

FROM RALEIGH'S OFFICIAL POLICE FILES
THE CRIME BEAT

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE)

BEATEN WHILE ASLEEP

Mrs. Mary Louise McCutcheon, 527 E. Davie Street, reported to Officer B. M. Perry at 11:05 a.m. last Tuesday, that her husband, Willie Lewis McCutcheon, 43, had been arguing at her and she laid down on the bed and went to sleep. The next thing she knew, she declared, her husband was waking her up by beating her with a steel hammer. The woman suffered bruises on her back, thighs and arms.

ATTACKED BY FOUR

James Albert Wilson, 30, 511 Rand Mill Rd., Garner, informed Officer Rudolph F. Perry at 4:46 a.m. Sunday, that four colored males beat him up in the 200 block of S. East Street, and one of them stole his wallet. Mr. Wilson also stated that he had no money in the wallet, which he said cost him $3. He was unable to give any description of the four. Wilson suffered lacerations of the mouth. His attackers were said to be around 18 years of age each.

DRUNK ASSAULTS COP

Officer Jimmy Max Glover reported at 3 a.m. on Sunday, that "I had arrested Jacob Lee Long, 20, 509 E. Cabarrus St., for public intoxication and he resisted arrest, then he pushed me back and I fell on my back. He hit me twice with his fist and then he left, running up the block (500 block of E. Cabarrus Street). He went behind a house on that street. He was picked up at his house by Officer R. E. Williams and brought to the magistrate's office by him in his patrol car. I then signed warrants, charging him with public intoxication, resisting arrest, assault on an officer and damage to property. Officer Williams then took him up to the jail." The cop received a cut on the left side of his face, cut over the right eye and his uniform was damaged in the amount of $47.

FRESH FISH 'n' SEAFOOD
Daily
RALEIGH SEAFOOD CO.
832-7748—410 E. Davie

CUT LEAVING SCENE

Miss Clorie Jean Smith, 22, 202 Dorothea Drive, told Officer R. L. Phillips at 2:20 p.m. Sunday, that John Primus, 28, 106 Walnut Street, came to her house, she grabbed her knife and he ran outside, she chased him and cut him on the left wrist. Primus was unable to make a statement and was admitted to Wake Memorial Hospital. Investigative notes showed that Mr. Primus was cut approximately twelve feet from the woman's house and was removed from the scene by ambulance. The woman was arrested and charged with assault with a deadly weapon. Primus suffered a four-inch cut on the wrist.

ATTACKED FOR NO REASON?

Willie Johnson McNeil, 4051/2 Smithfield Street, informed Officer J. G. Moore at 10 a.m., that he was on his way back home and was in the 400 block of Smithfield, when he saw a 1962 white Chevrolet parked at the corner. He stated that as he began to pass the vehicle, the persons inside "got out and began beating me, for what reason, I don't know". He was treated for a cut on the left eye and a cut on the lip.

MARSHALL BARNES ACCUSED

Arthur Alexander Anderson, 408 E. South Street, reported to Officer W. M. Parker, Jr., at 1:28 p.m. Saturday that "Marshall Barnes, 35, who is rooming at the same address, stole my .32 calibre revolver from under my bed." Anderson also said he was going to sign a warrant, charging Barnes with larceny. The revolver was valued at $55.

STRUCK FROM BEHIND

James Bowden, 826 1/2 Fayetteville Street, told Officer J. G. Moore at 1:12 p.m. Saturday, that he went over to his ex-wife's apartment and once he got inside, he asked her if he could use the bathroom. However, before he got to the door of the bathroom, someone came from behind and hit him in the back of the head with some kind of object. He suffered a cut on the head. The incident occurred at 27 Walnut Street.

CAUGHT FOR STEALING

James Troy Franklin, an employee of Hudson-Belk Department Store, reported to a cop at 1:01 p.m. Thursday, that a saleswoman saw a suspect, James Harris, 28, address unlisted, concealing merchandise in his front pocket. She brought this information to Franklin and he confronted the subject, took him into his office, got the merchandise from Harris and called "the law." The merchandise consisted of two gold bracelets, valued at $2.50 each. Harris was charged with shoplifting.

TAKES TOY BANKS

Billy F. Young, owner of Shoney's Restaurant, 1629 North Boulevard, informed Officer R. D. Williams at 6:02 p.m. Tuesday of last week, that he observed the two rubber "Big Boy" toy banks, in a handbag, owned by employee Llewelyn Horton, 18, Route 3, Wake Forest, as Horton finished his tour of duty for the day and vacated the building with the handbag. He was stopped outside by the complainant and the officer. He said he was carrying the toy banks to his sister for her birthday. A larceny from employer warrant was signed and Horton was "hauled off" to Wake County Jail.

JENKINS ATTACKED

Hickman Jenkins, well-known figure around the East Raleigh and Lincoln Park Areas of the city, who lists his age as 39 and his address 426 S. Haywood Street, told Officer W. E. Atkinson at 8:32 p.m. last Tuesday, that he was walking along in front of 127 N. Fisher Street, when two Negro males came up to him and one threatened to beat him. He declared that one proceeded to beat him, while the other one stood and looked on. Mr. Jenkins exhibited abrasions of a knee and several fingers. He said he was also kicked.

TAPE PLAYER "LIFTED"

Mrs. Janet Ray Johnson, an employee of the Tape Depot, 134 E. Morgan Street, informed Officer G. L. Miller at 1:30 p.m. last Wednesday, that she was writing out a sales slip for a customer and a colored male subject, about 19, was looking at a tape player. The woman said she then walked to the desk in the back of the store and when she came back to the front, both the suspect and the tape player were missing. The unit was valued at $71.74.

GUYS AND DOLLS PLAN TEENAGE REGIONAL—Members of the Guys and Dolls and Junior Teens of the Raleigh Chapter of Jack and Jill met Saturday afternoon at the home of Doll Wanda Goins to finalize entertainment plans and pack souvenir kits for the Teenage Regional. Over three-hundred teenage members of the Mid-Atlantic Region of Jack and Jill of America, Inc. are expected to meet November 6-8 at the Sir Walter Convention Center of this city. The region is composed of 26 chapters in North Carolina, South Carolina, and Virginia. Pictured above are members of the committees and their adult leaders. Seated on the floor are Marty Batey, alternate program chairman, Chacona Winters, teenage chairman, David Hayward, chairman of entertainment, and Wanda Goins, teenage chairman of souvenirs and kits. Standing, from left to right, are Gregory Logan, John White, Mrs. Mabel Winters, chairman of kits and souvenirs, Sharon Stroud, Mrs. Bernice Perry, Jean Burnett, Sherree Rainbow, Michael Hunt, Gwen Debnam, Mrs. Norma Hayward, chairman of entertainment, Jerome Abron, Mrs. Mertie Batey, Darryl Batey and Mrs. Laverne Goins, chairman of art and decorations. The child with the doll is Carol Goins, a prospective 1978 teenager.

Groups In Agreement

NEW YORK—Representatives of the National Committee Against Discrimination in Housing and American Can Company said last Thursday that they had entered into an agreement under which NCDH will act as a consultant to American in the fields of housing and equal employment opportunity. The announcement was made jointly by Jack E. Wood, Jr., and Edward Rutledge, executive co-directors of NCDH, and George R. Koons, vice president, employee relations, of American Can. The agreement arose out of a meeting called early this year by NCDH to discuss with representatives of large corporations in the New York City metropolitan area the interrelationship of equal employment opportunities and a access to housing near places of work.

BLOOMIN BARGAIN
REGULAR 1.27 SAVE 38¢
-2-PIECE DISH DRAINER SET
99¢
THUR. FRI. SAT. ONLY
Fine Quality Plastic Ware in the new, modern design to make dish washing chores easier. Standard size in assorted colors.
ROSES
Cameron Village

Brown To Speak Oct. 23
John H. Brown, Jr., a native of Raleigh, now Deputy National Director of the Apprenticeship Information Centers, U. S. Department of Labor, Washington, D. C., will be one of the featured speakers at the Regional Conference on Equal Employment. The Conference will convene in St. Paul, Minnesota on Oct. 23rd at the St. Paul Hilton Hotel under the auspices of the Office of the Regional Manpower Administration for the Six-State region including Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Ohio and Wisconsin.

JOHN H. BROWN
Mr. Brown's office is responsible for the Administrative Supervision of the network of 36 Apprenticeship Information Centers in 22 States and the District of Columbia to accelerate the moving of minorities into registered apprenticeship programs. The speaker is a graduate of St. Augustine's College, Raleigh, and holds a Master's Degree from Columbia University. He has pursued additional studies at New York and Yale Universities. Before coming to the Labor Department, Mr. Brown served as a high school principal, college personnel dean, held administrative posts with the Washington Urban League, Junior Citizens Corps and, more recently, Director of the Office of Tutoring Services at the Health and Welfare Council, Washington, D. C.

BETTER HOUSING FOR MILLIONS
Since its inception, the Low Rent Public Housing Program of the Department of Housing and Urban Development has provided better housing for nearly 11 million people. More than 2.5 million people are living in these units, at an average monthly rental of $51. More than 400,000 families are waiting to get in.

YOUR PHONE CAN REACH OVER 100,000,000 OTHER PHONES. AND VICE-VERSA.
The value of your telephone can be measured by the number of other telephones it can reach. In this country alone, your phone can reach over one hundred million other phones. And they can all reach yours. Instantly and at an incredibly low cost.

FANTASTIC.

Southern Bell

Miss Fields Will Be Presented At St. Aug.
The English Department of St. Augustine's College will present Miss Julia Fields, writer-in-residence on October 14, at 8 p.m. in the Amphitheater of the New Classroom Building. Her program will include: Part I, Poetry by Black Women Writers: Margaret Walker, Margaret Donner, Mari Evans, Gwendolyn Brooks. Part II, Poetry by Outstanding Poets: Langston Hughes, Robert Hayden, Ray Durem, Arna Bon-temps, and Sterling. In Part III, Miss Fields will read her own poems. Miss Fields has had one book of poetry published by Poets Press of New York. She has received two National Endowments for the Arts Fellowship and one Woodrow Wilson Fellowship. She has read her poetry over WRAL Educational Radio in New York and at the Folk Bion Theatre there. She has read often in high schools and churches. In addition to having read her poems at Saint Augustine's College, she has been presented at Miles College, Hampton Institute, East Carolina University, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, William and Mary College and Saran Lawrence College. The public is invited to hear her.

HOUSING ASSISTANCE
More than 1-1/2 million lower income Americans will be able to move into more than 500,000 new and rehabilitated housing units to be started in 1970 under Federal housing assistance programs, reports the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

PROCESSING TIME REDUCED
After an intensive study of its operations and requirements, the Department of Housing and Urban Development has, among other things, cut application processing time under its Low-Rent Housing Program by one full year. This represents a 31 percent reduction. HUD also has reduced paperwork requirements on communities.

Top Priority
Anything more important than your family's future? Put first things first with common sense life insurance. Call me today.
Mrs. Mary E. Fox
METROPOLITAN LIFE INSURANCE CO
219 Oberlin Road
Phone 828-5717

New York, N. Y.

PLAY POOL
with the CHAMPS and the SHARPSHOOTERS
—at—

OATES BILLIARDS
TWO LOCATIONS
207 S. Wilmington St.
105 S. Blount St.

Woolworth
THE FUN PLACE TO SHOP FOR THE ENTIRE FAMILY
DOWNTOWN
MAKE A WISH
...it may come true
PUT YOUR WISH IN OUR WISHING WELL
Is there a special "something" in Woolworth's large selection of merchandise you would like? Do more than wish! Fill out our Wishing-slip coupon and deposit in the Wishing Well. Make a "wish" each time you enter Woolworth's.

WISHING WELL COUPON

I WISH FOR _____

NAME _____

ADDRESS _____

CITY _____ STATE _____ ZIP _____

NO PURCHASE NECESSARY
WINNERS NEED NOT BE PRESENT VOID WHERE PROHIBITED BY LAW

—Woolworth—

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED-REPLACEMENT OR MONEY REFUNDED

We make it very, very smooth. But we don't make very, very much.
THE LIMITED EDITION 10 YEAR OLD KENTUCKY BOURBON
Ancient Ancient Age
$11.50 1/2 Gal. $5.25 4-5 Qt. $3.30 Pt.

STEWART KENTUCKY BOURBON WHISKEY - © 1970 - © INCIDENT ACE DISTILLING CO. FARMFORD, KY.