Atlanta, Ga. Will Host 'Powerites'

ATLANTA, Ga. - On behalf of the National Coordinating Committee of the Congress of African People and the Atlanta Host Committee, we would like to inform you of the convening of the Congress of African People in Atlanta, Sept. 3rd-7th, 1970. (Labor Day Weekend). The Congress, itself, is the result of a decision to join the National and International Black Power Conference into a single instrument. This decision grew out of the awareness by Black people that wherever we Africans are, i. e. Africa, the Islands, South America, and the U. S. A.; we are oppressed by the same forces of domination and control. Thus, the Congress will focus its attention on the theme, "Black Nationalism and Pan Africanism", in order (See BLACK POWER, P. 2)

Help From US Aids NIA-Hill

RICHMOND, Va. - Increased help from the federal government to aid black life insurance companies in recapturing the black market was revealed by outgoing president, Jesse Hill, Jr., vice president-actuary of Atlanta Life Insurance Co., in his message to nearly 400 delegates attending the 50th anniversary convention of the National Insurance Association last week in Richmond, Va. Hill announced the results of a special conference he and other insurance executives had with President Nixon on July 15. The group asked the federal government to help expand and strengthen existing minority businesses rather than concentrating on creating new businesses.

Hill said the president was in accord with the association's 6-point program which includes:

- The formation of a NIA development company
- The involvement of more blacks in governmental long-range planning
- Securing a more significant share of group insurance business by NIA companies
- Holding more joint industry conferences
- Using administrative press- (See HELP FROM, P. 2)

CRIME BEAT

From Raleigh's Official Police Files

ACCUSES MATE IN KNIFING

Mrs. Lillie Mae Jones, 39, 324 W. South Street, told Officer James E. (Bobby) Daye at 1:37 a.m. Saturday, that her husband, Henry Rogers Jones, 49, same address, assaulted her with a knife after a "fuss" over her not being at home. She was cut on the upper right side, under the arm. She would not go to the hospital, but she said she would sign an assault with a deadly weapon warrant against Jones, who "split the scene" before the officer arrived. The cutting took place in the 700 block of Cone Drive (formerly Carroll's Alley). (See CRIME BEAT, P. 3)

HOWARD'S DR. CHEEK BLASTS NIXON ADMINISTRATION -Washington, D. C. - Howard University's president, Dr. James Edward Cheek, is shown at a televised news conference (Face The Nation, August 2), after he had just finished an assignment on campus affairs for President Nixon. He criticized the Administration on many issues. Cheek also has been a member of the Scranton Commission, which investigated campus violence throughout the United States. Dr. Cheek is a former president of Shaw University, Raleigh, N. C., now headed by his brother, Dr. King Virgil Cheek, Jr. (UPI).

Shoots Neighbor With Pistol After Argument

OXFORD-Johnny Chavis, a 60-year-old black Berea Community farmer, charged with murder in the Saturday night pistol slaying of a white neighbor, is expected to receive a preliminary hearing here in Granville County District Court on Wednesday, August 12.

Chavis has been charged with murder in the death of Buster Edwards, 50, and is being held without bond.

Sheriff's deputies said Chavis and Edwards were both residents of Berea and that the two had known each other for most of their lives.

An investigation indicated Edwards apparently was shot after he fired a .410 gauge shotgun at Chavis, narrowly missing the man's head. Deputies said the

Fayetteville Scene Of Convention

FAYETTEVILLE - President, King V. Cheek, Jr. of Shaw University, Raleigh, is scheduled to address the 73rd annual session of the Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Missionary Convention meeting here August 31-Sept. 4, at First Baptist Church, Moore Street, and Ragan Aves., with the Rev. C. R. Edwards, as host pastor. Dr. Cheek is expected to discuss crisis in the black Theological Schools and the black Church's future in foreign missions and its affect in the world wide revolution in Africa and Asia.

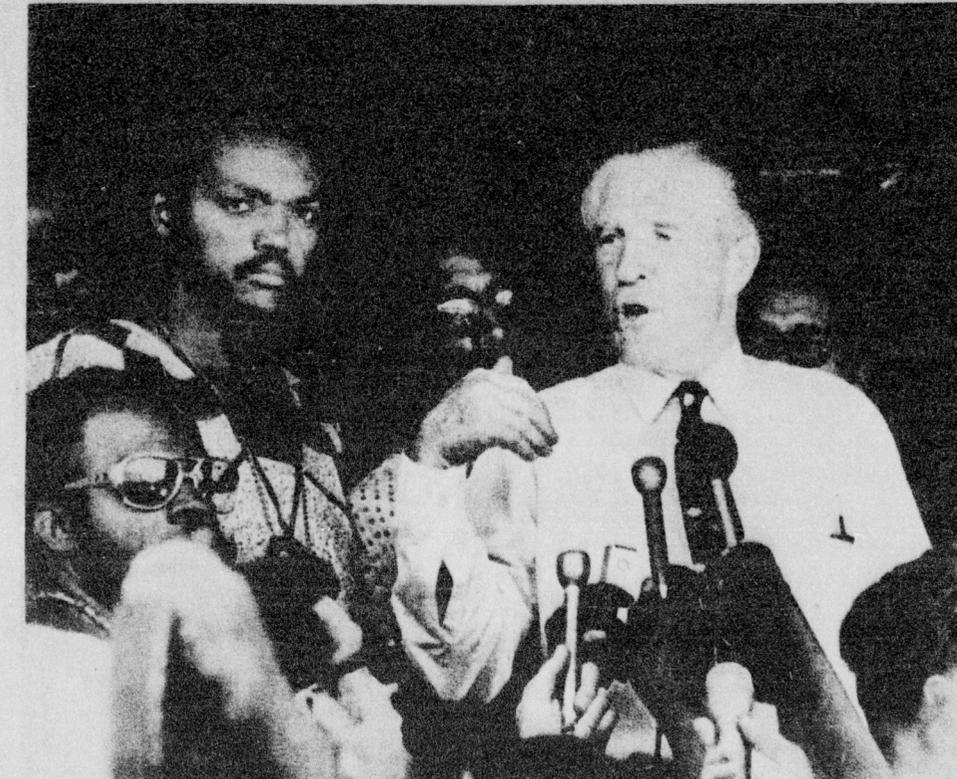

Returning to North Carolina after more than a decade, this year's session is expected to be attended by more than 2,500 elected messengers from throughout the United States. (See LOTT CAREY, P. 2)

Say Nixon Short On Promises

WASHINGTON, D. C.-Clifford L. Alexander, Jr., former chairman of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, Saturday attacked claims by Nixon administration spokesmen that more blacks have been appointed to significant federal positions than in the Kennedy and Johnson administrations. Alexander, a member of the Democratic Policy Council, too specific issue with recent presentations in Life Magazine and NBC's Today program.

In a statement released by the Democratic National Committee, Alexander contended that the administration's boasts in this field are fundamentally in error in two regards. "The first, and most important," he said, "is that comparisons are not the way to improve the basic positions of blacks in this nation. . . . The second reason the Nixon people should quit saying they have out-performed Johnson and Kennedy is that they are lying."

To date, Alexander charged, (See NIXON IS, P. 2)

Minister Points At Coffin-Says "Frank, You Were Very Faithful"

BY CHARLES R. JONES

"Frank, you were a faithful man, until the end. So the promise is to the conquerer, 'Be thou faithful until death and I will give you the crown of life.'" Rev. 2:10

Thus did the Rev. Dr. Charles W. Ward, Sr., pastor of the First Baptist Church, Moore Street, and Ragan Aves., with the Rev. C. R. Edwards, as host pastor. Dr. Cheek is expected to discuss crisis in the black Theological Schools and the black Church's future in foreign missions and its affect in the world wide revolution in Africa and Asia.

The Rev. Dr. Ward then pointed at the Grecian green casket and spoke to the remains of his beloved deacon. The minister told the silent coffin, "Specific promises were made to the conquerers. They are solemnly assured that they will eat of the tree of life which is the paradise of God. Adam lost life's immortality by eating of the tree, the martyrs are assured of life by eating."

"Mr. Frank," as he was affectionally called by all of the neighborhood children who knew him (in the East Raleigh area and at First Baptist Church), died suddenly last Wednesday at 6 p.m. He was stricken while moving furniture at one of his jobs (as a volunteer worker for the Wake County Senior Citizens Center, 416 E. Cabarrus Street).

Dad, Son Freed In NC Death

OXFORD-Two Oxford white men were acquitted Sunday by a Granville County Superior Court jury in the slaying of a Negro, but were immediately arrested on bench warrants bearing charges related to the incident.

The father and son, Robert Gerald Teel, 39, and Robert Larry Teel, 18, were found not guilty of first degree murder in the May 11th shooting death of Henry D. Marrow, 23, also of Oxford.

Judge Robert M. Martin of High Point, after the verdicts were announced, ordered bench warrants drawn. One warrant charged the elder Teel with first degree murder alleging that he aided and abetted in the incident. The son was charged with assaulting Marrow, inflicting serious bodily

Zetas Set 50th Meet

WASHINGTON, D. C. - The 50th Anniversary of the founding of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. is set for Washington, D. C., August 3-7. The Shoreham Hotel is the convention headquarters with important sessions scheduled to be held on the Howard University campus where the sorority was given birth in January 1920 and in the National Headquarters Building located at 1734 New Hampshire Ave., North West.

A delegation of thirteen members will represent the Omicron Zeta Chapter of Raleigh. The local delegation will be headed by the chapter president, Mrs. Mildred L. Chavis and Mrs. Nancy Feree both of whom are elected delegates along with Mesdames Janie Anderson, Vivian Brown, Nora E. Lockhart, Amelia Peebles, Bernestine Sanders, Catherine Turner, Millie Vasey, Catherine Winters, Pauline Young and Misses Annie S. Hawkins and Mae E. Ligon.

The convention theme is "Meeting Human Needs Through Designing and Developing Methods of Improving the Delivery of Effective Service." Many visitors and more (See ZETAS SET, P. 2)

Mr. Frank was known and loved by this writer all of the newsman's life. A native of Wake County, he attended the Raleigh Public Schools and Saint Augustine's College. Although not formally educated (by the standards of some), Mr. Frank could hold an intelligent conversation with anyone on any level, on any subject. His favorite subject was religion and discussing the Bible. The Hinton family was named Raleigh's "Family of the year" in 1954.

His wife, Mrs. Rosa Belle Alston Hinton, was a constant source of inspiration to him. She was always at home when "her Frank" came in and she, along with their five sons and four daughters, comforted Mr. Frank after a hard day's work-sometimes including three different jobs.

Mr. Frank stood for principle. He gave up a job, which he had held for many years (after an alleged threat of losing it) to have his oldest daughter, Mrs. Bettie Lou Hinton Gaillard, become the first black person to attend the all-white former Cathedral Latin (Catholic) High School. Mrs. Gaillard received her diploma, among with other members of the Class of 1958.

Warning to his sermon, Dr. (See "FRANK, YOU, P. 2)

HUD Gets Business Director

WASHINGTON, D. C. - Michael A. Smlow of Chevy Chase, Md., Monday was named Director of the Business Participation Division of the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

At the same time, HUD announced that the business participation function has been placed under the direction of the Assistant Secretary for Research and Technology. The function was formerly assigned to the Office of Secretary George Romney.

The Business Participation Division serves as a focal point (See HUD NAMES, P. 2)

CLAIMS "AMERICA TRULY A PRISON"-San Luis Obispo, Calif.: Black Panther leader Huey P. Newton, who considers himself a prisoner of war in a continuing American revolution, "is going back to the front lines." Newton, 28, faces a bail hearing in Oakland, Calif., this week which will probably result in his being out on the streets for the first time in nearly three weeks. "But I will not really be out, because America is truly a prison," Newton said in a prison interview August 3. (UPI).

Manifesto Book Out

For the first time available in any single publication, the complete body of opinion of the Black Panther Party will be published by J. B. Lippincott Company. The Black Panthers speak is a unique collection of articles, poetry, and art work by Party members drawn principally from the Black Panther newspaper (the first issue of which appeared in 1967). It delineates the community activities of the Party, as well as its coalitions and alliances with other groups such as the Puerto Ricans, and the Mexican-Americans, and the white radicals. Among the contributors are Huey P. Newton, Bobby Seale, Eldridge Cleaver, Kathleen Cleaver, David Hilliard, and Fred Hampton.

The Black Panthers speak has been assembled, edited, and includes an Introduction by Phillip S. Foner, Professor of History at Lincoln University, member (See MANIFESTO, P. 8)

Fayette To Dedicate Factory Fri.

FAYETTE, Miss.-Dedication and opening ceremonies were held here at 2 p.m. Friday, Aug. 7, for a new factory that doubles the size of Fayette's Industrial Park. Some 100 residents--the first of a total of 150--are employed in two shifts producing auto parts for a subsidiary of the International Telephone and Telegraph Company.

The new, 25,000-square-foot, single-story building was built in four months by a syndicate of white residents at a cost of $174,000 and is leased to ITT-Thompson Industries, Inc., of Southfield, Michigan, as a wiring-harness assembly plant. Thompson is a supplier of original equipment parts for all four major U. S. auto makers. (See FAYETTE TO, P. 2)
