

Cumbo Family Reunion Held In City

The family of Mrs. Kittie Glover Cumbo and the late Benjamin F. Cumbo held their annual family reunion at the Hilton Inn, April 9, 10, 11, 1971.

All six children and their families were present to honor their mother.

Mrs. Cumbo, a retired public school teacher, reared her family in Raleigh, after the death of her husband, a businessman.

Reunion activities began with dinner on Friday evening, followed by a "Chit-Chat" session. On Saturday, the family enjoyed sight-seeing tours, shopping sprees and "Fun Night". Mrs. Bernice Cumbo Coles thrilled the family and friends with her "1971 Collection of original poems and songs" depicting childhood memories, especially her rendition of "She Did It Her Way", dedicated to Mrs. Cumbo.

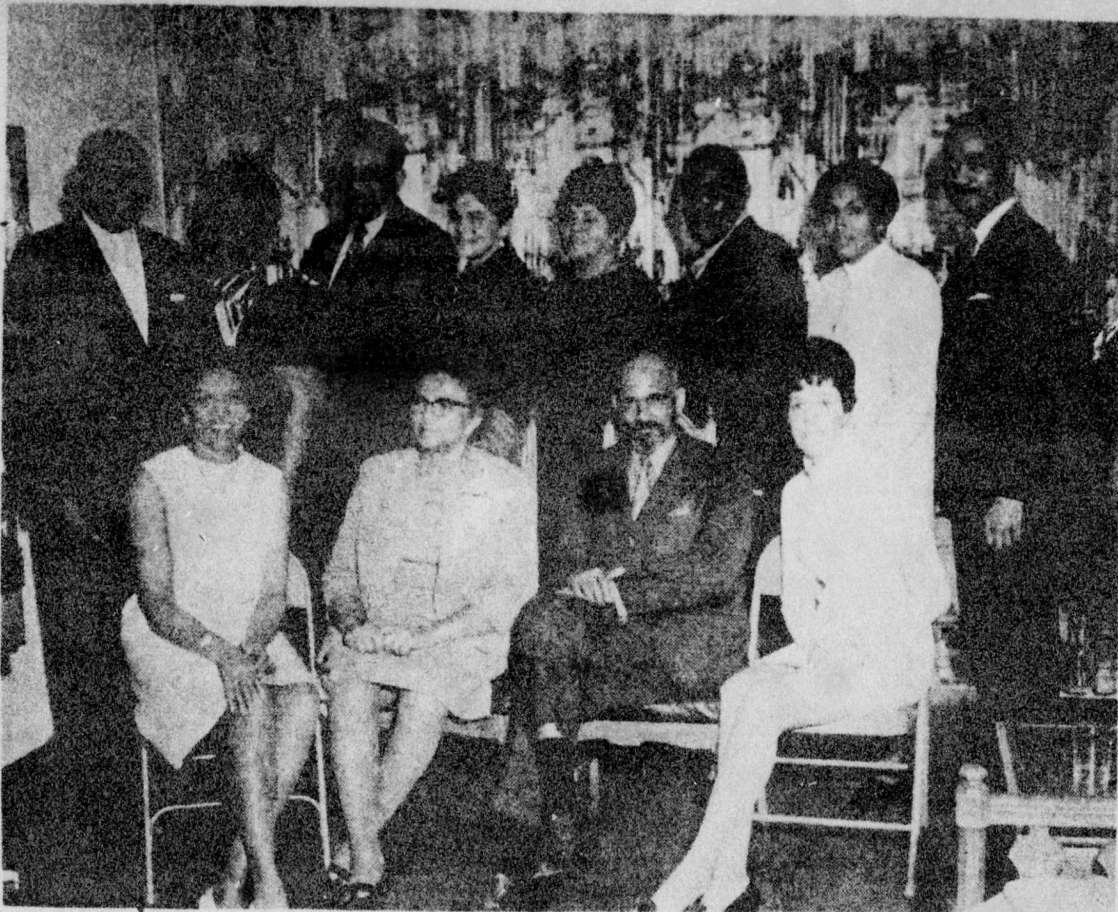

On Easter Sunday, the family and friends worshipped at First Baptist Church of which Dr. Charles Ward is pastor. John D. Lennon made a cash presentation from the family in honor of Mrs. Cumbo to the Church's building fund. After church, Mrs. Cumbo's children honored her with a birthday dinner in the Ambassador Room of the Hilton Inn. Joining the family as guests were Dr. Charles Ward, Mrs. Nora Sanders, Mrs. A. A. Cooke, Miss Joyce Cooke and Mrs. Maria Curtiss.

Mrs. Thernotta Curtis delighted the group with remarks and greetings to Mrs. Cumbo and Mrs. Lennon, whose birthday was Easter Monday. The remainder of the evening was spent sharing fond memories.

Attending the festivities were Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Wilson, Norfolk, Virginia; Mrs. Thernotta Curtis, Raleigh, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Cumbo, Jr., Upper Marlboro, Maryland, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie White, Gary, Indiana; Mr. and Mrs. John D. Lennon, Durham;

Talented Youth Presented By The Links Of Raleigh

The audience was spellbound by the virtuosity of the thirteen to nineteen year old youths who were presented by the Raleigh Chapter of Links, Inc., in cooperation with the Advisory Committee of the Freedom and Fine Arts Council.

The program was varied and each presentation well executed that it was of necessity non-competitive. Each entrant received a small award which was presented by the president, Mrs. Mary Flagg.

Mrs. Nora Lockhart, chairman and master of ceremonies outlined the purpose of the exhibition which included vocal, piano, violin and trumpet solos a dramatic comedy act, contortiere fashions, compositions, painting and string knot art.

The aim of the program is to discover talented youth and encourage further development of their skills.

Mrs. Louise Nelson and her committee were hostesses at
