NAACP Mobilizes Statewide Drive For Members

MISS ANGELA DAVIS, FRIEND NABBED IN MOTEL-New York: Black Revolutionary, Miss Angela Davis, third from left, is handcuffed between two FBI agents on Tuesday, October 13, as she leaves FBI headquarters here for an undisclosed destination, Miss Davis had been sought for murder and kidnaping in the California courtroom shootout that killed four persons, including the presiding judge. Shown in inset is Rudolph Poindexter, Jr., who was arrested along with Miss Davis. He has been charged with harboring her from police. Miss Davis is the second woman ever to be on the FBI's most wanted list. (UPI).

Search For 50,000 New Members Puts Spotlight On NAACP Youth

GASTONIA - "Lest we forget ..... Lest we forget .... that the NAACP is the lever by which the Negro has come thus far on his way to full citizenship, and lest we forget that it is still the one agency that can move America into a fuller life," was the essence of what Clarence Mitchell, the Senator from Washington, D. C. told the 27th annual session of the North Carolina State Conference of Branches, NAACP, in his keynote address Friday night.

The well-known lobbyist took pot shots at President Nixon and styled him as the greatest of the unreconstructed Romans and warned that only continuous prodding, on the part of the NAACP, would cause him to change his course. He was conscious of some of the benefits that had come to the Negro via the Nixon Administration, but he was also caustic about many that had been withheld, including a straight-forward approach to full integration. He took a non-partisan view of the situation and brought his wrath down on recalcitrant Democrats as well as foot-dragging Republicans.

The three-day session was held at Mt. Calvary Baptist Church, Rev. James E. Coleman, pastor. He is also the president of the Gaston County NAACP Branch.

Much emphasis was placed on youth participation. The youth were noticeably conscious of the theme of the convention-"The Status of Black Americans in a New Era of Social Change." This was brought into focus by James Brown, Jr., national di-

Ex-Ligon Principal In Top Job

COLUMBUS, Ohio-The highest administrative post ever held by a Negro at Ohio State University was filled with the appointment of Dr. William J. Holloway as Vice Provost for Coordination of Minority Affairs. He will also be Professor of Education at the University. Dr. Holloway is a former principal of the J. W. Ligon

High School in Raleigh, N. C. Dr. Holloway is Chief of the Operations Review Branch of the Division of Equal Educational Opportunities in the U. S. Office of Education and supervises the evaluation of equal educational opportunities programs in thirty six states.

The appointment to this high level newly created post was made by Ohio State University President Novice G. Fawcett and approved by the Board of Trustees at its October meeting. It becomes effective Octo-

Prior to coming to the U.S. Office of Education, Dr. Holloway was Superintendent of Virginia State School at Hampton, Virginia; Director of the Freshman Program and College Counselor at North Carolina Central University in Durham. North Carolina; Principal of J. W. Ligon Junior-Senior High School in Raleigh; and Dean of Men and Director of Student Personnel Services at Savannah

State College in Savannah, Ga. Among the awards he has received are: The National Freedoms Foundations Honor Medal. The Southern Regional Press (See J. HOLLOWAY, P. 2)

rector, NAACP Youth and College Division, and Leon Love, Southeast Regional Youth Director. They were conscious of the fact that the youth had just arrived on the scene and were not in possession of the knowhow, the experience and the understanding that the adults had. The speakers were also conscious of the fact that a job of vast magnitude was ahead and even though they were ready, willing and courageous enough to get it done, they needed to

(See MOBILIZES, P. 2)

STATE'S FIRST BLACK FE-

MALE LEGISLATOR - Miami,

Fla.: Gwen Cherry, a teacher,

author, attorney and scholar,

who became the first black woman elected to the Florida Legislature, says she's not a trialblazer, "just an over - a-chiever." "I guess the time was right. The people of Dade

County are fair and they wanted to see democracy in action,"

Mrs. Cherry said after defeating a whiteman, Harvey Ruvinin the Sept. 29 runoff election to win the 96th district house

Burger Is

Ranked Low

seat. (UPI).

be told by the adults what to do and when to do it. Every speaker from the state president, Kelly M. Alexander, down to the last speaker on Saturday, sounded the alarm that the battle has not been won, nor the victory achieved. They admonished the delegates to go back to their respective branches and regird themselves 'to build a more viable community by putting more stress on politics and education. They stressed the fact that the action is in politics. Mr. Alexander warned that is not enough to register and vote, but it is highly necessary to elect blacks to office so that the hopes, aims and desires of black people could be brought into proper fo-

Parents Boycott

ters of the Nutbush Community, Vance County, said unequi-vocally "NO!" to the Vance County Board of Education's decision to send only Black students back to the previously closed Nutbush school last

After the Vance County Board rejected the parents' petition, Nathan S. Burwell, chairman By The AJC of the Nutbush Community Action group, immediately announced that the parents of the Nutbush Community had voted not to send their children to the Nutbush School.

Black parents last week charged the county Board of Education with resegregating 70 Black elementary students by transferring them from an in-(See BOYCOTT, P. 2)

American Population Vulnerable

NEW YORK, N. Y.-The American population is "highly vulnerable to political extremism; the American political system is less vulnerable but scarcely fail-safe," warns a prize-winning analysis of American right wing extremism from 1790 through 1970.

The comprehensive analysis, published this week as a book, "The Politics of Unreason" by Seymour Lipset and Earl Raab, was awarded the first $10,000 Gunnar Myrdal Prize established for books of distinction in the study of human behavior. It was published as the fifth book in the "Patterns of American Prejudice" series produced under a grant from the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith to the University of California Survey Research Center. Lipset and Raab declare that (See POPULATION, P. 2)

Library Just aing 7 pt.

Principal's Son Faces Break-In Rap

M. Batey, Jr. Caught By Two Students

State University stugave chase and caught a 16-year-old local youth early Sunday morning after the vouth allegedly broke into Bagwell Dormitory on the N. C. campus.

Clyde N. Clapp, III of 302 Bagwell Dormitory and Gleen S. Hollis, Jr. of 331 Bagwell, caught Marion Grant Batey, Jr. while trying to climb a hill near the railroad tracks after the two students were awakened by the attempted break-in. Batey's father is the principal of the East Garner Junior High School.

It was reported that the youth broke a window to the recreation room where the two students were sleeping because several break-ins have been reported recently. When Batey saw the students coming after him, he ran and tried to get on a motorcycle which was parked some distance from the dormitory with its motor run-

Unable to get away, Batey began running again, but he was finally stopped by Clapp and Hollis while trying to climb the hill. Batey was charged with breaking and entering.

The CAROLINIAN contacted See PRINCIPAL'S. P. 2)

Nat'l PTA Opposes New Plan CHICAGO, Ill .- The world's largest volunteer citizen action group, the National PTA, has officially taken a position against an education voucher system recently proposed by the Office of Economic Opportuni-"The vigorous effort to mount an education voucher system is disquieting more and more people concerned with the welfare of the public school," said Mrs. Leon S. Price, president of the multi-million member National PTA at a meeting of the organization's Board of Managers in Scottsdale, Arizona.

The present plan is to launch an experimental program allowing parents to use a voucher system in determining the schools their children will attend. The plan, initially to be tried in one city only, would give a voucher directly to parents who would then choose a school for their children.

The National PTA strongly believes that certain important considerations have been overlooked under the voucher system plan. They include such matters as: what happens to teachers in a public school when the number of children drops severly but the teachers still BATTLE OUTSIDE U, N. BUILDING-New York: Security guards grapple with Cubans after they climbed over an iron fence at the United Nations Oct. 12. More than 400 Cubans gathered across the street from the U. N. to protest any possible visit by Cuban leader Fidel Castro. Led by a sound truck, they chanted "Cuba, Si, Castro, No." and "Russians out of Cub." (UPI).

CAROLINIAN

North Carolina's Leading Weekly

VOL. 29, NO. 50

RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 17, 970 SINGLE COPY 15c

Boy, 4, Tells Police His Parents

公公公公公

By Howard Johnson Motor Lodge

Civic Leader Shunned

"Fingers" Pair At Hospital

A four-year-old Raleigh boy told policeman Robert W. E. Williams a horror story from his hospital bed in Wake Memorial Hospital before a couple of other witnesses last Saturday that the injuries he had substained were admistered by his parents, Lawrence and Betsy

The boy, Johnny Bryant, 1016 Hightower Street (located in the southeast section of the city), suffered blister redness forma-(See MAIM SON, P. 2)

Shrine Trouble Brewing?

FAYETTEVILLE - The workshop planned to be held here over the coming weekend, by the Desert of North Carolina Shriners, could close a gap that has been widening for about three years - or it could cause it to

Deputy Thurman J. Smith sent out a call to the heads of the 14 temples, located in the Desert. The matter of where the 1971 Gala Day Ceremonials would be held has been tossed

ACCUSED SERGEANT, OTHERS LEAVE COURTROOM-Ft. Hood, Texas: Staff Sgt. David Mitchell (top, left), accompanied by his wife, Rosa (bottom right), mother, Mrs. Isiah Mitchell (lower left), and defense attorneys Capt. James Bowish (top) and Ossie B. Brown (top right), leave the courtroom here after the morning session, October 13. Mitchell is being court martialed, the first American soldier to be tried in connection with the alleged 1968 My Lai massacre.

'Develop Economic Base For Blacks'-J. Fleming

"If something is done to develop economic opportunities for the black city dwellerwhether on a separate or integrated basis, and I lean at least, toward a temporary separatism, the future of the black man in the cities can become one of usefulness."

These were the words the Rev. John W. Fleming, professor of Afro-American Studies at Shaw University, used to conclude his lecture to nearly 300 persons at N. C. State U-

Drive In Oxford Is A Success

OXFORD-The Committee for Black Progress announced this week that its boycott of the Oxford downtown stores will continue indefinitely because no progress has been noted from the downtown merchants.

Ben Chavis, president of the organization, told The CARO-LINIAN this week that, "right now the boycott is about 90% effective. The black citizens of Granville County are going to Durham and Vance counties to do their shopping.'

This committee has established a sub-committee known as the Economic Development Committee whose purpose to try to establish some black businesses in Oxford in the near future. Progress has been reported on the long range plan of setting these stores up in Granville County.

"As of now, it is left (See OXFORD, P. 2)

Ordered

GASTONIA - A harrowing story of how he virtually driven from a Howard Johnson Motor Lodge, located in Aberdeen in the early hours of Saturday, Oct. 10, by an irate white woman attendant, was reported to the N. C. State Conference of Branches, NA-ACP, by Alexander Barnes, president, Durham Branch.

Barnes alleges that he had a very tight schedule on Friday, the 9th, having left Durham early that morning to attend the Gastonia NAACP meeting. He says he left Gastonia about 6 p.m., for Albermarle, where he spoke at a meeting on the Laymen's Association of the Western N. C. Conference, AME Zion Church. He then drove to Raeford for a meeting with the Shriners of that area. This mission accomplished about 12 midnight, he began the (See CLERK ORDERS, P. 2)

From Raleigh's Official Police Files

COMPLAINT "UNFOUNDED? Mrs. Mary Irene Harris, 1342 Branch Street, told Officer James E. (Bobby) Daye at 4:53 p.m. Wednesday, that her son, Rodney Neil Harris, 4, and Daniel Lee Johnson, 8, 1334 Branch Street, were playing and "they got into a fight." The woman also declared she called her son home, and said Daniel's father, Samuel Johnson, 37, came into her yard and struck Rodney on the head with his hands, Although Mrs. Harris said she would sign an assault on a minor warrant against Mr. Johnson, she was refused one by the magistrate. The complaint was listed on the offense report as "unfounded."

(See CRIME BEAT, P. 3)

In The Sweepstakes SPOTLIGHT THIS WEEK JOHNSON-LAMBE COMPANY

Known for Quality, Dependability and Service

See SWEEPSTAKES Ads

Read Page 12 for Winners Sweepstakes Moving

As merchandise continues to stores, grow at locations of the participating businesses in The CAROLINIAN's Revised Sweepstakes Program, we again list the numbers which may bring some lucky persons a total of $25 each in merchandise at the niversity Monday, Rev. Fleming replaced Dr. King V. Cheek as guest lecturer for a course in contemporary issues and spoke on the subject "The Future Of the Black Man in the City."

dience that he was not trying to be a fortune-teller or a crystal ball reader in predicting the future; that is reading the signs of the time to gain insights that will lead to fore-been made as to ways of getting out of the ghettoes, Rev.

Fleming mentioned several names and organizations. Among them were Charles Kenyatta, former head of the American Mau Maus, Constance

Baker Motley, former Bur-

(See REV. FLEMING, P. 2)

Citing suggestions that have

Rev. Fleming told the au-

Number 08873, is worth $25 in trade at G. S. Tucker and Brothers Furniture Company, 112 E. Hargett Street, Number 08701, also worth $25, is valuable at Terry's Furniture Com-(See SWEEPSTAKES, P 2)