

TV CAUCUS (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

Sponsored by the Democratic National Committee and the Senate and House Democratic Campaign Committees, the Campaign '70 Democratic Caucus will link together Democrats in 18 cities through the facilities of General Electric's Command Performance Network. The major commercial television networks - ABC, CBS, and NBC - will tape the entire Caucus for possible use on newscasts and other programs during the campaign.

GIRL, 10 (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

The mother told the court she and some friends followed the man later identified as Taylor and when he stopped at a downtown hotel, she called police. No police came, she said, but she spotted "a policeman who did not have a gun," and he informed her he couldn't do anything. She testified he did talk to Taylor while she ran to the police station for help. Detective W. G. Ainsley arrested Taylor a few moments later, she said. The date was June 2. Detective N. S. Lockety testified he helped arrange a lineup for the two children to view, and both picked out Taylor.

GARY MAYOR (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

Phillip Cole, Earl Davis, Reginald Durante and W. P. Edwards. Contributions were also made by Earl Davis, James Ferguson, C. C. Malone, James Lee, Ben Ruffin, Richard Mapp and Edward Stewart. Joe Green was the conference coordinator.

ATWATER (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

Atwater is quite active in three other fraternal organiza-

Esso logo with text: DIAL 828-9317 For Watch dog oil heat service, Esso Heating Oil and Oil Burner Service. CAPITAL FUEL OIL ICE & COAL CO. - 600 W. Hargett St.

HOLDEN'S GLAM-ORAMA CLEANING CENTER 1824 OLD GARNER ROAD DRY CLEANERS OPEN: 7 A. M. to 9 P. M. MON.-SAT. CLOSED SUNDAY COIN LAUNDRY OPEN 7 A. M. to 10 P. M. MON.-SAT. 1 to 9 SUN. 1824 OLD GARNER ROAD 700 E. MARTIN ST. 401 E. DAVIE ST.

ALEXANDER BLDG., Suite 502 - P. O. Box 292 T&T Associates, Inc. Distributors of Educational Material 133 Fayetteville St. Raleigh, N. C., 27601 T & T TRAVEL SERVICE Make arrangements now to attend the NCCU vs. Alcorn State College game in Philadelphia, Penna. on September 26. Let T&T work for you. Call 828-7429 or 828-7426. Robert "Tony" Hill, Assistant Director of Travel CALL US NOW FOR RESERVATIONS. WE ARE HERE TO SERVE YOU. A. J. TURNER President-Manager Office Phones: 828-7429 and 828-7426 statement that after the other units arrived, they found her in her room with the knife still clutched in her right hand. She was placed under arrest and advised of her rights on charges of assault with a deadly weapon and disorderly conduct. It has been alleged that the woman reportedly has a mental problem.

WOMAN, 31 (CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE)

ZION CHURCH (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

The week-long celebration will revere the memory of the founding fathers, who were motivated by righteous protests against religious hypocrisy, racial discrimination and prejudice. It will also take a close look at present-day operations and plan a course for the future. The program will feature a mammoth parade, which will depict the growth and development of the denomination throughout the 150 years. Many of the historic events that have happened will be displayed by floats, that will dramatize them. Appropriate religious services will mark the event. There will also be a Sequi-Centennial Dinner. The crowning event will be a pageant that is expected to trace the Conference from its beginning until now. The Souvenir program, now being prepared, will record the history, in the hope that it will be passed on to future generations as a legacy that will show the black man's contribution in the life of Christendom. Mother Zion Church has just embarked on an extensive capital improvement program that will enable it to render more service in the Harlem community. The proposed facilities were designed as service to the area, including housing, recreation and counseling.

MASONS SET (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

C. Oct. 10 to 13 at Hotel Shoreham. Meeting will be all active members, officers, and honorary members whose class Numerals end in "0, 1 or 2." The Southern Jurisdiction covers all the area below the mythical Mason-Dixon Line and includes more than 200,000 Prince Hall Masons. All sessions will be held in the Shoreham excepting the annual Divine or Memorial Service which will be held in the Shiloh Baptist Church. Features of the session will be the elevation of 32nd degree Prince Hall Masons to the 33rd, and last degree, the annual Cathedral Fund Banquet, recognition and honoring of the Deputy of the Year, awarding of the Distinguished Service medal and the Gold Medal Achievement Award.

Reports will be given on the various Masonic and Business aspects of the organization, and the multi-million dollar housing project for low rent and rent supplement projects sponsored by the organization in various parts of the jurisdiction.

2,000 BLACK (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

papers were authored by Dr. Joseph H. Jackson, president of the convention. Leaders of the convention said it was rewarding to see such a large group come together in a peaceful manner and accomplish important guidelines to help arrest the problems facing youth today.

Eyeglasses CONTACT LENSES HEARING AIDS Bring Your Prescription to Ridgeway's OPTICIANS, Inc. FIRST IN THE CAROLINAS RALEIGH - Professional Building RALEIGH - 304 St. Mary's St. Other Offices: GREENVILLE GREENSBORO-CHARLOTT

SWEEPSTAKES (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

this week is on Raleigh FCX Service, located at 301 W. Cabarrus Street. It is important that the persons who have these lucky tickets understand that he or she SHOULD NOT go to the businesses involved but first present them to The CAROLINIAN for verification. Deadline for submitting any winning house number to this office is Monday, September 28, at 5 p.m. If no one claims the merchandise the week that it is offered, then when that particular merchant's number is drawn again in the revised Sweepstakes feature, amounts indicated will be added to it.

DR. BROWNE (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

preme Parliamentarian of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, the sponsoring organization. Dr. Browne does not limit her time only to academic pursuits, but finds time to engage in civic activities as a counselor to Youth, Leader of Girl Scouts Troop 23, Brigia Leaf Council, and YWCA activities. There have been many honorees conferred on her; The Residence Hall at Rhode Island College was named in her honor; appointed by Governor Sanford on the Committee to study needs of Mentally Retarded in N. C.; and the Hamilton Watch Company Award for outstanding service as a teacher, leader and scholar. Dr. Browne has spent a lifetime teaching the poor-in-college-in Sunday School in her pastor husband's church-in her experimental day-nursery school. From her long experience, Dr. Browne speaks with authority in her book, on topics so urgent today-"Equal Education," "minority rights," "the church in the inner city," and the "welfare syndrome." Friends of the Sorority are invited to be present to meet the author of "Love My Children."

CHIEF DEFENDS (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

women, through the parking lot of an A&P Store, located on Fayetteville Street, near Durham business college. The allegations are that Jones and Lawrence, wearing police uniforms, approached Jones and the two women, on the night of Sept. 15 and asked certain routine questions. It is further alleged that the two officers, without any provocation, proceeded to search Jones. Jones is said to have resented this kind of action and alleges that Hunter knocked him to the ground. The action further states that Jones was the victim of blows, landed on his side and head as he was being taken to the Durham County jail. Upon arriving at the jail, it is alleged that he was locked in a cell, where he remained for approximately four hours. He further alleged that his civil rights were violated when he was not permitted to use a telephone or arraigned before a magistrate, judge or tribunal. Haskins alleges that after he was told about the affair, he along with some friends, went to the courthouse, hoping to secure Jones' release, ran into the two arresting officers along with another officer, Marshall Thompson, who struck him. The suit avers that Hunter and Lawrence joined in the assault on Haskins. The result was that Haskins was charged with multiple violations. The CAROLINIAN talked with Chief Pleasants just before press time and was told that at no time had the plaintiffs complained to him about any brutality practiced by his men and he had no knowledge of same until he was interviewed by a newsman about the suit brought against the three officers and himself. He lost no time in saying that there had been no suspension of the three accused officers and no hearing was slated in the matter. He also said that it appears that every time a police officer raises his finger, in performance of his duty, he is charged with assault.

EXPERT IN (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

tion on March 28, 1968. Atlanta attorney Howard Moore, representing Sellers, said that his intention for calling the federal agent was to determine before the court whether or not the evidence used in the case was complete and untainted. Miller was the agent who performed the eavesdroppings on the former SNCC official. Beyond the validity of this material, Moore also said that there was some question as to whether or not the particular induction which Sellers allegedly refused to obey were in fact legal.

In Jan., 1970 the supreme court of the United States ruled in the so-called Gutknecht decision that persons, who were delinquent could not be ordered to report to induction early because of their delinquency nor could their selective service classification be changed. Sellers, who is under the jurisdiction of draft officials in Bamberg County, S. C., had failed to report for and complete physical examinations in April of 1965 and August of 1965 before being ordered for induction on May 1, 1967.

Sellers is also facing charges of allegedly inciting to riot during the Orangeburg Massacre at South Carolina State College on Feb. 8, 1968, during which he and 54 other Black students were wounded by state highway patrolmen. Three other Black demonstrators were killed when the law officers caught the retreating demonstrators in a cross fire. The Orangeburg trial was set to begin on Sept. 21. However it has been postponed at least eight times before and many observers were in doubt as to whether the state had yet collected sufficient evidence to present a valid case. Daniel Patrick Moynihan, Counselor to the President: "If we do not get family assistance in this Congress, I do not see how we'll get it in this decade."

Olga Knows Your Weekly Horoscope September 24 through September 30

ARIES (March 21-April 19): You are the pathfinder, Ari, and sometime during the coming week you will not only find a new and exciting path, but you will wander down it with one whom you should have met last week. Just make sure it isn't the primrose one. Time is not propitious. Not yet. Later perhaps.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): A temporary relationship is in the works, Taurus. Olga stresses the word 'temporary' so you will understand right from the start. It will be delightful and it will be meaningful. But it will be only temporary. So enjoy it to the fullest, no matter how long it may last. A lifetime can be compressed into a single hour if that hour is spent with the right person.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Don't dilly away your days on trivia, Gem. The whole earth is out there waiting for you. Literally. You have much to offer. Get it on! As week draws to a close you may have mystical experience. Perhaps a feeling of deja vu.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Moodiness could ruin the entire week if you give in to it, Moonchild. Do you really want to waste this last beautiful week in September? Olga thinks not. In fact old Olga thinks her Moonbabies are something rather special, and are capable of much more fun in life than they even dream. Of course you have to get off of your fannies and put forth a little extra effort too, you know. NOW, GET WITH IT.

LEO (July 23-August 22): Honest, straightforward Leo. You really zero in on the old target, don't you? In fact, you pride yourself on your candor. No 'round and 'round the prickly pear for Leo. Now in week ahead there is one who will deliver some honest opinions to you, sweetie. Let's see if Leo can take it as well as dish it out. If you flinch you have to take three giant steps backward. Smack dab into the briar patch.

VIRGO (August 23-September 22): Virg, you, like Gem, are Mercury-ruled. And you are like Gem in many ways. You are both great talkers. And writers. The you are more mature and sensible than Gem. And not quite as much fun. Nevertheless, you get on very well with those born under your sister-sign. Gem sews. You reap. During week ahead keep alert for new friendship with a Gem. Or perhaps renewal of an old friendship. Or flame.

LIBRA (September 23-October 22): After unusually active month, you are about to have a breather, Libra. At least the first four days of week should be rather quiet ones. Take advantage. Hit the sack early. And go to sleep. No messing around. For pete's sake, even the Creator rested on the seventh day.

SCORPIO (October 23-November 21): You have been living a fairy tale in recent months, Scorp, and it is old Olga's duty to inform you that you are rapidly approaching the denouement of your little story. However, Scorp is not one to take things as they come. You are the one who calls the shots. Start calling. And above all, remain plucky. It is your pluckiness which is your greatest attribute.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22-December 21): You have a tendency to always think in the future tense, Sag. This is because you have vision. You think in terms of the grand design. But while thinking of the future, don't forget the present. It can be rather peachy too, you know. In fact, today, yesterday was tomorrow. Remember? In week ahead concentrate on living life to the fullest. Cut out for some time in the country, perhaps. Or at the seashore. Or the mountains. Where you can really commune.

CAPRICORN (December 22-January 19): Stop being so blamed formal, Cap. You're going to pull a faux pas or two sometime before you go to that great zodiac in the sky. So stop fussing. No one is perfect. Not even Cap. Tho at times, you come priggishly close. Week ahead could be most trying one. Melancholy moods may plague you. If you feel you are losing ground, consult one whom you respect. Listen. Then follow advice.

AQUARIUS (January 20-February 18): As old Olga has told you time and time again, Aquari, you are (and forgive the bad rhyme) Aquari the Contrary. You are worse than Mary, Mary, who was quite. And that's based. But it DOES make you interesting. One never knows for sure what you will do. Except that it will be the unexpected. And in these days of computerization, it is reassuring to know that the individual still controls SOMETHING. Week ahead for doing what comes... naturally.

PISCES (February 19-March 20): Bat those long lashes of yours, Pisces, and in week ahead the whole earth will be your private watering-hole. NOBODY, repeat, NOBODY can resist a Piscean when he/she sets his/her mind to something and bats the old lashes at the same time. If there are those who would like to have you quietly removed from the scene, tell them to go jump in the Potomac. Neptune rules you baby, and in the mist and fog you are harder to hit than a feather wall. And even higher do you fly.

Olga Knows Your Weekly Horoscope September 24 through September 30

ARIES (March 21-April 19): You are the pathfinder, Ari, and sometime during the coming week you will not only find a new and exciting path, but you will wander down it with one whom you should have met last week. Just make sure it isn't the primrose one. Time is not propitious. Not yet. Later perhaps.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): A temporary relationship is in the works, Taurus. Olga stresses the word 'temporary' so you will understand right from the start. It will be delightful and it will be meaningful. But it will be only temporary. So enjoy it to the fullest, no matter how long it may last. A lifetime can be compressed into a single hour if that hour is spent with the right person.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Don't dilly away your days on trivia, Gem. The whole earth is out there waiting for you. Literally. You have much to offer. Get it on! As week draws to a close you may have mystical experience. Perhaps a feeling of deja vu.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Moodiness could ruin the entire week if you give in to it, Moonchild. Do you really want to waste this last beautiful week in September? Olga thinks not. In fact old Olga thinks her Moonbabies are something rather special, and are capable of much more fun in life than they even dream. Of course you have to get off of your fannies and put forth a little extra effort too, you know. NOW, GET WITH IT.

LEO (July 23-August 22): Honest, straightforward Leo. You really zero in on the old target, don't you? In fact, you pride yourself on your candor. No 'round and 'round the prickly pear for Leo. Now in week ahead there is one who will deliver some honest opinions to you, sweetie. Let's see if Leo can take it as well as dish it out. If you flinch you have to take three giant steps backward. Smack dab into the briar patch.

VIRGO (August 23-September 22): Virg, you, like Gem, are Mercury-ruled. And you are like Gem in many ways. You are both great talkers. And writers. The you are more mature and sensible than Gem. And not quite as much fun. Nevertheless, you get on very well with those born under your sister-sign. Gem sews. You reap. During week ahead keep alert for new friendship with a Gem. Or perhaps renewal of an old friendship. Or flame.

LIBRA (September 23-October 22): After unusually active month, you are about to have a breather, Libra. At least the first four days of week should be rather quiet ones. Take advantage. Hit the sack early. And go to sleep. No messing around. For pete's sake, even the Creator rested on the seventh day.

SCORPIO (October 23-November 21): You have been living a fairy tale in recent months, Scorp, and it is old Olga's duty to inform you that you are rapidly approaching the denouement of your little story. However, Scorp is not one to take things as they come. You are the one who calls the shots. Start calling. And above all, remain plucky. It is your pluckiness which is your greatest attribute.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22-December 21): You have a tendency to always think in the future tense, Sag. This is because you have vision. You think in terms of the grand design. But while thinking of the future, don't forget the present. It can be rather peachy too, you know. In fact, today, yesterday was tomorrow. Remember? In week ahead concentrate on living life to the fullest. Cut out for some time in the country, perhaps. Or at the seashore. Or the mountains. Where you can really commune.

CAPRICORN (December 22-January 19): Stop being so blamed formal, Cap. You're going to pull a faux pas or two sometime before you go to that great zodiac in the sky. So stop fussing. No one is perfect. Not even Cap. Tho at times, you come priggishly close. Week ahead could be most trying one. Melancholy moods may plague you. If you feel you are losing ground, consult one whom you respect. Listen. Then follow advice.

AQUARIUS (January 20-February 18): As old Olga has told you time and time again, Aquari, you are (and forgive the bad rhyme) Aquari the Contrary. You are worse than Mary, Mary, who was quite. And that's based. But it DOES make you interesting. One never knows for sure what you will do. Except that it will be the unexpected. And in these days of computerization, it is reassuring to know that the individual still controls SOMETHING. Week ahead for doing what comes... naturally.

PISCES (February 19-March 20): Bat those long lashes of yours, Pisces, and in week ahead the whole earth will be your private watering-hole. NOBODY, repeat, NOBODY can resist a Piscean when he/she sets his/her mind to something and bats the old lashes at the same time. If there are those who would like to have you quietly removed from the scene, tell them to go jump in the Potomac. Neptune rules you baby, and in the mist and fog you are harder to hit than a feather wall. And even higher do you fly.

Dr. Larkins, Thompson To 'Unity' Fete

Mr. Samuel L. Evans National Board Chairman Philadelphia National Black Unity Football Classic 136 South 17th Street, Suite 805 Philadelphia, Pa. 19103 Dear Mr. Evans:

I am delighted to report to you that Dr. John R. Larkins, 300 Parrish Street, Raleigh, North Carolina 27610, and Mr. M. Hugh Thompson, 203 1/2 East Chapel Hill Street, Durham, North Carolina 27701, will represent North Carolina at the National Black Unity Football Classic. Both men are members of the Board of Trustees at North Carolina Central University in Durham. I hope you will write direct to Mr. Larkins and Mr. Thompson so they will have complete information.

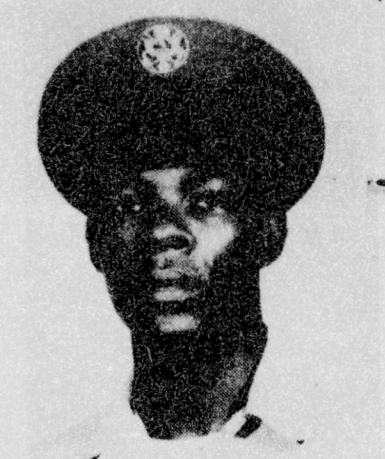

I have shared a copy of the preliminary program of American Unity Week with them. With kindest regards, Sincerely, Robert W. Scott

Public Health Service Takes On Smallpox

WASHINGTON, D. C. - The distribution of Vaccinia Immune Globulin (VIG), a rare blood product used to combat severe reactions from small pox vaccinations, has been turned over to U. S. Public Health Service by the American National Red Cross which began the distribution program in 1963.

In announcing the change, Dr. Tibor J. Greenwalt, medical director of the ARC Blood Program, said over 18,000 five-milliliter vials of VIG have been provided without charge to physicians in this country and throughout the world during the past 17 years.

Many of the rush calls for the precious serum were for children who had infected their eyes or other part of their bodies after scratching or touching their vaccinations, Dr. Greenwalt said. Some of these infections were so massive that loss of sight and even death would have resulted had the serum not been available in time. Because of the scarcity of VIG and the fact that it must be given very soon after the infection starts, the Red Cross handled distribution from its blood centers in 14 cities throughout the United States, with a volunteer physician-consultant in each city being responsible for approving all requests and advising on the dosage. Some 800 vials of the product also were sent to ten for-sign countries in response to urgent requests from physicians, Dr. Greenwalt noted. Since Vaccinia Immune Globulin can only be taken from the blood of a person recently vaccinated for smallpox, the Red Cross for many years obtained most of its supply from young men newly recruited into military service, a source considerably diminished during the past few years by military's urgent need for blood for the wounded in Vietnam.

COMPLETES BASIC TRAINING - San Antonio: Airman Wades Judd, son of Verta J. Judd of 821 Cotton St. has completed basic training at Lackland AFB, Tex. He is remaining at Lackland for training as a security policeman. Airman Judd is a 1968 graduate of Fuquay Consolidated High School in Fuquay Varina.

L. Mendel Rivers, Congressman (D-S. C.), at NATO meeting: "An agreement to take an equal financial burden has to be coupled with equal manpower sharing."

Kenneth A. Gibson, new Mayor of Newark: "I want to restore our city's name. I want to make it a good place to live, work and worship."

Everything For... BUILDING REMODELING REPAIRING LUMBER MILLWORK ATHEY'S PAINTS BUILDING MATERIALS RUSSWIN HARDWARE At Our New Location On RALEIGH BELTLINE CAROLINA BUILDERS CORP. Between U. S 1 and 84 Ph. 828-7471-Raleigh, N. C.

ACME REALTY CO. REAL ESTATE RENTALS-BUILDING AND REPAIRS-PROPERTY MANAGEMENT INSURANCE FIRE-HOME-AUTOMOBILE AND WIND-STORM Call Us For Information ACME REALTY CO. Phone 832-0956 129 E. HARGETT STREET RALEIGH, N. C.

We serve those of all faiths To Appraise St. Aug.'s Historians, Scientists Dr. Leslie Jekely, former Prime Minister of Hungary, will also lecture in 1970-'71, and then in the academic year 1971-'72 a second British scholar has been engaged for the program. Dr. Jekely will visit Kenyon College, Ohio; Saint Paul's, Virginia; Shimer in Illinois; and Voorhees in South Carolina. The program, called "Viewpoints from Abroad," was initiated by a grant from the Seafie Family of Pittsburgh. The venture is an effort to review and bring creatively into modern context the political precepts which changed the governments of the world after 1776. Since a whole generation seems to have missed the dramatic story, it is believed that one of the places where the omission may be repaired is on college campuses. American scholars face many handicaps. The current milieu challenges them. The nation distrusts itself. The observer from abroad can today speak with great effect. HAYWOOD FUNERAL HOME, INC. Over a half century of service to Raleigh and community Raleigh Mutual Burial Association Low cost funeral insurance available 322 E. CABARRUS ST.-PHONE 832-2635