Riley Hill

BY MRS. MAMIE P. TWITTY
RILEY HILL - Junior Church Day was carried out in gospel order. Sunday School sessions were well attended. Mr. Billy M. Perry was acting chairman, and James E. Holden, clerk of the junior choir, had charge of musical selections with Don MRS. TWITTY. Hodge at the piano. Belinda Jones and Sylvia Townes sang solo parts. Rev. G. S. Stokes, our pastor, introduced the speaker of the hour in the person of Rev. Kamara from Shaw University. He chose as his text I Timothy, 4:12: "Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith in purity." He was well versed in youthful desires and accomplishments. The sermon was inspiring and encouraging. The youths of the church were well benefitted from such a powerful message.

Rev. Charles A. Marriot, one of our most loyal members, was funeralized at 2 p.m., with Dr. Sibkes officiating. Rev. Marriot was a staunch worker in the field of education and theology. Even though his work was in far away places, he always thought of his home church and up held the banner of praise for his pastor and fellow members.

Mrs. Maude Rogers spent sometime in Bridgeport, Conn. visiting her daughter, Mrs. Thurman Jeffreys. Mr. Jeffreys was ordained in the church as a minister of the gospel. Mrs. Rogers enjoyed the airplane trip. As she planned her trip back home, she was accompanied by Mrs. Herman Jeffreys and son, Vincent Hermon, 7 weeks old. Mrs. Jeffreys is the former Ethel Lee Rogers. A reception and baby shower were held in their honor at the home of her mother, Mrs. A. J. Rogers on June 19. Many beautiful and useful gifts were received.

The beginning of practical theology in the Church is its willingness to be a focal point for God to man, man to man—man to God—in involvement.

Sunset Acres shows this involvement by providing a center for children and teenagers to play volleyball, basketball, badminton, and tennis, and just tumbling; while, at the same time, providing a center where Mr. McClain and his crew can deliver nutritional lunches each day.

What started out to be a thirty or forty children thing has grown to be a sixty to seventy affair.

The shadowing thing that surrounds all this could be sunshine is the tremendous, unrelenting, heavy burden of building, clearing, caring for, and supervising the project.

The president of Sunset Acres Civic League, Mayfield Woodard, and his wife, Artris, have to close their garage business, losing money, and open the center, and superintend the five teenagers who receive a stipend or work in "keeping the grounds," monitoring the children, and preventing injuries; this is "something else" for children will seldom listen to their peers.

Mrs. Woodard is thankful for the limited aid given her by Mesdames Cle Esthy Raines, Anna C. Burt, and M. Council; they have their regular jobs to attend. If Mrs. Woodard could depend upon a show of helpfulness from the parents, how much more good could be done!

The Men's Day Service was a success at Freedom Chapel last Sunday, June 20th. Freedom's men's chorus provided the music appropriate for the morning worship service and the liturgy was equally spiritual.

Responsive reading was led by Bro. Dukes; scripture by our Men's Day secretary; prayer, Rev. McIntyre; Apostle's Creed, Bro. Jesse Bratcher; announcements, Men's Day secretary; tithes, prayer of Thanksgiving, Bro. Beatty.

The day's closing service was a concert of classics by the Sandhill Chorus; works of Handel, Franck, Schubert, Malotte, Gounod and other greats were expertly interpreted with empathy to the leader of Handel and Schu-

Fuquay-Varina

BY MRS. LOUISE CAESAR
FUQUAY-VARINA - Sunday Schools were held at all local churches with the superintendents in charge of the devotions. First Baptist Church opened its Sunday School at 10 a.m. with the supt., Mr. Alfred Thorpe, presiding. The scripture was read by Mr. Thorpe and prayer was of Mrs. Caesar.

The subject of the lesson was "God Requires Personal Righteousness." The background scripture was from Micah. The memory selection was "He hath shewed Thee, O Man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of Thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy and to walk humbly with Thy God?" Micah 6:8.

Morning worship services were held at Rogers Chapel Church at 11:30. The pastor, Rev. H. W. Isaac, delivered the sermon. He used for his subject, "Ye Must Be Born Again." His text was taken from St. John 3:7. Music was rendered by the Gospel Chorus. Following Sunday School at St. Augusta Baptist Church, worship services began at 11 a.m. with the pastor, Rev. J. M. Jackson, presiding. The young adult choir rendered music with Bobby Kimble at the organ. Rev. Jackson delivered the message. Announcements were made by Mrs.

BON VOYAGE - Raleigh's community ambassador for 1971, Mrs. Marian Hayes was recently entertained at a bridge-luncheon hosted by Mrs. D. J. Knight and Mrs. W. W. Johnson at the Knight home, 1501 E. Martin Street. Among those bidding trumps and farewells were left to right, seated: Mrs. D. H. Keek, Mrs. Francis Poole, Mrs. D. J. Knight, Miss Marion P. Hayes, Mrs. W. W. Johnson, Mrs. John Johnson, Mrs. William Knight, Standing, left to right: Mrs. M. Crockett, Mrs. Richard Ball, Mrs. E. Greene, Mrs. C. L. Hunt, Mrs. B. Rainbow, Mrs. Harriette Webster, Mrs. Minetta G. Eaton, Mrs. Phyllis Mann, Mrs. G. Harris and Mrs. Hattie Edmondson. Marian, who will spend two months in Sweden representing Raleighites, received several bon voyage parties, gifts, such as perfume, kerchiefs, purse organizer's, and hose.

Eula Mae Smith. Visitors worshipping were members of the neighboring churches.

The Wake County Baptist Sunday School and Baptist Training Union will be held at Friendship Chapel Baptist Church at Wake Forest July 23 thru 25. The host pastor is Rev. G. S. Stokes. The theme will be "The Church's Response To the Challenge Of The Seventies."

The delegates from First Baptist Church will be Miss Wanda Roberson, Miss Rose Carrington, who will be on the program at this convention.

The annual picnic for First Baptist's Sunday School was held at Myrtle Beach Saturday, June 26. Many of the students went and the adults also enjoyed the day. We all had a nice time and a nice ride on the bus accompanied by Mr. C. F. Neaf.

Celebrating birthdays June 22 are Johnnie Holland and Mrs. Eda W. Utley.

Let's not forget our sick and shut-in. Hospitalized at this writing are Mr. Abraham McLean and Mrs. Mary Murchison.
