CATAWBA PRESBYTERIANS ASSURED OF $300 GRAND TO FIGHT POVERTY

SALISBURY - The 84th Annual Meeting of the Catawba Synod, United Presbyterian Church, USA met with Trinity U.P. Church here June 23-25, with veteran pastor Dr. Julius P. Johnson and congregation serving as admirable hosts. During the Synod sessions, it was revealed that the national UPUSA church body has made an initial allocation of $300 thousand dollars to be used in the Synod of Catawba (Presbyteries of Cape Fear, Catawba, Southern Virginia and Yadkin) for such projects as housing, shopping centers, day care units and the promotion of business enterprise among black people.

This will include Eastern Carolina Economic Development Corporation, a Warren-ton-based group directed by Mrs. Eva Clayton et al with a project in operation at Battleboro, on the Nash-Edgecombe counties line.

The Rev. B. H. Baskerville, Wilmington pastor, was the retiring Moderator of the Synod. Elected to succeed him was the Rev. Julius T. Douglass, recently retired from St. James United Presbyterian Church USA, Greensboro, The Rev. Thomas A. Jenkins of Charlotte is Stated Clerk of the synod. Rev. H. T. McFadden, Lenoir, is treasurer. A report was heard from the Rev. James Hutten Costen, the "Omaha" lad, who "came east" to J. C. Smith University during the late 1940s and made good enough to - after nine years at Mt. Pisgah U. P. Church, Rocky Mount, N. C., where he led the congregation into building a new $150 thousand edifice - move on to Atlanta, Ga., and build a new church and congregation; and then become the head of the J. C. Smith Theological Seminary as it affiliated with International Theological Seminary.

Costen pointed out the gains (though small in numbers) being made in the recruitment programs of the predominantly black seminary which accepts students for religious training from various denominations, without pledging them to be Presbyterian workers.

The Rev. Robert L. Shirley and others posed the question "Whither the Black Church?" as the issues of church merger becomes more closely a reality in the near future. Some are asking if the likely merger of the integrated United Presbyterian Church USA and the Presbyterian Church U.S. along with other probable denominations will not greatly diminish the stature of the Negroes of the traditional UP-USA and they, in turn, become lost and without an effective voice in the combined total of some six million predominately white parishioners? Others are asking if the black contingency can stand alone and pay its way should they withdraw. The older heads advise caution to the youngsters.

Reportedly, the Catawba Synod made up the funds to complete the payment of a $500 NAACP Life Membership which was begun last year at the urging of Elder J. B. Harren of Cape Fear Presbytery.

ARMSTRONG QUILTS; AUSTIN PASSES

ROCKY MOUNT'S veteran schoolman - teacher, coach, principal of the former Booker T. Washington High School for many years, more recently associate principal of integrated Rocky Mount Senior High School - has announced his retirement following an extended illness just prior to school, closing in early June.

Randolph D. ("Navy") Armstrong retired after more than forty years teaching in Eastern Tarheelia, with most of it in his native Rocky Mount area. Armstrong had succeeded the former BTW High principal Oliver R. Pope and served until integration closed that unit and he was made associate principal of the Rky Mt. Senior High, where he served with distinction with principal Vincent C. Colombo who is moving to Shelby to take the superintendency of Cleveland County schools.

Armstrong has announced he will engage in community activities and continue his popular newspaper column "In and Around the Community" each Sunday in the local daily.

DURHAM and Tarheelia have lost the most militant, yet effective over the long haul, Negro editor south of Baltimore, in the passing of beloved, respected and feared LOUIS ERNEST AUSTIN, Halifax County native who struggled forty-odd years to speak for blacks who failed to really appreciate him and his work in their behalf. We hope two or three knowledgeable Bull Chizzens will begin at once to compile data and write a history about this hero who often said: "There are those who say, 'what's mine is mine and what's yours is mine, PH take it if I want it.' We have long since lived to see that dreadful day. My God raise up - another Negro editor - OUT THERE

LOUIS ERNEST AUSTIN!

Funeral rites were said recently at Garysburg-Gaston for Mrs. Emma Johnson, a native of Garysburg, who had served as a public school teacher for nearly fifty years. Mrs. Johnson had also been active in Baptist church circles, NAACP and other civic groups.

Stopping at Piney Grove Rest Home west of Spring Hope last week we found venerable ninety-seven-year-old JOSEPH WILLIS PARKER, SR., reclining easily and in excellent command of his faculties even though using two canes to assist him in walking. He recognized us immediately as he inquired about his relatives and friends. Confined to the home since winter, Mr. Parker, like another centenarian we read of lately, has about outlived all his enemies (smiles).

J. W. Parker was the pioneer in Nashcombe area with the NAACP about 1915-1918 period. His son the late Dr. Joseph W. Parker, Jr., and Mrs. Cora Parker preceded him in death. At one time a realtor and insurance man, Parker Sr., was a staunch advocate of civil rights.

It was pleasant to visit and dine with old friends, the Williams and Serena Arrington family of Enfield's Daniels Chapel, where Rev. Frank L. Bulluck holds forth. We also saw the Willie and Ethel Smith Williams family, and many other long-standing friends.

The following dignitaries gave greetings: Mrs. Mildred Ramsey, director of Siler City Multi-purpose Center; Rev. David Strickland, pastor of Alston Chapel United Holiness Church; Mike Reussing, staff member of Nick Galifianakis.

The hymn of dedication, "The Church's One Foundation," was sung by the choir. The act of presentation was done by Mr. Oscar Farrar, Sr., chairman of the Board of Trustees. Continuing the act of presentation with the congregation study was Bishop W. A. Stewart. Mrs. Burna Wilson sang beautifully "Bless This House." Elder S. J. Farrar, Elder C. B. Flack and Rev. James A. Brown also participated.

On Thursday night the Gospel Chorus of First Baptist rendered music and Sister Eloise Fuller was the speaker. Mrs. Betty Farrar, Mrs. Helen Richardson and Mr. Ronald Farrar were captains. We certainly congratulate Rev. Hart and all who helped to make this dream come true. It is a lovely edifice that we know they are proud of. We know a lot of sacrificing, labor and money went into this House of God. The offering taken for the week was $850.70 and the membership is very small.

The souvenir books are interesting as they carry the history and photos of the church families and those who made outstanding contributions. Rev. Hart and members invite you to worship with them whenever it is possible.

Jeffrey Little drowned on Sunday, June 27 at Morehead. Funeral arrangements are incomplete at this time.

Mrs. Ruth Herring died Saturday, June 26 at Chapel Hill Hospital. Funeral services were conducted Tuesday, June 29 at Lisbon Street Baptist Church. Feltonville

BY MRS. MARY MOSS FELTON GROVE - Sunday School opened at the usual hour of 10 a.m. with Rev. W. M. Baker presiding. We enjoyed a real good lesson. On the first and third Sunday, Rev. Thompson will deliver the sermon.

Our sick and shut-ins are Mr. James Moss, Mr. John Cozart, and Mr. James Perzell. Our prayers go out to them.

Feltonville's baseball team was defeated by Asbury. They played Sunday at Holly Springs. Unfortunately they were rained out. The girls' softball team will have a practice game Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at 5 p.m.

Feltonville residents are celebrating their first anniversary on the 2-5 of July. There will be ball games, square dances, sack racing, horse shoe throwing contests and much more. There will be a gift for the 100th visitor on each day.

Everyone is cordially invited to come out and join us.

FAYETTEVILLE POLICE BLOTTER REPORTS

BY CURETON LEE JOHNSON

Editor's Note: The following incidents occurred in the Fayetteville area recently and are the official reports of the Fayetteville Police Department. All reports filed by that division of city government are a matter of public record.

GI'S PICKET JEWELRY STORE Tyrell's Jewelry, Inc., was the scene of picketing by Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW). The business, located in the 400 block of Hay Street, was fronted by about 10 persons identified mostly as soldiers carrying signs. Several of the men were passing out leaflets.

The leaflets claimed that Tyrell's was using dead GI's for personal gain and named three other reasons why they believed the store was exploiting GI's.

Officers talked to the picketers and informed them of requirements for picketing. The pickets ended at 8:45 p.m.

ASSAULT WITH A DEADLY WEAPON COMPLAINT FILED William McFayden, 55, entered the house of Mr. Jake Easton, 54, to visit with Mr. Easton's daughter, allegedly McFayden's girlfriend. Mr. Easton then allegedly struck Mr. McFayden on the head with a foreign object causing a severe laceration two inches above the left eye. Mr. McFayden did not know the address of Mr. Easton but an investigation showed it to be in the county.

Mr. McFayden, of 513 Fairview Street, was taken to the Cape Fear Valley Hospital and Captain Horn of the Sheriff's Department was notified by the captain. The incident occurred at 10:02 p.m. on June 26.

ASSAULT AND RAPE CLAIM-ED Jemel Hudson, age 38, said three Negro males followed her from Cape Fear Court (where she went to make a telephone call) to Mann Street and then struck her on the head with a bottle and drug her into a graveyard nearby. She said she was then raped by each of the three males before she cut the tall one on the hand with a pocket knife. According to her, the man she cut was tall and wore a black shirt with a white collar. Another man was reported to be short and fat and wore a white shirt while no description was listed on the third man.

The complainant's wallet was also reported taken, which she said contained $83. According to the officer investigating the incident the complainant and three other women at 706 Mann Street had been drinking. Officers Steward and Higgins made the investigation.

ASSAULTED BY THROWING LYE Walter Lee Bonner, the complainant was contacted at the Veterans Hospital where he had been taken for treatment in reference to lye being thrown into his face. He accused Doris Henry of assaulting him with the lye.

Bonner was treated and taken to Chapel Hill for further treatment. Lye was allegedly thrown in his eyes, mouth and nose.

Doris Henry called the Police Station and asked to be picked up for the offense. She was arrested at her home and she gave a statement as to what happened after being told her rights. She signed a statement to the effect that she threw the lye on Bonner after he allegedly called her names and struck her several times. The case is set for July 30. The incident took place at 2013 Murchison Rd. around 1:15 p.m. on June 26 according to investigating Officer Truitt.

DEATH OF A CHARLOTTE PAPER MACHINE This incident, headed "Death of a Charlotte Paper Machine" by the Fayetteville Police Department, occurred around 5 a.m. on June 26 at 702 N. Main St., Hope Mills.

The machine belonged to Gene Cash. There was reported to be approximately $1 in cash in the machine and the machine allegedly cost approximately $65. The machine was painted pink.

So goes the report. This reporter could not make heads nor tails of its meaning. Hope you people in Fayetteville can.

CAPE FEAR HEAD START CENTER NEWS The children and staff of Grays Creek Head Start Center enjoyed a week of study on safety and summer-time fun. They had the opportunity of observing lots of safety rules.

On Wednesday they were entertained by a movie at the Colony Theatre, followed by a visit in Woods Shopping Center on Hudson Street. On Thursday they were allowed to purchase individual items, thanks to Mr. Ingram. They also were excited and thrilled to help choose items from the A & P store for a picnic, which was held Friday on the playground.

DEEP CREEK ROAD The children and staff had an enjoyable week of activities, which began on Monday, June 14, to Gillespie St. Library, where we were entertained by Mrs. McDonald. We were first given a short period to tour areas of the library, afterwards we were shown several movies which all enjoyed.

On Wednesday, we had another opportunity to go to the Colony Theatre to see another enjoyable movie. The movie reflected beauty, and love of the nature scenes around us.

A warm welcome to our youth workers, Miss Phillips Brewington and Miss Virginia McNeil, who will be assisting us this summer. We are looking forward to an enjoyable time.

BEAVER CREEK To supplement the discussion about animals and plant growth, the Beaver Creek Head Start Center enrolls and staff took a trip to a farm on June 17, 1971.

address was given by Phil Bailey and Mr. Earl Owens responded to it.

The guest speaker was Roosevelt Wright, who is the assistant principal at the Roseboro-Salisbury High School. Mr. Wright's topic was "Be A Man." In this, he said that the profession of various qualities stands out among men. Man should have no false influence and that his words and deeds should be motivated by truth. He also said that a man will strive to be somebody. This address caught all listener's ear.

The sermon was delivered by the pastor, Rev. S. W. Williams. His text was taken from Psalm 55:23. He said that God does not want man to be deceitful and that God wants men that He can trust. It was a good message.

The soloist was Mr. Jimmy Howard of the community. The choir was made up of men from Holy Tabernacle, St. Thomas, Sam Spring, and Robinson Chapel.

Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt Wright have as their guests, Mr. Wright's mother, Mrs. Mittie Wright and his brother, John from Burlington.

The Masons, Spring Branch Lodge No. 336 celebrated their St. John's Day service. The choir was made up of the Bright Star Chapter Order of the Eastern Star No. 232. The sermon was delivered by Rev. T. R. Singletary. Remarks were made by Dr. D. J. Sammons.

We would like to congratulate Mr. Percy Owens, who is one of Fayetteville State University's evening students and made the Dean's List with a 3.75 average. Keep up the good work, Mr. Owens.

Mrs. Daisy Easton is here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McLaughlin.

The number of employees of State and local government will more than double between 1960 and 1980. There were 6 million people so employed in 1960 and 9.6 million in 1970. In 1980, there is expected to be 13.5 million people in these jobs.
