We, the black community of Raleigh, welcome this opportunity to share with you our knowledge of the iniquites, that are continuously being directed upon the black man in the field of education by the Raleigh Public School System and its diministration.

"There is no doubt in our mind that the "due process of the law" is hurting the black child's education in Raleigh Whereas on the other hand, the "due process of the law" is aiding the Raleigh School Board and its administration in maintaining and degrading the educational quality throughout the black community. "Before going into Raleigh, we will like to know where has the federal government been for 16 years? Raleigh is small, but not that small. "Then we come to the ques-
