Roseboro News

BY CARLA TATUM
ROSEBORO - Sunday School opened at the Holy Tabernacle Church at 10 a.m. with the supt., Bro. Elviss Culbreth, in charge. The subject of the lesson was 'Living Peacefully With Others.' The key verse was: 'If it be possible as much as lieth in you, Live peacefully with all men.' Romans 12:18. The lesson was beautifully taught and enjoyed by everyone.

Morning services began at 11 a.m. with the senior choir in charge of the music and Mrs. Hattie Armwood as musician. The scripture lesson was from I Kings, and St. Luke. The pastor, Rev. S. D. Clemons, of Goldsboro delivered an inspiring sermon. It was enjoyed by everyone.

At the afternoon services, Rev. Danny Culbreth, formerly of the Snow Hill Community, who now resides in Washington, D. C. delivered the message. His subject was, 'Are You Guilty? Press on By Faith.' His text was from Romans, 3:12-19 verses. Music was rendered by the junior choir, accompanied by the church guitarist, Mr. James Crumpler. His message was wonderful and was enjoyed by all.

At 5 p.m., we celebrated the pastor's anniversary. The Rev. Sister Ida Floyd of Lumberton delivered the message. The Floyd Temple Choir rendered the music. The pastor, Rev. S. D. Clemons, was presented a beautiful vase of flowers and a love token of $365.98. Communion services followed, with the pastor presiding. It was indeed a high and most enjoyable day.

We had visitors from Steadman, Warsaw, Goldsboro and Stanford, Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. Millus Turman of 4380 Vireo Ave, Bronx, N.Y. were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Connie Fisher of Roseboro. Mrs. Gwendolyn Turman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fisher.

Mrs. Turman will be teaching in the public schools of New York. Mr. Turman is a Youth Director at the Youth Services Agency in Brooklyn, N.Y.

Miss Lubestene Fisher, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Connie Fisher, has returned home from New York after visiting his sister, Mrs. Gwendolyn Turman. Miss Fisher will be leaving soon to begin teaching at Leeds Ave. School at Pleasantville, N.J. She is an alumn of Livingstone College.

BY MISS MAE N. HOPSON
UNION Bethel AME Church CARY - The Fourth Quarterly Conference of the Saint John Circuit held its business meeting at Union Bethel A. M. E. Church Saturday at 8 p.m. with the Presiding Elder, Dr. G. W. Larkin, presiding. This was well-attended by members of both churches. All reports were 100 percent timely remarks from the pastor, Rev. E. E. Worthington. The Presiding Elder commended the members of the Circuit and ministers for their fine and untiring cooperation this year and spoke of how wonderful the fellowship between the Circuit has been. He added that we are nearing the Annual Conference, which will convene this year at St. Paul AME Church, Raleigh. We are looking forward to one of the best in the Eastern District. We closed with 'Blest be the tie that binds,' led by Mr. Dan Jones.

United Church of Christ Sunday School opened at 9:45 a.m. with Miss Mary A. Beck with, superintendent, presiding. Morning worship services began at 11 o'clock. Music was rendered by the Senior Choir. The pastor, Rev. J. M. Burrell, brought to face, Everyone wants to go to heaven. Not hell, the sinful place! It comes so quickly, without crooks or bends. Death takes you, when your journey ends. Around every corner, and around every bend, Death is there, seeking his revenge. You can not run, you can not hide, Death is something that always abides. The end has come and its painful to see. That Death, my friend, awaits for Thee!

Obsequies for Mr. Frank Ferrell were conducted Sunday afternoon at Mt. Zion Baptist Church. The eulogy was delivered by Rev. Eugene Mason.

'God satisfies the desires of every living soul in heaven, for He says, In my father's house are many mansions.'

The opening service on Wednesday evening, Sept. 2nd, was conducted with Holland's Chapel AME Zion Church in charge. The Rev. R. H. Johnson delivered the thought-provoking sermon entitled 'The Attachment to God's House.' Music by the choir of Holland's Chapel Church, The Sacrament of Holy Communion was administered, the Presiding Elder, Rev. Brown as Celebrant and assisted by Revs. J. B. Roseborough and Theodore Tyson.

Following the worship service, the host church gave a cordial program of welcome.

The morning session on Sept. 3rd consisted of devotions, the perfecting of the organization of the conference, seating of the delegates and collecting of the conference assessments and delegates' reports.

The Rev. S. P. Cooke, minister of the Gees' Grove and Jordan Grove AME Zion Churches, near Siler City, delivered the Noon-day Message. His text was John 2:10, and subject: 'God Saves The Best For The Last.'

The afternoon session was devoted to the Local Preachers of the district with the Rev. E. H. Whitley, minister of Mt. Olive AME Zion Church, Durham, presiding. Inspiring sermons were preached by the following Local Preachers: Sisters: Betsy Cheek, Millie Alston, Bessie Goldston, Jamie L. Yates, Juanita Milken, Mamie Thomas, Virginia Wyatt, and Brothers: Burnice Moore and Lawrence Turner, Sr.

At the Varick Christian Endeavor Hour a discussion was held entitled 'The Role of the Church in Times Like These.' The leader of this discussion was Mrs. N. L. McTilliam of the Union Grove AME Zion Church. The following areas were discussed: The Role of the Church from a Social Standpoint by Miss Mattie Hart; The Role of the Church from a Political Standpoint by Mrs. Lula H. Tyson; and The Role of the Church from a Christian or Spiritual Standpoint by Mrs. McTilliam. A period of questions and answers followed the presentation of the topic.

Following this discussion a Memorial Service was conducted by the Rev. E. H. Whitley and assisted by the Rev. S. J. Judd, minister of the Chestnut and Chapel Hill AME Zion Churches, and the Rev. C. C. Satterfield, minister of the Fair Promise AME Zion Church, Sanford.

The evening worship service was conducted by the minister and choir of the Evans' Chapel and Terrell's Chapel AME Zion Churches (the seniors and Young adult choirs of Evans' Chapel and the senior choir of Terrell's Chapel). The minister, the Rev. Percy W. Sykes, delivered the sermon entitled: 'Are You A Christian?' with the text being found in Acts 1:26.

Friday morning session began devotions and was followed with delegates' reports and expressions from the pastors of the district.

The noon-day worship service was conducted by the Rev. Dr. C. V. Flack, presiding of the Sanford District of the AME Zion Church. The sermon was delivered by Rev. C. T. Farrar, minister of the St. Matthew and Glover's Grove AME Zion Churches. His text was found in Luke 12:19-20 and the theme was 'A Man At Ease.'

The afternoon session was devoted to the missionaries of the district for its Missionary Mass Meeting with Mrs. M. E. Brown in charge. Rev. Mrs. Ossie Fox, a member of the
