JESUS CHRIST AND WE
Christ has no hands, but our hands do His work today. He has no feet but our feet lead men in the way.

He has no tongue but our tongues to tell me how He died. He has no help but our help to bring them to His side.

HAPPY 4th OF JULY
BY ED HALL
On the 4th day of July in 1776, The Declaration of Independence was justified and fixed.

It's a great day to celebrate and we all look forward to; When families and friends get together.

And have big barbeque. Some folks go on picnics. Others go to the beach. Many go fishing in rivers. Some go fishing in creeks. People drive for hundreds of miles. Some take airplanes and fly. To be home with their families. On the 4th day of July. With all sincerity I bow my head.

And to the Lord I pray; That each and everyone will have a happy and safe 4th of July holiday.

Note: The pleasure is our once again to thank you along with the pleasure of writing for you.

Music Notes And Half Notes

BY MRS. E. M. M. KELLY

I must ask forgiveness of Miss E. May Debnam for late orchids to her. Here they are, along with my apology: You played the piano beautifully for the Vacation Bible School closing.

This was quite a task, calling for real ability and know-how which, of course, you have. Many orchids for a beautiful performance. Just keep on practicing and keep up your dedication.

Orchids to the pastor, the director, all the teachers, and other participants in the program - Vacation Bible School, First Baptist Church, Wilmington Street, The Rev. Dr. Ward, Raleigh, pastor.

The poet is the musician who does not "sing" (you might say) more poems:

REMEMBER AND FORGET
Remember the good, forget the bad.
Remember the man, forget the cad,
Remember your ups, forget your downs.
Remember folks smiles, forget their frowns;
Remember the calm, forget the storm.
Forget cold hearts and remember the warm,
Remember the shine, forget the shade,
Remember the debts of love unpaid.

GOSSIPY EARS

A gossip tongue is a dangerous thing.

If its owner is evil at heart he can give whom he chooses full many a sting.

That will woefully linger and smart.
But the gossip tongue would be balked in its plan
For causing heart-burnings and tears.

If it were not helped out by the misguided man
Who possesses to gossipy ears.
Oh, the gossipy ears are the ones that believe

The evil reports they are told
The sly, subtle tales which they gladly receive
Would tarnish the purest of gold.

The cruel "They say," which goes floating about
Like a hidden foe fostering tears,
Would lose all its force where firmly shut out

By the man with the gossipy ears.
When man with the gossipy tongue happens by
With his stories of evil and strife.

We ought just to look him right square in the eye
And ask him his mission in life.
We ought to refuse him a chance to retaliate

The false, idle rumor he hears
He ought to be locked up somewhere in a jail
With the man with the gossipy ears.

- Nixon Waterman
Keep up GOOD MUSIC.

The Bible reveals a quality of mercy that is gracious, slow to anger and endures forever. Such mercy is divine, and the essence of it is compassion. In compassion we see a quality of mercy that enable one to withhold punishment though justice permits it. This high quality of mercy manifested itself when Jesus, hanging on the cross, said, "Father, forgive them for they know not what they do." We seek Communion with God. Yet as sinners we get ourselves against Him. The chalice to God is blocked by our pride, selfishness and unkindly acts. These are daily stumbling blocks that cause us to be less than our best. Still in spite of our failures we receive God's compassion. God is measureless in His mercy, in His compassion. How compassionate are we? Do we withhold punishment even when justice permits it? We grasp the greatness of God by contemplating His wonderful creation. We comprehend His boundless love when we consider the Savior He sent us. We perceive His measureless mercies when we feel the forgiveness of our sins. Let us pray:

O Holy Father, take our lives and let them be consecrated wholly to Thee. Our finite minds cannot comprehend Thee fully, but through Thy Son, we have learned to know Thee as our Father and in that relationship we find our rest.

Open our hearts to Thy word of grace and to victory of the spirit, over all that may befall us in this world. In suffering, let us not despair, but trust in Thy love and in Thy power to deliver us from evil. Instill faith to banish doubt, build confidence to replace fear, offer comfort to those who are in sorrow. Give us more love we ask these things in His name, Amen.

GRACE AMEN ZION - Sunday School opened at 10 with the assistant supt., Mr. Wayland Dunn, in charge. The topic of the Sunday School lesson was "God Requires Personal Righteousness," taken from Micah.

The morning worship services began at 11 with Mr. Dunn giving the call to worship. Rev. L. P. Perry, pastor, read a portion of the 12th chapter of Hebrews.

For the consecration period, Rev. Perry prayed for the sick and shut-in. It was a very fervent prayer.

Rev. Perry's sermon was entitled, "Running the Christian Race." Some relevant statements for us to take into consideration from his sermon were these: We, as Christians, strive so hard because we are looking for a prize. We should be like the athlete, who takes off all weight before running and looks for a goal. We, as Christians, should look for a goal. The runner has to remove obstacles or things in his path before running. Sometimes, as Christians, things may get in our way, so then we'll have to pause and ask God for His help. God also wants us to be kind and good to people. God will lift you up if you lay aside every weight and sin which so easily beset you. The athlete disciplines himself. The Christian's life should be the most disciplined one. No Christian can expect to be carried to the sky on flowery beds of ease. You will face problems or trials and tribulations but God will make a way. The athlete must be patient; also the Christian. God will always give you strength. The athlete tries to run a good race, because he has an audience observing him. So it is with the Christian. God is observing him. In conclusion, Rev. Perry said, "Let us lay aside every weight and sin that easily beset us and let us run with patience the race that is set before us." The sermon was presented in a most spiritual and enhancing manner. The congregation was enlightened by it.

The choir sang beautifully and with enthusiasm, under the direction of Mr. William Vanderfrige. Some of the songs were "The Spacious Firmament On High," "O Master, Let Me Walk With Thee," "Home of the Soul," "Nothing Between," and "Love Lifted Me." The most beautiful song that they sang was the inspirational hymn "Wade In the Water." The soloist, Mrs. Edith Vandergriff, rendered a soul-stirring version of it.

Our thought for the week is "Those who want much are always much in need; happy the man to whom God gives with a sparing hand what is sufficient for his wants."

SEVENTH DAY ADVENTIST - "What A Friend We Have In Jesus" was our opening hymn as Bro. Ronald Wray our supt., led out in our Sabbath School program. The lesson subject was "Be Strong In The Lord." The opening text was from Eph. 6:11 "Put On the Whole Armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wills of the devil."

Miss Cynthia Clark of Jacksonville, Fla., told a wonderful mission story of her experiences as a student missionary in Thailand while a student at Oakwood College. Miss Clark is now doing her graduate work here at the State University.

Our speaker for the morning worship was Bro. L. Wray. Invocation was by Bro. Andrew Peltzer.

Special music was by the young adults choir, "Steal Away To Jesus," rendered with Mrs. Laura Anderson as director and Mr. Anderson at the piano.

Joy in the Morning was the topic of Bro. Wray's sermon. Not the joy we experience when we have something nice happen to us, but the joy when the saints of God shall rise. Truly that will be joy in the morning. To receive that joy it is necessary to repent and turn from wickedness and take Jesus as a personal Savior.
