

NCSU HOMECOMING QUEEN-Miss Mary Porterfield was voted Homecoming Queen by the student body at N. C. State University. The 1970 "Miss Wolfpack" is a sophomore majoring in speech communications and is a native of Columbia, S. C.

N. C. State University Crowns First Black Homecoming Queen

Miss Mary Evelyn Porterfield, the first member of the black race to be chosen Homecoming Queen at North Carolina State University, was crowned at Carter Stadium here last Saturday afternoon before a sellout crowd of students, faculty, alumni and friends.

Official Of HEW To Be Heard At Shaw U.

Dr. Leonard H. O. Spearman, newly-appointed Director of Student Special Services, Department of Education, U.S. Office of Health, Education and Welfare, will deliver the address at Shaw University's 106th Founder's Day Convocation on Friday, Nov. 20, at 11 a.m. at the Raleigh Memorial Auditorium.

Dr. Spearman earned his Ph. D. in Educational Psychology from the University of Michigan. In 1964, he was awarded a National Science Foundation Post Doctoral Fellowship for study in Contemporary Psychology at Beloit College.

This past spring, Spearman (See OFFICIAL OF P. 2)

DR. L. H. O. SPEARMAN

City Church Sets 103rd Anniversary

BY W. A. "PETE" WILDER
St. Matthew AME Church, 805 E. Davie St., celebrates its 103rd Anniversary, Sunday, Nov. 15, with its youthful and dynamic minister, the Rev. D. L. Morrison as the featured speaker. It also represents the start of a $50,000 drive for improvement and beautification of the local church plant.

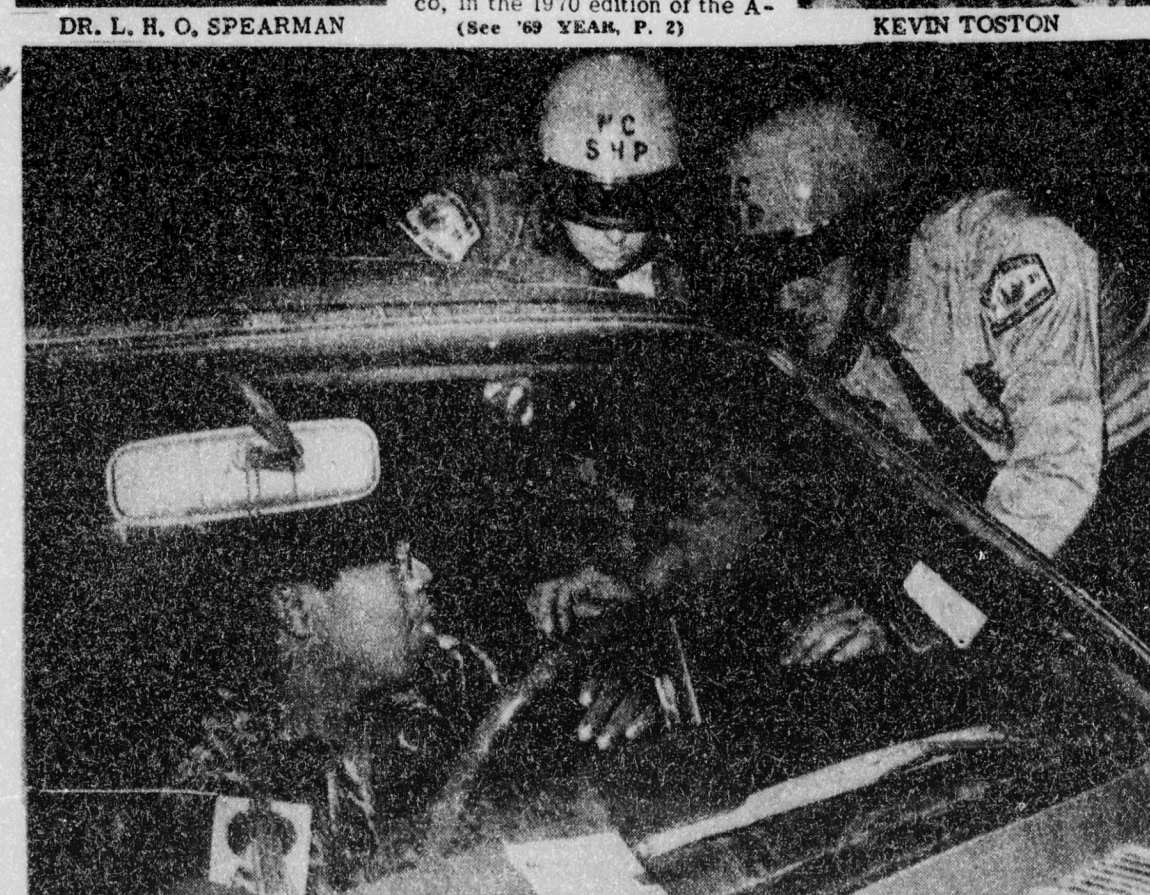

According to Rev. Morrison, "This will be an all out effort to raise funds that are needed to help her active in the community. Although the cameraman has been able to bring her live picture wise, she is very much "DEAD" in the area of construction. Time has caused her ceiling to drop, swelling the walls and testing her very foundation." Because of her location we have become cognizant of the fact that many have overlooked St. Matthew. The black man has a long way to go with his unity drive. We have taken white man's segregation and placed it within our own race. When God comes back for a church, I hope He will not overlook us, simply because of (See CITY CHURCH, P. 2)

Draft Bds. Hit By Lawyer

WASHINGTON, D. C. - People not represent on draft boards should not have to obey orders of such boards.

This is the import of a brief filed in the U. S. Supreme Court on Nov. 10 in the case of Walter Collins, a black draft resister from New Orleans. Collins is under a five-year sentence for refusing to be drafted because his board had no black members and the board chairman didn't even live in the county.

His brief was filed by Robert A. Sedler, law professor at the University of Kentucky, in response to statements to the (See DRAFT BDS., P. 2)

CONFRONTATION IN HENDERSON-Henderson: North Carolina Highway Patrolman question a man that was retained at a roadblock after curfew Nov. 7. Local police assisted by state troopers and National Guardsmen maintained quiet after an outbreak of disorder Nov. 6 night. Meanwhile city officials work in resolving the differences revolving around a segregated school. (UPI)

'69 Year Of Pause: Official

NEW YORK-The year 1969 was the "Year of the Pause," not the year of the revolutions, writes Earl Raab, executive director, Jewish Community Relations Council of San Francisco, in the 1970 edition of the A- (See '69 YEAR, P. 2)

KEVIN TOSTON

Henderson Schools Target

HENDERSON - More than 400 blacks in this city met at a community Baptist church Sunday to set the stage for a school and business boycott after weekend racial violence brought arson and sniper fire in (See HENDERSON, P. 2)

Heroin Is Obtained At Uncle's

DETROIT-The chief of the homicide bureau of this city ruled this week that five-year-old Kevin Toston died of a (See FATAL HEROIN, P. 2)

SHOW OF COMPASSION-Henderson: A North Carolina Highway Patrolman in a riot helmet carries a sleeping youngster, who was an occupant of a car stopped for curfew violation in Henderson, scene of disorder Nov. 6 night. The driver of the vehicle was booked Nov. 7 for driving under the influence of alcohol. Officers had to turn this child and three others from the same car over to a social worker for the evening. (UPI)

Mrs. Daisy L. Yancey Mother Of 3 Medics Succumbs In Atlanta

ATLANTA, Ga. - A mother who so loved her children that, through her very influence, three of them became medical doctors in this city, and her only daughter became a homemaker, majoring in college in home economics, died on Wednesday, November 4, at the age of 89, at Emory University Hospital after a short illness. Mrs. Daisy L. Yancey was given final rites at the Friendship Baptist Church here at 1 p.m. Saturday, November 7. The widow of A. H. Yancey, who passed in March of 1969 (See MRS. YANCEY, P. 2)

Banquet Planned By CADA

The Annual CADA Awards Banquet will be held Tuesday, November 17, at 7:00 p.m. It will be held in the Meredith College Cafeteria. Advanced reservations for meals must be made. Dr. E. Walton Jones, Acting Administrative Dean, University Extension, will be the principal speaker. There will also be color slides to show some of the achievements of the winning communities. We have an outstanding CRD Program in Wake County and expect to have CADA winners. Please contact our office, 755-6100, by Friday, November 13, if you would like to be (See CADA SETS, P. 2)

In Henderson

Business Boycott Is Slated

☆☆☆☆

☆☆☆☆

☆☆☆☆

☆☆☆☆

☆☆☆☆

Rep. William L. Dawson

'Dean' Of Black Congressmen Dies

THE CAROLINIAN

North Carolina's Leading Weekly

VOL. 30, NO. 2

RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1970

SINGLE COPY 15c

Talk Under Street Light After 4 Black Churches Shun Meet

Churches Shun Meet

☆☆☆☆

☆☆☆☆

☆☆☆☆

☆☆☆☆

No Charges Filed After Boy, 5,

Swallows Fatal Dope

Henderson Schools Target

HENDERSON - More than 400 blacks in this city met at a community Baptist church Sunday to set the stage for a school and business boycott after weekend racial violence brought arson and sniper fire in (See HENDERSON, P. 2)

Heroin Is Obtained At Uncle's

DETROIT-The chief of the homicide bureau of this city ruled this week that five-year-old Kevin Toston died of a (See FATAL HEROIN, P. 2)

SHOW OF COMPASSION-Henderson: A North Carolina Highway Patrolman in a riot helmet carries a sleeping youngster, who was an occupant of a car stopped for curfew violation in Henderson, scene of disorder Nov. 6 night. The driver of the vehicle was booked Nov. 7 for driving under the influence of alcohol. Officers had to turn this child and three others from the same car over to a social worker for the evening. (UPI)

Mrs. Daisy L. Yancey Mother Of 3 Medics Succumbs In Atlanta

ATLANTA, Ga. - A mother who so loved her children that, through her very influence, three of them became medical doctors in this city, and her only daughter became a homemaker, majoring in college in home economics, died on Wednesday, November 4, at the age of 89, at Emory University Hospital after a short illness. Mrs. Daisy L. Yancey was given final rites at the Friendship Baptist Church here at 1 p.m. Saturday, November 7. The widow of A. H. Yancey, who passed in March of 1969 (See MRS. YANCEY, P. 2)

Banquet Planned By CADA

The Annual CADA Awards Banquet will be held Tuesday, November 17, at 7:00 p.m. It will be held in the Meredith College Cafeteria. Advanced reservations for meals must be made. Dr. E. Walton Jones, Acting Administrative Dean, University Extension, will be the principal speaker. There will also be color slides to show some of the achievements of the winning communities. We have an outstanding CRD Program in Wake County and expect to have CADA winners. Please contact our office, 755-6100, by Friday, November 13, if you would like to be (See CADA SETS, P. 2)

Elm City Group Is Shunned

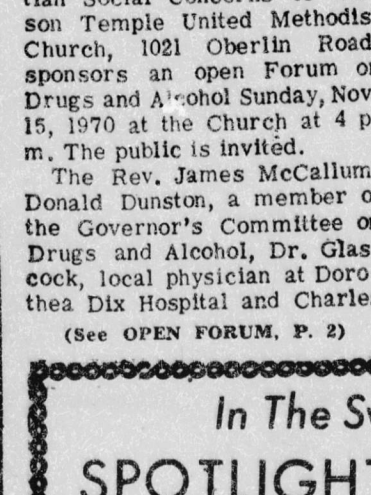

ELM CITY - The Elm City Black Youth Protest Committee was forced to conduct its organizational meeting last Friday night for setting up plans for its protest march on a street light on a street corner because four of the five local black churches in the city denied the youth the use of their churches for the meeting. Charles A. McLean, Field (See ELM CITY, P. 2)

Changes Are Few During Zion Meet

LAURINBURG - With the reading of appointments at the close of the 90th annual session of the Central North Carolina Conference, AME Zion Church, at Franklin Chapel Church, Sunday, Nov. 8, by Bishop W. A. Stewart, it was noted that very few changes were made in pastoral appointments. All of the presiding elders were returned; Raleigh District, E. H. Beebee, Durham District, J. A. Brown; Fayetteville District, S. P. Rawlings, Laurinburg District, S. J. Farrar and Sanford District, C. V. (See ZION MEET, P. 2)

Forum Here Sun.

The Commission on Christian Social Concerns of Wilston Temple United Methodist Church, 1021 Oberlin Road, sponsors an open Forum on Drugs and Alcohol Sunday, Nov. 15, 1970 at the Church at 4 p.m. The public is invited. The Rev. James McCallum, Donald Dunston, a member of the Governor's Committee on Drugs and Alcohol, Dr. Glascock, local physician at Dorothea Dix Hospital and Charles (See OPEN FORUM, P. 2)

MRS. DAISY L. YANCEY

Delivering the eulogy was Dr. Benjamin Elijah Mays, president-emeritus of Morehouse College, who began his comments with the words of Sir Thomas Grey in his "Elegy (See MRS. YANCEY, P. 2)

'A Legend In His Own Time'

CHICAGO-"The King is Dead" has never resounded with as much pathos as they did Monday, when there were echoes through the Southside that Congressman William "Bill" Dawson had died in his sleep of pneumonia at the Veterans Research Hospital. After having run against the then, Congressman Arthur Mitchell, as a Republican, in (See REP. DAWSON, P. 2)

REP. DAWSON

AMONG "TEN MOST OUTSTANDING" - Mrs. Gwendolyn Hilliard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alton C. Mathew and wife of Sylvester Hilliard, Jr. has been chosen one of the Ten Most Outstanding Seniors at Meredith College here. She will graduate in May, 1971 and is presently doing her student teaching at N. B. Broughton Senior High School, Raleigh.

CRIME BEAT

From Raleigh's Official Police Files

HIT IN FACE
Miss Rubie Mae McDougal, 1302 Branch Street (Walnut Terrace), told Officer G. L. Lloyd at 11:15 p.m. last Saturday, that Neal McLarther, 509 Rose Garden Street (off W. Cabarus, south of S. Saunders), came into her house and hit her in the face. The woman said she fell on a table and was hurt in "my ribs." Miss McDougal said she would sign an assault warrant against Mr. McLarther. (See CRIME BEAT, P. 3)

In The Sweepstakes
SPOTLIGHT THIS WEEK
SMITH'S SHOE SHOP
No ifs at Smith's... Just Quality with Economy
See SWEEPSTAKES Ads
(See Numbers, P. 10)
Sweepstakes Merchandise Growing Every Week
More and more merchandise is available at the businesses of merchants taking part in The CAROLINIAN'S Revised Sweepstakes Promotion. You will be a lucky winner this time. Valuable Sweepstakes numbers this week are as follows: (See SWEEPSTAKES, P. 2)