New Bern

SUSPECT IN KIDNAPING- Lansing: Lansing police released this sketch July 10 of the suspected kidnaper of former Mayor Max Murningham's 16-year-old daughter Laurie from a gift shop where she was working at the time. Police reported no new leads in their hunt for the kidnaper described as a Negro Male about 25-years-old with a goatee wearing a yellow shirt, dark trousers and a straw hat. Miss Murningham was dressed in a white blouse, red print skirt with a blue belt and brown sandals at the time of the abduction. (UPI).

A Raleigh man, Eddie Jiles, 37, 409 Smithfield St., listed in this week's Crime Beat as a trespasser, found himself later being identified as a peeping tom by a woman at 516 New Bern Ave., on Monday at 12:30 a.m. The complainant was Mrs. Linda Boykin Adams.

Officer M. E. Hix, who investigated the peeping tom call, reported: "I first saw suspect Jiles in the alleyway, between Carolina Typewriter Company and 516 New Bern Ave. 'The complaint, Mrs. Adams, was standing on the sidewalk, pointing into the alley as we drove by. We then heard a shot fired, turned around and pulled into the alley. Jiles then ran back into the alley."

"I stopped Jiles and asked Mrs. Adams what the problem was. She informed me that a subject had been looking through."

NCCU Gets Only Half Of Request

DURHAM - North Carolina Central University received only a little more than half the federal student-aid money it asked for in 1970-'71, according to W. C. Blackwell, financial officer. (See NCCU GETS, P. 2)

SEEKS U. S. SENATE SEAT- Tallahassee, Fla.: Fort Lauderdale Attorney Alcee Hastings, a democrat, became the first Negro in modern times to run for U. S. Senate from the state of Florida. Hastings told newsmen he can win if he can get the exposure. (UPI).

Interstate Violations
Bring Suit

WASHINGTON, D. C.-In a major step toward implementing the consumer protection aspects of the Interstate Land Sales Full Disclosure Act, the first suit has been filed by the Federal Government against Maine land developers for alleged violations of the Act.

A hearing on the suit is scheduled for July 20 in Federal District Court, Boston, where the action was filed. The action was brought by Secretary George Romney of the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development through Justice Department attorneys. The suit asks the court for a permanent injunction to restrain the defendants from "continuing to act in violation of the Interstate Land Sales Act." It also seeks a temporary injunction pending a hearing on the merits of the case. (See HUD FILES, P. 2)

Vietnam
Heroism
Is Cited

WASHINGTON, D. C.-First Lieutenant Diane M. Lindsey, Army Nurse Corps, has been awarded the Soldier's Medal for heroism in Vietnam. The 25-year-old nurse is the second nurse to earn the honor during the present conflict and the first Negro nurse in history to receive the medal.

While on duty with the 95th Evacuation Hospital, Lieutenant Lindsey happened on a berserk soldier who had pulled the pin on a grenade, and after throwing it was preparing to do the same with a second grenade. Lieutenant Lindsey physically restrained the confused soldier and persuaded him to give up the second grenade, and thus prevented numerous casualties.

Lieutenant Lindsey graduated from Hempstead High School, Hempstead, New York. She received a B. S. degree in nursing from Hampton Institute, Hampton, Va., where she was entered in the Army Student Nurse Program. Following completion of the Army Medical Department's Officer Basic Course at the Medical Field Service School, Fort Sam Houston. (See NURSE WINS, P. 2)

Masons To

MAKES HISTORY IN TARHEELIA- Raleigh: Pauletta Pearson, the first black girl ever to enter the 50-year-old Miss North Carolina Pageant, twirls her parasol during a few free moments for a short stroll. "Yes I know I'm making history," 19-year-old Pauletta said, "but I'm a girl like any other. The only difference between me and the other contestants is that I'm black. I think the judges will be fair." She was the second runner-up to "Miss North Carolina" Saturday night. (UPI).

Black NC Girl Second Runner-Up To "Miss North Carolina" Winner

BY J. B. HARREN

The Negro (or Black) citizens of Tarheelia and the Nation are especially pleased and thankful that the Hickory, Jaycees, Newton-Conover's white leadership teamed up with Lenoir Rhyne College and the N. C. National Bank in giving Miss Pauletta Pashells Pearson a chance to show that she had much to offer in the way of talent, beauty, poise and congeniality, as the first of her race to compete on the basis of equality with 69 of her Caucasian sisters in the "Miss North Carolina" Beauty Pageant.

And in case any Whites had any misgivings about Pauletta's being allowed to compete, they should remember that this is America, the much vaunted 'land of the free' where all of us are supposed to be allowed to use our best talents to "burgeon out the best that is in us." And Pauletta in doing that under the sponsorship of the Hickory Jaycees has added many dimensions to the sponsors, the area, State and Nation. We pray God that other communities will catch that spirit and do likewise in this and other areas of social and community life that we may all live more cordially toward each other, less evil forces from within and without overwhelm us in America. (See MISS PEARSON, P. 2)

Alphas Set Yearly Meet

PHILADELPHIA-Both the theme and the convention activities of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity will reflect the concerns of the times when its members meet here July 31-Aug. 6 in their 64th annual gathering. The convention of the first of the black college fraternities, founded in Cornell in 1906, will have as a theme "Elimination of the Ghetto: The Goal for the Seventies." In keeping with this idea several of the convention meetings, open to the public, will feature nationally known speakers.

A series of seminars, which will feature as panelists leaders in various fields, will be held Monday, Aug. 3. Chairman of the respective sessions are: Housing-Harold Sims, deputy director, National Urban League; Employment-William H. Brown, III, chairman of the Equal Opportunity Commission of the national government; Education-Roger Russell, professor of education, Hofstra College; Crime and Law Enforcement-Herbert T. Miller, vice-president, Kings County Grand Jurors Association, New York; Health and Recreation-Daniel Hall, M. D., associate director, Philadelphia Department of Public Health. Representative of the fraternity and of the general public will make up the panels.

One of the major activities of the convention will be three days of recruitment for present and recent college graduates by representatives of the major American businesses. Some 56 nationally-rated firms will send recruiting teams to the Sheraton Hotel to give interview and offer jobs on the spot to college men and women.

SBA Lends $600,000 To Development Corp.

WASHINGTON, D. C. - Approval of a $600,000, 10-year loan to the Kansas Development Credit Corporation was announced last Thursday by Hilary Sandoval, Jr., Administrator of the Small Business Administration.

The credit corporation is a privately-owned state development company that will make long-term loans to eligible small firms--including those owned by minorities--throughout Kansas. Most of the loans will be made in participation with banks.

The loan is the first made to the Kansas Development Credit Corporation and the first made by SBA to a mid-west state development company. It bears interest at 7 1/2 percent. Since the program started in 1959 SBA has approved 28 state development company loans--including the one announced today--for over $16 million. (See SBA LENDS, P. 2)

STRUCK WITH PITCHFORK

Miss Ernestine Ford, 212 Regan Lane (Method) told a cop at 5:05 p.m. Saturday, that she was sitting on her front porch when Bubba Johnson, same address, became enraged and started using profane language. He then picked up a pitchfork and struck her on the head with it, knocking her to the ground. Miss Ford said she would sign an assault with a deadly weapon warrant against Johnson. Miss Ford received a four-inch gash on the top of her skull. She was taken to Wake Memorial Hospital. Sylvester Williams, 218 1/2 Regan Lane, called "the law." (See CRIME BEAT, P. 3)

Peterson; Jesse Wise; Ramsey Gilchrist; and James McPheeters. (UPI).

'Black 6' Adjudged Innocent

LOUISVILLE, Ky. - Louisville's famous "Black Six" won a directed verdict of acquittal here on July 7.

Circuit Judge S. Rush Nicholson said the prosecution had failed to prove the charge of conspiracy against them. He instructed the jury to return a "not guilty" verdict after the prosecution closed its case on the ninth day of the trial.

The verdict came after a two-day battle that started in the wake of an uprising in Louisville's West End ghetto in late May of 1968.

The state charged that the six conspired to destroy private property during the disorders. (See "BLACK SIX," P. 2)

Southern's Dr. Clark Dies At 66

Dr. Felton G. Clark, an epochal figure in the history of education in Louisiana, is dead.

The end came Sunday at Ochsner Foundation Hospital in New Orleans, where he had been a patient since May 18. Dr. Clark was 66.

His only survivor is his wife, the former Allene Knighten, to whom he was married on August 17, 1958. They resided in Baton Rouge.

In announcing classes at the University would be dismissed at noon on Wednesday, the day of the funeral services, Dr. G. Leon Netterville, president of

Dr. Mays, Others Are Headliners

WASHINGTON, D. C. - The Pittsburgh Hilton Hotel, Pittsburgh, Pa. will be the scene of the 53rd Grand Conclave of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, internationally known educator and minister, will be featured along with forty (40) voices at the worship service Sunday morning, August 2, 1970 Point State Park.

"Omega Meets the Public" is scheduled for Sunday, August 2 in the Grand Ball Room of the hotel 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. Some twelve (12) organizations working with and in the Black community will be represented. (See MAYS, OTHERS, P. 2)

DISEASE EPIDEMIC FEARED- Jackson, Miss. Piles of garbage are spread out over the city as a municipal employees' strike moves into its third week. Many residents are taking their garbage to special pickup spots since home service was halted July 1, but health officials fear possible disease epidemics with the summer season. The union wants union recognition by city officials, higher wages, and better conditions. (UPI).
