

, Officer Sees Man Fleeing

Leon Harris, Jr., 27, 1719 Pender Street, told Officer Norman Artis at 12:18 p.m. last Sunday, that he and Billy Marsh

Two Are Listed 'Serious''

A distraught Raleigh housewife and mother wrote a note, telling po- Lation, had stopovers in Elizalice officials that her husband did not shoot either her or their 3year-old daughter, both sembled in front of Memorial of whom are now listed Auditorium. There, members in serious condition at Wake Memorial Hospi- and Fitch concerning the march tal. "It happened because of family affairs," according to Raleigh Detective Russell B. Liles, who said the building at approximately the mother admitted shooting both herself and the young daughter. They were still listed in "serious" condition as late as Wednesday of this week by authorities get out of the street, Fitch along at the hospital. Mrs. Elizabeth Jordan, 23, J-17 Washington Terrace, and her daughter, whose name was win. not leased to the press, were admitted to the hospital in serious condition after suffering pistol wounds in their stomachs. Mrs Jordan apparently had enough strength left to tele-3 Days Here phone police headquarters for help, because she was found by an officer. According to reports made by Detective K. N. Privette, the weapon used by the woman was Goals of the Seventies," the undergraduate affiliates of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity convera .38 calibre pistol. Both Mrs. Jordan and ner ged on Raleigh last Friday, Saturday and Sunday for a threechild underwent surgery Saturday night upon admittance, day convention with Shaw University and Sir Walter Hotel according to a spokesman at as convention sites. Wake Memorial. Mrs Jordan's husband is beregistration in the student unlived to be Willie Jordan of the Washington Terrace address ion building of Shaw University followed by a regional board No charges had been made as meeting in the student council The CAROLINIAN went to press chamber of the student union Wednesday. Investigation is continuing, however. building at Shaw. To climax the organizer Golden Frinks makes point April 2 to a group of Wilmington blacks on the steps of the state legislative building

Demands Given To Officials

BY EARL MASON More than 250 black marchers brought their "March against Repression'' to the steps of the North Carolina Legislature Building Friday afternoon, while some of the leaders went inside to confer with leaders of the General Assembly.

The arrival of the marchers in Raleigh ended a four-day trek for the marchers, who started out in Wilmington last Tuesday on their way to the state's capital city. The marchers, led by Golden Frinks, field secretary SCLC and Milton Fitch, ate coordinator of the organibethtown on Tuesday night, Clinton on Wednesday and Smithfield Thursday.

FITCH READS BLACKS' DEMANDS - Lt. Gov. Pat Taylor (C) and House Speaker Phil Godwin, right listen on April 2 as Milton Fitch of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference reads a list of demands which included more black school principals, a stand against the Vietnam war and abolition of the death penalty. The legislative leaders met with Fitch after about 100 Wilmington blacks paraded through downtown Raleigh to the Legislative Building. (UPI).

Eighteen File For Council; Carson, Others State Reasons

A total of 18 candidates have noon. Included among the hopefiled for the Raleigh City Council April 20 primary election Edward Carson and Clarence and the May 4 runoff election Lightner. Presently, Lightas the books closed Tuesday at ner'is the only black member fuls are two black candidates, of the seven - man governing board for the city of Raleigh. The last candidates to file, beating the deadline by a short notice were Edward Cannon and Don Ellington. John P. Speights paid his filing dues Monday. Carson, who Friday became the second black candidate to file for the council, outlined a seven-point program. The 32year president of the Raleigh Citizens Association voiced his opinion on the following points: city dump or land-fill operations, the decrease in the proposed water bill hike, the hiring of a heating and air-conditioning inspector, the sewage problem, attacking the social

FRINKS ADVISES MARCHERS IN RALEIGH - Civil rights

after they staged a "march against repression" here. Blacks are holding "liberation" flag. (UPI).

Library Suffaing 3. pt.

Bunch, 25. 115 N. Fisher Street, got into a "fuss" about something that happened Saturday night. He said young Bunch "got after me with a gun and Harris started to leave the area. The shooting occurred in the southeast section of Raleigh in an area known as Lincoln Park.

At this time, Moses Bunch, 52, believed to be the father of Billy Bunch, "got after Jesse "Skip" Malloy, 20, 1720 Pender St., and Malloy grabbed the gun being held by Billy Bunch. started shooting and struck Moses Bunch on the leg and In the back. The elder Bunch suffered a puncture wound in the upper back and one in the left legi

(See SEES MAN. P. 2)

MalMoore Named Full Protessor

CARBONDALE, Ill. - Malvin E. Moore, Jr., Arkansas native who has been associated with colleges in Arkansas, North (See MAL MOOKE, P. 2)

ITA

URGES COMPLETE WITHDRAWAL OF U.S. TROOPS -New York: The Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, president of the Monday, urged complete U. S. troop withdrawal from the Vietnam War. Abernathy also made pleas for other improvements, including feeding the poor of the nation, rather than spending money to send men to the moon (UPI)

Memorial Services Held For Dr. Tross, Publisher

CHARLOTTE - A very impressive, yet unique memorial service, was held for the late Dr. J. S. Nathaniel Tross, at Weeping Willow AME Zion Church at 3 p.m. Sunday, April

The well-known minister, preacher, statesman and newspaper publisher died in a local hospital March 30, after a short illness. According to his wishes, his body was cremated. After brief expressions from clergymen, laymen and city officials, the ashes were strewn around Weeping Willow Church, which he recently rebuilt and was the pastor of at the time of his death. Dr. Tross' philosophy toward (See Di TROSS. P. 2)

NORTH CAROLINIANS IN "WELFARE HOTEL" - New York: Mrs. Ethel Smith (seated 1,) and her daughter, Mrs. Ruth Smith, (standing, r) and children sit in a "welfare hotel" for which New York City pays $446.40 a week. Ruth and her four children arrived here from Sanford, N. 'C. March 6, moved in with her her mother and five children, and applied for welfare. "They told me I wasn't eligible because I was on North Carolina welfare, Mrs. Smith said. "But I haven't got any money from them in a month." Mrs. Smith said she moved to New York "because my mama was sick and needed me to take care of her." (UPD).

(See MOM SHOOTS, P. 2)

'Bi-Racial System Is Crumbling'

NEW ORLEANS, La. - The South is experiencing a farreaching Renaissance in which the biracial system has already begun to crumble, according to a social scientist of national repute.

" "New wines' of enlightment, prosperity, true Americanism and progress are bursting the "old bottles" of racial hate, bigotry and sectionalism," Dr Daniel C. Thomp professor and chairman, son, professor and character, Division of Social Sciences, Dillard University, (New Orleans), said Thursday night at Mississippi State University. Dr. Thompson was on the uni-(See BI-RACIAL, P. 2)

After arriving in Raleigh around 11 a.m., the marchers asof the Raleigh police department went over plans with Frinks through town to the legislature building. The group left the auditorium shortly after 10'clock and headed through town for the legislature building. Upon ariving at 1:30, the marchers were informed that they could not go on the grounds because that was state property but they could remain on the sidewalks because it was city property While marchers divided to disperse themselves along the sidewalks and at the same time with 11 members of the aggregation went inside to confer with Lt. Governor Pat Taylor and Speaker of the House, Phil God-(See MARCHERS, P. 2)

Undergraduate Sigmas Spend

With a theme of "Relevance:

The convention opened with

With Sweepstakes number,

08794, Mrs Esther Snipes, 1312

Pender Street, won $25 in merchandise from Narron Brothers

Upholstery Depart, 225 S. Wil-

At Regional Meeting Zetas' Grand Basileus Is Heard In Raleigh

The Eastern Regional meeting of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. convened at the Sir Walter Hotel in Raleigh April 3 and 4. The Saturday luncheon was well attended, at which time fellow Greeks welcomed the visiting sorors to Raleigh.

Official welcome to the city was extended by Councilman Clarence E. Lightner. Zetas' Grand Basileus, Soror Isabel M. Herson of Southern University, Baton Rouge, La. was the featured speaker. She most vividly developed the theme of the Eastern Region, "Relevance To Contemporary Issues - A Focus Toward Total Concern

For Human Beings."

MRS, ISABEL M. HERSON

mington Street last week. Since

Narron Brothers already had $25 worth of trade waiting for a lucky winner, Mrs. Snipes will

(See SWEEPSTAKES, P. 2)

anterestation and a second and a second and a second second second second second second second second second s

In The Sweepstakes

SPOTLIGHT THIS WEEK

For Quality Merchandise At Reasonable Cost

In Sweepstakes

We Have A Winner!

(See NUMBERS, P. 12)

Other state and national officers seated at the speaker's table were First Anti-Basileus Ruth M. Gore, Greensboro; third Anti-Basileus, Janice G. Kissner, Philadelphia, Pa., the

(See ZETA'S GRAND, P. 2)

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. - The national Commission on Urban Affairs of the American Jewish Congress warned this week that rising crime rates were "exacerbating racial tensions" and I (See WARNING, P. 4)

EDITOR'S NOTE: This column or feature is produced in the pub-ic interest with an aim towards eliminating its contents. Numer-ous individuals have requested that they be given the considera-tion of overlooking their listing on the police blotter. This we would like to do. However, it is not our position to be judge or lu-ry. We merely publish the facts as we find them reported by the arresting officers. To keep out of The Crime Beat Columns, merely police officer in reporting his indings while on duty. So sim-ply keep off the "Blotter" and you won't be in The Crime Beat. EDITOR'S NOTE: This column

Miss Ida Mae Smith, 30, 111 N. Carver Street, told Officer C. Troublefield at 11:40 p.m. Saturday, that while she was at the home of Mrs. Cora Mae Morehead, 32, 915 Oakwood Avenue, she was cut with a knife. Miss Smith stated that an argument started over her boyfriend (unnamed). The complainant was allowed to talk to Mrs. Morehead (apparently after the officer arrived on the scene). However: Mrs. Morehead became "indifferent" and began cutting Miss Smith on her left hand. "Miss Smith was not given a warrant because she was intoxicated," the officer's report ended. Miss Smith sulfered cuts of the hand. She was treated and released at Wake Memorial Hospital. (See CRIME BEAT. P. 3) problems of Raleigh, getting maximum dollar mileage for the taxpayers' money and expressing the people's voices in the city council.

Speights, 26, of 420 Bloomsbury Park Drive, favors "bet-ter and cheaper"-bus service, cost medical and dental care and unemployment insurances for city government workers. Cannon, 66, of 814 Cowper Drive, is the retired secretary of the N. C. State Bar, the N. C. Bar Association and the N. C. Board of Law Examiners. He criticizes the present city annexation policies and the presence of "a little bit too much of the development and real estate interests" on the council.

Elligton, 67, is a retired aud-itor with the State Revenue Department and now operates a mobile sound system often seen in local parades. He said he (See COUNCIL. P.2 )

"SATCHMO" IMPROVING -New York: Doctors watching the condition of Jazz great Louis "Satchmo" Armstrong, see a "significant improvement" in his battle with heart trouble, was learned April 4. Arm-12 strong was first taken to the hospital March 15. (UPI).