody Myatt, board member and Mrs. Gilmore, executive director for the FYC and the YCNC.

Big plans are underway for the Fourth of July picnic to be held in Rowan Park. Events will begin at noon and last until five in the afternoon. Games, an art contest, a beauty contest, watermelon contest and entertainment will be held in the afternoon. James Graham, secretary of Agriculture, will try to beat our Mayor Holt in a watermelon seed spitting contest about four o'clock. David Freeman is chairman of this well planned event. The FYC hopes that all of you, with your families, will join them for the day.

The "Save the Arsenal" drive is still under way. We hope that the youth of Fayetteville will aid in this worthwhile project.

Julian Brown, Mychelle Farmer, Mike Fagler and Murray Fogler gave the program for the Fayetteville Jaycees this week. They told the Jaycees what FYC is and the aims that they have for the organization and about the many projects and services they offer to the youth of Fayetteville.

Derb Carter is in charge of the junior tennis tournament for the Fayetteville Jaycees. The three boys and one girl that are winners in the event will be sent to the state tournament in Greensboro next month by the Fayetteville Jaycees.

William Davis has been elected as the corporate board member to YCNC from Fayetteville. The chairman for the corporate board will be elected at the next YCNC board meeting to be held in High Point in August.

If you find time on your hand during the summer months, come to an FYC meeting. We will find a project to keep you busy—Project Sharp on Saturday mornings at Cape Fear Court Recreation Center, answering the phone for "Call-In", making posters for our play or working on the big day. The Fourth of July. We can use YOU!

Two Buick Bargains to believe in.

One domestic.

The domestic Buick. The 1970 Buick Skylark 2-door sedan. A bargain simply because it's Buick's lowest-price Buick. A bargain to believe in because it's sold and serviced by us.

One imported.

The imported Buick bargain. Our 1970 Buick Opel Kadett 2-door sedan. A bargain because it's the lowest-priced car sold by General Motors. A bargain to believe in because it's sold and serviced by over 2,200 Buick-Opel Dealers just like us.
