

J. HAYES (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

Hayes is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Ethel Hayes Foxwell and Mrs. Martha Hayes Jackson; three sons, Lewyn, Hubert and George Washington Hayes, five grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

CAUCUS NOT (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

conference were: Representatives Shirley Chisholm, (D-N.Y.), Charles Diggs, (D-Mich.), Augustus Hawkins, (D-Cal.), and Louis Stokes, (D-Ohio).

SOBU SEEKS (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

governments and Black student unions, but also to Black studies program directors and the presidents of the 128 predominantly Black colleges.

"We feel that if we as Black people are going to make progress in solving our problems, we have to develop an atmosphere of confidence among us based on honesty and respect," Johnson said in the cover letter.

R. MOORMAN (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

laws." He noted that persons arrested for the possession of narcotics get a stiffer sentence than those who commit assault and armed robbery.

A veteran of six years as a drug addict and 14 months in a Florida prison for possessing narcotics, Moorman said that the drug world of opiates, amphetamines, barbiturates and mind expanding drugs like LSD is "filled with horror stories."

CANDIDATES (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

Ebenezer Baptist Church, 2200 S. Alston Ave., at 4 p.m., Sunday, Oct. 25th.

Rev. L. A. Miller, chairman, Political Action Committee, reports that all of the candidates, including Jacke Hawke, who hopes to unseat Galifianakis, will be present, except W. A. Clement, incumbent county commissioner, who had a previous engagement which prohibits him from being present.

GUIDELINES (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

which will be responsible for recommending allocations, and making some grants between commission meetings, will be headed by Bishop Charles F. Golden of San Francisco, commission vice president. Its 12 members will include representatives of the four basic ethnic minority groups—six Negroes, one Indian, one Hispanic-American and one Asian-American—plus three whites.

Appointments were made by Bishop W. Kenneth Goodson of Birmingham, Ala., commission president.

The commission said the funds "are to go to programs and projects which they (the minority groups) have determined as being significant, viable and of importance to the development of the ethnic community of which they are a part."

The guidelines include recognition of four ethnic caucuses within United Methodism "a legitimate expression of minority groups... to determine for themselves their priorities," funding of specific projects and programs rather than organizations, support for projects demonstrating self-determination, grants for both church and secular projects but with priority for the former, predetermined quotas for any of the groups, evaluation of projects both before funding and

BOYCOTT (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

Rawlings School and were approached by the chief of police of Henderson. The chief informed the group that they had to leave the building.

The demonstrators proceeded to move outside the school and formed a picket line in front, where Chavis led them in chants saying, "I may be black, but I am somebody."

SHRINERS (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

calm prevailed, it was decided that Maxton would drop its contention for the 1971 festivities and that they would be held in Winston-Salem. It was also voted that facilities in the Maxton area would be studied and if found suitable that the 1973 Ceremonials would be held in the area.

WILSON (Continued from Page 1)

cerned students at Fike High" which contained his signature. His response to the demands were, (1) the students were going to select seven members to the Judicial Board that day, (2) a faculty committee had been appointed to study the possibility of establishing a course in Black History, (3) several committees have been formed to discuss the pupil-student relationship at Fike, and (4) the Judicial Board would meet as soon as possible after its selection.

REV. HAMANS (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

the aged and infirm with transportation to the church. The basement was cleaned up, lighted and renovated. Well do I remember when the church banquet was held there.

$22 MILLION (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

$2,600,000; Montgomery, Ala., 300 units, $3,331,000; Birmingham, Ala., 180 units, $2,215,000 a second unit in Dallas, with 148 units, $1,886,000; Fort Worth, Texas, 152 units, $1,808,000; Frankfort, Ky., 100 units, $1,250,000; Port Arthur, Tex., 120 units $1,267,000; Spartanburg, S. C., 100 units, $1,107,000; and one in Washington, D. C., with 212 units valued at $4,250,000 with a combined value of $22 million.

CHURCH NEWS

St. Paul AME Sunday School began at 9:45 a.m. with the supt., Mrs. Eunice Taylor, in charge. The morning worship service began at 11 a.m. with the pastor, Rev. Epps offering the prayer. The guest speaker was Rev. Thomas Hoyt, Jr. former pastor of St. Joseph CME. Music was rendered by the youth and senior choirs. The first hymn was "The Last Mile Of The Way." St. Paul celebrating its 100th anniversary.

CHURCH NEWS

St. Joseph CME just closed a great revival. The pastor is Rev. Helton.

CHURCH NEWS

On Sunday, Oct. 25th Mt. Zion Church, Chatham will celebrate its Homecoming. The pastor, Rev. J. R. Burt.

CHURCH NEWS

The Gospel Chorus will celebrate their anniversary at 3 p.m. at the Second Baptist Church. The pastor, Rev. T. A. Brown. The public is cordially invited to attend.

CHURCH NEWS

At 7:30 p.m. the gospel chorus will celebrate their anniversary at the New Hope Baptist Church, Chatham. The pastor is Rev. J. R. Briley.

CHURCH NEWS

The Family Health Center meets every Monday at 6:30 p.m. at the Multi-purpose Center.

CHURCH NEWS

Those celebrating birthdays are, Rev. J. R. Manley, Miss Dorothea Headen and Mrs. Susie Webb. Mrs. Webb is the supervisor of the Mother Mission Club at St. Paul.

CHURCH NEWS

Have I given anything today? Have I helped some wounded soul on the way? From the dawn to setting sun. Just think, have I wounded anyone, don't, so you won't have to weep for what you have done, Oh Lord today?

CHURCH NEWS

Elevated to active status were A. E. Ballard, Washington, D. C., grand recorder; Clark Brown, N. C., Oldie Taylor, S. C., in addition to Allen and Day.

CHURCH NEWS

Of the developing countries' 900 million children, half do not receive any formal education.

Principal Refuses To Crown Queen

CREEDMOOR - It has been brought to the attention of the N. C.-Va. Committee for Racial Justice that during this month Black students at South Granville High School in Creedmoor were refused the honor of having a black girl to become "Miss South Granville High" after she received a majority of the votes from the student body.

Miss Tarqueenia Rose Cooper, a black senior student, on Oct. 7, received a majority of votes from the integrated student body of South Granville High.

However, Carl T. Weaver, principal of South Granville High, allegedly told Miss Cooper that he could not crown a black girl queen because the white community of Creedmoor would cause trouble.

So the principal allegedly crowned Miss Norma Clayton, a white senior student, and Miss Cooper as co-queens of South Granville. Miss Clayton, in the election, reportedly received less votes than Miss Cooper.

10 College Students In Accra, Ghana

WASHINGTON, D. C. - The first group of Federal City College students to participate in the Experiment in International Living is now living and studying in Accra, the capital city of Ghana--the West African nation and first former colony in Black Africa to become independent.

The ten students and their faculty advisor, Professor Ali Bakri, flew from New York City on Sept. 15. They then spent two days in Dakar, Senegal; three days in Monrovia, Liberia; one day in Abidjan, Ivory Coast; arriving in Accra on Sept. 22.

The Gwendolyn and Morris Cafritz Foundation donated $12,000 toward the $20,000 cost of their trip. Federal City College donated $4,000 and the remainder came from the Washington Council on the Experiment in International Living and from funds raised by the students. The Experiment, the oldest and largest non-profit educational exchange program in the world, enables young Americans to live in and learn from, cultures differing from theirs.

Roger S. Ralph, President of the Washington Council, recently wrote Dr. Harland L. Randolph, President of the College: "... I can say without any reservation that this group represents one of the most outstanding that has ever gone overseas on an Experiment program. Their individual enthusiasm, intellectual curiosity and concern for each other could well be a model for many of our other groups..."

The group, comprised of aspiring teachers, painters, writers and photographers--is studying at the University of Ghana in Accra. Each student receives 15 credit hours for the trip, and pursues an independent study program approved by his or her College academic advisor.

City's Wilbert M. Sanders Featured In Magazine Here

Wilbert Morris Sanders, Kilt Place, a former employee of The CAROLINIAN in the circulation and advertising departments, is the subject of an article in the latest edition of the Wachovians, a bi-quarterly journal published by the Raleigh office of Wachovia Bank.

Sanders is employed at the Wachovia Bank as a mail clerk, registered mails. "We handle all correspondence. It's a basic fact, the Bank couldn't function with mail and memos," he stated about his job.

As a part-time writer, Sanders has had his articles on human relations printed in local papers and other publications.

"I believe that the majority is really in the minority and, in writing, I try to show this. People really are the same and want mostly the same things for their families and children," says Sanders.

Sanders and his wife, Inez, are the parents of four children, three girls and a boy. He is also a member of the First Baptist Church here in Raleigh.

The Religious News Service of the National Conference of Christians and Jews is the World's only interreligious news agency.

FOR SALE

Buick Wildcat. Completely equipped. Forced to sell. Make us an offer. Need the cash. Dial 828-1300.

Everything For...

BUILDING REMODELING REPAIRING

- LUMBER MILLWORK ATHEY'S PAINTS BUILDING MATERIALS RUSSWIN HARDWARE

At Our New Location on RALEIGH BELTLINE

CAROLINA BUILDERS CORP.

Between U. S. 1 and 64 Ph. 828-7471—Raleigh, N. C.

Principal Refuses To Crown Queen

CREEDMOOR - It has been brought to the attention of the N. C.-Va. Committee for Racial Justice that during this month Black students at South Granville High School in Creedmoor were refused the honor of having a black girl to become "Miss South Granville High" after she received a majority of the votes from the student body.

Miss Tarqueenia Rose Cooper, a black senior student, on Oct. 7, received a majority of votes from the integrated student body of South Granville High.

However, Carl T. Weaver, principal of South Granville High, allegedly told Miss Cooper that he could not crown a black girl queen because the white community of Creedmoor would cause trouble.

So the principal allegedly crowned Miss Norma Clayton, a white senior student, and Miss Cooper as co-queens of South Granville. Miss Clayton, in the election, reportedly received less votes than Miss Cooper.

10 College Students In Accra, Ghana

WASHINGTON, D. C. - The first group of Federal City College students to participate in the Experiment in International Living is now living and studying in Accra, the capital city of Ghana--the West African nation and first former colony in Black Africa to become independent.

The ten students and their faculty advisor, Professor Ali Bakri, flew from New York City on Sept. 15. They then spent two days in Dakar, Senegal;

three days in Monrovia, Liberia; one day in Abidjan, Ivory Coast; arriving in Accra on Sept. 22.

The Gwendolyn and Morris Cafritz Foundation donated $12,000 toward the $20,000 cost of their trip. Federal City College donated $4,000 and the remainder came from the Washington Council on the Experiment in International Living and from funds raised by the students. The Experiment, the oldest and largest non-profit educational exchange program in the world, enables young Americans to live in and learn from, cultures differing from theirs.

Roger S. Ralph, President of the Washington Council, recently wrote Dr. Harland L. Randolph, President of the College: "... I can say without any reservation that this group represents one of the most outstanding that has ever gone overseas on an Experiment program. Their individual enthusiasm, intellectual curiosity and concern for each other could well be a model for many of our other groups..."

The group, comprised of aspiring teachers, painters, writers and photographers--is studying at the University of Ghana in Accra. Each student receives 15 credit hours for the trip, and pursues an independent study program approved by his or her College academic advisor.

City's Wilbert M. Sanders Featured In Magazine Here

Wilbert Morris Sanders, Kilt Place, a former employee of The CAROLINIAN in the circulation and advertising departments, is the subject of an article in the latest edition of the Wachovians, a bi-quarterly journal published by the Raleigh office of Wachovia Bank.

Sanders is employed at the Wachovia Bank as a mail clerk, registered mails. "We handle all correspondence. It's a basic fact, the Bank couldn't function with mail and memos," he stated about his job.

As a part-time writer, Sanders has had his articles on human relations printed in local papers and other publications.

"I believe that the majority is really in the minority and, in writing, I try to show this. People really are the same and want mostly the same things for their families and children," says Sanders.

Sanders and his wife, Inez, are the parents of four children, three girls and a boy. He is also a member of the First Baptist Church here in Raleigh.

The Religious News Service of the National Conference of Christians and Jews is the World's only interreligious news agency.

FOR SALE

Buick Wildcat. Completely equipped. Forced to sell. Make us an offer. Need the cash. Dial 828-1300.

Everything For...

BUILDING REMODELING REPAIRING

- LUMBER MILLWORK ATHEY'S PAINTS BUILDING MATERIALS RUSSWIN HARDWARE

At Our New Location on RALEIGH BELTLINE

CAROLINA BUILDERS CORP.

Between U. S. 1 and 64 Ph. 828-7471—Raleigh, N. C.

Principal Refuses To Crown Queen

CREEDMOOR - It has been brought to the attention of the N. C.-Va. Committee for Racial Justice that during this month Black students at South Granville High School in Creedmoor were refused the honor of having a black girl to become "Miss South Granville High" after she received a majority of the votes from the student body.

Miss Tarqueenia Rose Cooper, a black senior student, on Oct. 7, received a majority of votes from the integrated student body of South Granville High.

However, Carl T. Weaver, principal of South Granville High, allegedly told Miss Cooper that he could not crown a black girl queen because the white community of Creedmoor would cause trouble.

So the principal allegedly crowned Miss Norma Clayton, a white senior student, and Miss Cooper as co-queens of South Granville. Miss Clayton, in the election, reportedly received less votes than Miss Cooper.

10 College Students In Accra, Ghana

WASHINGTON, D. C. - The first group of Federal City College students to participate in the Experiment in International Living is now living and studying in Accra, the capital city of Ghana--the West African nation and first former colony in Black Africa to become independent.

The ten students and their faculty advisor, Professor Ali Bakri, flew from New York City on Sept. 15. They then spent two days in Dakar, Senegal;

three days in Monrovia, Liberia; one day in Abidjan, Ivory Coast; arriving in Accra on Sept. 22.

The Gwendolyn and Morris Cafritz Foundation donated $12,000 toward the $20,000 cost of their trip. Federal City College donated $4,000 and the remainder came from the Washington Council on the Experiment in International Living and from funds raised by the students. The Experiment, the oldest and largest non-profit educational exchange program in the world, enables young Americans to live in and learn from, cultures differing from theirs.

Roger S. Ralph, President of the Washington Council, recently wrote Dr. Harland L. Randolph, President of the College: "... I can say without any reservation that this group represents one of the most outstanding that has ever gone overseas on an Experiment program. Their individual enthusiasm, intellectual curiosity and concern for each other could well be a model for many of our other groups..."

The group, comprised of aspiring teachers, painters, writers and photographers--is studying at the University of Ghana in Accra. Each student receives 15 credit hours for the trip, and pursues an independent study program approved by his or her College academic advisor.

City's Wilbert M. Sanders Featured In Magazine Here

Wilbert Morris Sanders, Kilt Place, a former employee of The CAROLINIAN in the circulation and advertising departments, is the subject of an article in the latest edition of the Wachovians, a bi-quarterly journal published by the Raleigh office of Wachovia Bank.

Sanders is employed at the Wachovia Bank as a mail clerk, registered mails. "We handle all correspondence. It's a basic fact, the Bank couldn't function with mail and memos," he stated about his job.

As a part-time writer, Sanders has had his articles on human relations printed in local papers and other publications.

"I believe that the majority is really in the minority and, in writing, I try to show this. People really are the same and want mostly the same things for their families and children," says Sanders.

Sanders and his wife, Inez, are the parents of four children, three girls and a boy. He is also a member of the First Baptist Church here in Raleigh.

The Religious News Service of the National Conference of Christians and Jews is the World's only interreligious news agency.

FOR SALE

Buick Wildcat. Completely equipped. Forced to sell. Make us an offer. Need the cash. Dial 828-1300.

Everything For...

BUILDING REMODELING REPAIRING

- LUMBER MILLWORK ATHEY'S PAINTS BUILDING MATERIALS RUSSWIN HARDWARE

At Our New Location on RALEIGH BELTLINE

CAROLINA BUILDERS CORP.

Between U. S. 1 and 64 Ph. 828-7471—Raleigh, N. C.

TALKED OUT OF JUMPING—Los Angeles: A would-be leaper stands on a sign over the Santa Monica Freeway (left photo) where he threatened to jump for some 15 minutes. Police stopped traffic on the busy roadway while Ernest Palms' unidentified girl friend tried to talk (center) Palms out of jumping. She was successful (right photo) and helps him down. Police reported that the couple apparently had an argument before the incident. (UPI).

TALKED OUT OF JUMPING—Los Angeles: A would-be leaper stands on a sign over the Santa Monica Freeway (left photo) where he threatened to jump for some 15 minutes. Police stopped traffic on the busy roadway while Ernest Palms' unidentified girl friend tried to talk (center) Palms out of jumping. She was successful (right photo) and helps him down. Police reported that the couple apparently had an argument before the incident. (UPI).

TALKED OUT OF JUMPING—Los Angeles: A would-be leaper stands on a sign over the Santa Monica Freeway (left photo) where he threatened to jump for some 15 minutes. Police stopped traffic on the busy roadway while Ernest Palms' unidentified girl friend tried to talk (center) Palms out of jumping. She was successful (right photo) and helps him down. Police reported that the couple apparently had an argument before the incident. (UPI).

ALEXANDER BLDG., Suite 502—P. O. Box 292 T&T Associates, Inc. Distributors of Educational Material 133 Fayetteville St. Raleigh, N. C., 27601

Eyeglasses CONTACT LENSES HEARING AIDS Bring Your Prescription to Ridgeway's OPTICIANS, Inc. FIRST IN THE CAROLINAS RALEIGH—Professional Building RALEIGH—804 St. Marys St. Other Offices: GREENVILLE GREENSBORO—CHARLOTTE

KINGWOOD FOREST ALTMAN CIRCLE—Sanderford Road. Full basement homes. Three bedrooms with plus pile carpet throughout. Large kitchen with built-in Range and Oven. FHA and VA financing available. We pay closing cost. KEY Homes 828-0538

FACTS YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT FUNERALS.... Modern Facilities are your assurance of an establishment that is equipped to provide every service for the comfort and consolation of the bereaved. Our professional staff reflects the high standards and efficiency of our surroundings. HAYWOOD FUNERAL HOME, INC. Over a half century of service to Raleigh and community Raleigh Mutual Burial Association Low cost funeral insurance available 322 E. CABARRUS ST.—PHONE 832-2835