Dr. Harry Gibson, Jr. Given High Post With United Methodist Church

n the executive staff of the U-Methodist Board of Mision, that of "ombudsman" for black and other minority communities, has been filled by the Rev. Dr. Harry B. Gibson, Jr., New York and formerly of Chicago, according to an announcement by Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke, Board president, and the Rev. Dr. Tracey K. Jones, Jr., genral secretary.

The ombudsman was one of our staff positions authorized by the Board in 1969 to be filled by black executives. Dr. Gibson me to the Board in July, 1970, o fill one, an assistant general secretary in the Joint Commission on Education and Cultivation. Now he moves up to the omoudsman office, which carries the title of Board assistant general secretary and, under Board ection, is one of the highest staff The four positions were created by the Board following proposals from its Black Staff Task Force, which last May had reminded that, while the Board was making efforts toward that end, the ombudsman office was et to be finally filled. Naming of Dr. Gibson completes a proess of filling the post.

WILL GOOD WORKS SAVE? "And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission" (Hebrews

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS 60635

The apostle's argument in the bove passage is that since srael's ceremonial law was typical of things to come, its constant shedding of blood pointed to the necessity of Christ's sacrificial death for the remission of sins. Certainthe Bible teaches that "Clarist died for our sins" (I Corinthians 15:3).

Those who seek instead to ake themselves acceptable to God by good works should conider the following: Our Lord ever committed one sin. He always did those things which pleased the Father. His ministry was filled with acts of mercy and kindness. He healed the sick, cleansed the leper, hade the blind to see, the deaf to hear and the lame to leap for oy. He preached the gospel to he poor, deliverance to the broken-hearted. Yet all these good works could not avail to cancel one sin or ease the conscience of one guilty sinner. Indeed, had He done all these good works and then gone to heaven without dying in our stead, He would have left us in a deeper condemnation than before, for His holy, spotless life could only emphasize our could not avail to erase even one sin from the black record of human behavior, how utterly preposterous for the sinner to hope to erase or cancel his sins by his own "good works"! Thus, in contrast, the Bible presents Christ's death as the price of our redemption:

The STRENGTH

At this time, our thoughts are turned to our nation and the war that was fought to bring freedom to our land. Pictured here is a monument to the leader of our people at that time. The people were willing to give their lives that we might be free from tyranny, and have the right to worship as we please. God was with us then as he was with the children of Israel when Moses led them from Egypt. Upon receiving their freedom they sang ... "The Lord is my strength and song, and he is become my salvation: he is my God, and I will prepare him an habitation; my father's God, and I will exalt him." Exodus 15:2

world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of
