BEATEN AND KICKED

Mrs. Betty Rivers Johnson, 3045 Richwood Court, reported to Officer T. T. Street, Jr., at 1:55 a.m. last Tuesday, that Jerry Clifton Parks, 27, 615 E. Martin Street, came to her apartment at about 11:30 p.m. and started striking her with his fists, knocking her to the floor, then kicked her in the face with his feet. Mr. Parks told "the law" that he saw the complainant in Staton's Cafe, 319 S. East Street. He claimed he hit her with his fists because she stuck a knife in his side. A warrant, charging assault on a female, was drawn and Parks was arrested.

BOY, 8, IS CUT

Mrs. Roberta Jafferles, 1527 Battery Drive, informed Officer R. E. Keeter at 1:38 p.m. Wednesday, that her son, who is 8 years old, was attacked by three young colored males, who jumped him from behind, cut him, then ran. The youngster said he did not know who his attackers were. He suffered a one-half inch cut on the lower right arm. The incident took place at the intersection of ... and S. Pettigrew Streets.

STRUCK WITH BOTTLE

Perry ... Jr., 28, Route 1, Middle ... told two cops at 2:42 a.m. Wednesday, that during an argument over a girl, he was struck over the head with a bottle by either Vance Albert Yates, 209 Linden Ave. and 520 E. Hargett Street, or James Sapp, address unknown. He was treated at Wake Memorial Hospital for a cut on the top of his head, requiring several stitches. The altercation occurred in the street in front of 201 S. East Street.

OFFICER IS ASSAULTED

Officer Raymond Dale Goodwin, 23, of the Raleigh Police Department, reported at 12:30 a.m. last Tuesday, that he was attempting to arrest Nathaniel Whitaker, 18, 3049 Richwood Court, for disorderly conduct in the parking lot at 100 W. Lane Street. Whitaker refused Officer Goodwin's command to get out of the back seat of a car into which he had jumped. Goodwin then tried to pull Whitaker from the vehicle's rear seat, and during the resulting struggle, Officer Goodwin was struck repeatedly upon the chest and head by young Whitaker, who was later arrested on charges of disorderly conduct, public intoxication and assault on an officer. He was then released on bail.

CHANGES MIND, BUT BOOKED

James Douglas Banks, 59, 607 S. Haywood Street, told Officer C. Troublefield at 11:02 p.m. last Monday, that he fell on the sidewalk in the 300 block of S. East Street and cut his right hand. However, he later stated that he was cut, but refused to give the name of his assailant. Mr. Banks was then arrested for public intoxication. The officer noted: "The subject Banks, apparently, had some intoxicant. Subsequently his story changed several times." He exhibited a three-inch laceration on his right hand.

BOYFRIEND ACCUSED

Miss Virginia Lee Williams, 1105 Walnut Street reported to Officer R. L. Johnson at 8:45 p.m. Wednesday, that her boyfriend, Raleigh McCormick, 28, and herself had an argument and he struck her in the face. She said she did not want to sign a warrant against him. She then added that she wanted to think about signing an assault and battery warrant against him. McCormick stated he would be available if a warrant was signed. The slapping occurred at her apartment. McCormick, believed to be a soldier, stationed at Fort Bragg, lives in a trailer park at Spring Lake. She exhibited abrasions and bruises about her face.

ASSAULTED BY THREE

Arthur Nathaniel Hartsfield, Jr., 1400 Sawyer Lane, Apartment C-2, told Officer Robert Jones, Jr., at 11:05 p.m. Wednesday, that he went to 1313 Holman Street to leave his former wife some money for their child and when he started to leave, he was assaulted by three colored males. Hartsfield said he knew the three men, but not by name. He also said that during the struggle, he lost his wallet or someone "relieved" him of it. Mr. Hartsfield tried to sign an assault warrant, but was refused because "he was intoxicated," the officer's report ended. The complainant said his wallet, valued at $5, contained $60 in cash.

CUT ON TOP OF HEAD

David Lassiter, 43, 704 Briggs' Alley, was arrested at 9:40 p.m. Sunday for assault on a female. He told Officer R. D. Goodwin that the two-inch cut on the top of his head was caused by Miss Addie Wright, 52, same address. According to Goodwin's noted, "Lassiter had earlier beaten up Miss Wright and she had signed a warrant against him." He went back to 704 Briggs' Alley and started in on her again. She then hit him in the head with a steel pipe. Lassiter attempted then to sign an assault with a deadly weapon warrant against Miss Wright, but was refused by the magistrate.

HUBBY CHARGED

Mrs. Dorothy Mayo Morgan, 32, 1309 Raleigh Boulevard, told Officers B. W. Peoples and J. W. Tew at 1:10 a.m. Wednesday, that she and her husband, Walter Morgan, 26, were having an argument and while engaged in this "fuss," her husband caused her to be shoved and pushed until she fell into some broken glass, causing several cuts on her legs and stomach. She was taken to Rex Hospital, where several stitches were required to close her wounds. The arresting officers brought assault charges against Morgan. He was "hauled off" to Wake County Jail and held under a bond of $200.

CUT WITH BUTCHER KNIFE

Luther Hines, Jr., 313 Waldrop Street, Apartment C, reported to Officer R. Clayborne at 10:23 p.m. Sunday, that during an argument with Louis Raymond (Peter) Trice, 24, 201 S. East Street, he was assaulted with a knife. Hines signed an assault with a deadly weapon warrant against Trice, who was placed in Wake County Jail, under a bond of $200. Hines

News Of The YMCA And YWCA

BY PAUL R. JERVAY, JR.

Currently at the YMCA, located at 554 East Hargett, a Day Camp program is in progress. The Camp operates at two locations. One location is the YWCA complex on Hargett, which offers the camp for neighborhood boys and girls between the hours of 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. The other Day Camp is located on the campus of St. Augustine's College. Its hours are from 8 a.m. until 4:45 p.m. Boys and girls from pre-school age to 16 may attend the Day Camp sessions.

The Day Camp program includes such programs as reading enrichment and improvement, field trips, two days of swimming at the Chavis Park Pool, and plenty of other fun. Adult activities are closed for the months of July and August for summer vacation. Adult programs will reopen in September.

The YWCA's new facility offers spacious and effectively adorned rooms that may be used for meetings and gatherings of all kind. During the month of June, the new complex was the scene of a number of weddings.

The YMCA, located at 607 South Bloodworth Street, has its summer Day Camp program for boys in progress. Boys between the ages of 7-15 are invited to register for the Camp, which meets daily, Monday through Friday, from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. Fees for attending the Camp are $4.00, and they are payable Monday of each week. The fee includes an accident insurance policy, providing for hospitalization, in case of injury.

A special new feature is the hot balanced meal, served at noon, to all registered campers. If you are interested in any further information concerning the Day Camp for boys, call 833-1256 or see Mr. James Coleman, the director of the Day Camp at its Bloodworth St. address.

The YMCA Boy's Day Camp program offers a wide variety of activities daily, which include Gymnastics, Outdoor Games, an Activity period and Arts and
