Raleigh Commencement Speakers

LashWar, Stress Helping

农农农农

New Head Basketball Coach

St. Aug.'s Heartley Maps Plans E CAROLINIAN

North Carolina's Leading Weekly

RALEIGH, N. C., MAY 15, 1971

SINGLE COPY 15c

Two Raleigh

Women Try Suicides

公公公公

WOL. 30, NO. 28

North Carolina City Councils Choose

TwoBlack Vice Mayors

Colleges In City

"Despite the crucial a North Carolina beauty, Thurman J. Smith, Imperial Deputy, symjetry, with knees and anthis society today -- the this society today -- the Southeast Asia war, air J. H. Honeyblue, contest com- pollution, the major mittee chairman, is calling up- domestic crisis in this country continues to be race relations," said Dr. Vernon Jordan, Executive Director, United Negro College Fund, New York, N. Y., as he delivered the 104th Commencement address Saint Augustine's

> College, May 9. ne said that historically, this nation's response to the plight of its black citizens has been

(See 2 SPEAKERS, P. 2)

FAYETTEVILLE - Eleven members of the 1921 graduating class of then State Norm-(See THIS IS, P. 2)

MISS AILEY M. YOUNG

Miss Young Elected To Commission

WAKE FOREST - FOR the first time in its history, voters of Wake Forest have elected a Negro to its Board of Town Commissioners. May 4th, 1971. She is Miss Ailey M. Young, daughter of the late Allen L. Young and a native of Wake Forest.

Miss Young is a retired school teacher, member of the Spring Street United Presbyterian Church, First vicechairman of the Wake Forest Démocratic Precinct Committee and a member of the Wake Forest Community Coun-

She was urged to join the field of eight (8) others seeking election to one of the three seats open on the town Board, and finally decided to run in-(See MISS YOUNG, P. 2)

Citations Are Received By Mrs. S. Perry

BY MRS: MINNIE D. TURNER

Mrs. Susie Vick Perry recently received two distinguished awards for meritorious services in two different areas. For outstanding achievement for the North Carolina Tubercular and Respiratory Disease Association, Mrs. Perry was awarded the Distinguished Service Award at the annual meeting of the association, held in the John Yancy Hotel at Atlantic Beach, North Carolina. For this outstanding honor, Mrs. Perry had given volunteer service in Wake County Association, recently merged into the Research Triangle, for a period of 25 years.

In another area of achieve-(See MRS. PERRY, P. 2)

Both Are Discovered In Time

Two young Raleigh women attempted to take their own lives here last week, according to information or the general offense reports at the Raleigh Police Department. One was 19, the other 17.

In the latest case, which occurred at 4:37 p.m. Monday, Miss Brenda Joyce Tucker, 19, 217 Cooke Street, according to her mother, Mrs. Violet Tucker, went into the bathroom of the house, locked the door and drank a pint of Easy Monday starch, then a bottle of Griffin shoe polish.

Miss Tucker was treated at Wake Memorial Hospital,

(See TWO WOMEN, P. 2) Chapel Hill, Fayetteville Get Veeps

Chapel Hill and Fayetteville named blacks mayor pro tem this week and a third black led the ticket in Charlotte in the race for city council the state's largest city, and is the leading candidate to be named to the assistant mayor post.

R. D. Smith was elected mayor Howard Lee. Lee, who was elected to a second two-year term last week, was officially declared winner in the mayor race in the university town Monday night with a total of 2,813 votes.

In Fayetteville, Marion C. George Jr., was elected mayor pro tem of this city by the city council Monday night. George led the balloting the city council race last Tuesday rolling up a 100-vote margin over his nearest competitor. This was the first time in modern history that a black man has held such a post in this Cumberland County city.

Black incumbent Fred Alexander polled 17,093 votes last Friday to lead 14 contenders for a seven member city council in Charlotte. James Whittington, mayor pro-tem who had been leading the ballot for the last 10 years, finished second to Alexander in the voting with 16,681 votes. Alexander is expected to be named mayor pro tem at the Council's first meeting Monday night, Smith led the balloting in the alderman race in the Chapel Hill general election last week by polling 2,955 votes to be re-elegied to his seat on the governing board. As mayor

(See GET VEEPS; P. 2)

HARVEY HEARTLEY

Ex-Ligon Mentor In New Post

Harvey D. Heartley, newly-appointed head basketball coach and athletic director at St. Augustine's College, outlined the program he plans to institute at the college during an exclusive interview with the CAROLINIAN Tuesday.

With the naming of Heartley

editor's Note: This column or feature is produced in the public interest with an aim towards eliminating its contents. Numerous individuals have requested that they be given the consideration of overlooking their listing on the police blotter. This we would like to do. Rowever, it is not our position to be judge or lury. We merely publish the facts as we find them reported by the arresting officers. To keep out of the Crime Beat Columns, merely means not being registered by a posice officer in reporting his findings while on duty. So simply keep off the "Blotter" and you won't be in The Crime Beat. EDITOR'S NOTE: This column

TRESPASSER CAUGHT Cavus Andrew Byrd, security officer at St. Mary's College, 900 Hillsborough Street, told Officer D. W. Martin at 3:45 a.m. last Sunday, that he apprehended a subject near a construction on the college, campus. He also told the cop that he wished to sign a trespassing warrant against William Lee Cooper, 21, 764 Lun-ar Drive (Apollo Heights), He signed the warrant and Cooper was cited by the magistrate to appear in District Court on the rap on Monday, May 17, at 2

(See CRIMA BRAT, P. S)

ANNOUNCES INCREASE IN BLACK OFFICIALS AT RALEIGH TALKS - RALEIGH - John Edwards (L) Director of the N. C. Voter Education Project, announces 5/11 there has been a 400 per cent increase in the number of elected Black officials since 1968. With him are (L-R) Howard Lee, Chapel Hill mayor; Rep. Henry Frye, D-Guilford; and Joy Joseph Johnson,

During Mass Meeting

WITHHOLD TRANSFER SLIPS, RCA URGES

At the mass meeting held at 8 p.m. at the Hargett Street YWCA Monday, May 10, the Raleigh Citizen's Association decided to ask the parents of all children attending or planning to attend integrated schools not to return, now, their transfer slips, but to wait until after the second mass meeting on May 17.

REVIEW REAPPORTIONMENT PLANS - RICHMOND, VA .: Sen, Hunter B. Andrews, D-Newport News, (1) reviews reapportionment plans 5/11 with Justice Department representative during a meeting of the Senate Privileges & Elections Committee. The federal officials are Gerald Jones (c) and James

Rev. Sullivan Will Get Spingarn Medal

Leon H. Sullivan, spiritual leader, social activist and business pioneer, has been named to receive the 56th Spingarn Medal, Roy Wilkins, executive director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, announced here.

The coveted medal will be presented to the Philadelphia clergyman by Andrew Brimmer, a Governor of the Federal Reserve Board, at the 62nd NAACP Annual Convention in the Zion Baptist Church in Philadelphia, Dr. Sullivan, in cooperation with other clergymen, organized a selective buying drive in 1962. The campaign leveled racial barriers in 24 of the city's major firms. To train ghetto workers for the new job opportunities he founded the Opportunities industrialization Center, Last January he became the first black director of General Motors, the world's largest industrial cor-

Managing Editor (See SPINGARN, P. 2) In The Sweepstakes Honored At SPOTLIGHT THIS WEEK Alma Mater

CAPITAL TV CENTER

Where You Receive Quality, Plus Economy

(See NUMBERS, P. 10)

Sweepstakes

When more merchants begin to advertise on the Sweepstakes page the Sweepstakes Promotion is expected to be renewed in the very near future. Even though the promotion has been halted for the time being, we invite you to continue to patronize the fine businesses on that page.

Continue to read this column weekly to see when the promotion will start again. In the meantime, hold onto those lucky numbers because they will be valuable prizes at one of the participating sponsors when the promotion is re-

At this mass meeting scheduled at the same place, the Hargett Street YWCA at 8 p.m., a special committee, composed of parents and other citizens, will report the results of its findings to the association.

Then some definite form of action will be taken, regarding integration of Raleigh schools. It is urgent that more parents and citizens attend this impor-

North Carolina Desert Conference of Shrine Temple is going all out to find a winsome young lady. The 14 Temples have on an intensive search which they hope will meet the Hall, 8 p.m, Friday, May 28, of Gala Day Ceremonials will be studded with beauties, vying to go to Houston in August to compete with contestants from throughout America. The requirement begin by ruling out big guakey gals, with bad demeanor and gruffness. The winner must meet certain age limits, curves that begin at the

An unidentified youth, who allegedly shot and killed Larry

Short, Chavis Way, Chavis

Heights, last Thursday, remains at large. Short, a 15-year old registered Carnage

Junior High School student, was shot in the forehead last Thursday and died at Wake Memorial Hospital last Friday morn-

According to officer Raymond Devone, who answered the call last Thursday morning at about 10:30 a.m., there had been four Carnage stu-(See YOUTH, 15, 2. 2)

Charles R. Jones, managing editor of The CAROLINIAN and a 1953 graduate of Saint Augustine's College, with a major in English, was honored on Saturday, May 8, during the National Alumni Luncheon, held on the campus of the institu-

The newspaperman was cited in a plaque, background in white marble, framed in blue, (the college's colors) and with bronze lettering, reading:

"CHARLES R. JONES, Fearless Editor, Writer, Journalist. The Saint Augustine's College National Alumni Award," Peter G. Holden, president of the national body, of New York, personally presented Jones his plaque at The CAROLINIAN.

(See ALMA MATER, P. 2)

ing at 9:30.

Winston-Salem's

The opening program in Convention

Board on Friday night, two weeks ago. The meeting held Monday was a result of this It is believed that the purpose of Monday's meeting is to

State's Shriners To

Fete Beauty At Meet FAYETTEVILLE - In an ef- total yardstick, her breast must fort to cop national honors for be invitful and not extensive the second year in a row for protruding. Her hips must curve

Members of the Raleigh Citizens Association met with candidates for the Raleigh School discuss the results of the new

(See RCA URGES, P. 2)

the contour of her body. on every temple to select a contender and then support her to the hilt. Along with as near a perfect figure as possible the winner must come up with the largest number of patrons. The contest is being promoted by four of the major committees, in an effort to attract more nobles and well wishers to the 1971 ceremonies.

kles conforming perfectly with

This is a special push to play up the beauty contest. Miss Yvette Walker, Charlotte, representing Rameses Temple won the state contest and went later publication.

neck and flow down to her feeton to Boston, where she took they cannot be too big. national honors. She will be on Even though pulchritude is the hand to crown the winner and Youth, 15, to give her blessings of a retiring winner. The winner will reign over the Gala Day activities on May 29. Is Slain Even though the extra emphasis is being put on this year it will be the beginning of what the committee on arrangements will be the greatest ever held. Names and pictures of the contestants will be released for

COLLECTS HIS PRIZE PIG - BLOOMINGTON, MINN .: No its not my dog, it my pig replies Twins' Cesar Toyar after he collected his prize Iowa hog after the Minnesota Twins -Boston Red Sox game 5/11. The governor of Iowa, Robert D. Ray (not shown) offered the hog to the first Twins player to get a hit during the game, Tovar's lead off triple won him the hog. The Twins lost, 5 to 4. (UPI).