background music. Mrs. Bel-via Jones was at the organ. Rev. Singletary's text was taken from the Book of Peter, the third chapter. In his message he said that Christ redeemed Retward and wanted him to become one of his disciples. Peter followed Jesus into the mountains, 'valleys and walked on the water with Jesus. At the end, Rev. Singletary said that God made man for his glory and that he wants to build his kingdom in the hearts of men. Rev. Jason Powell was the visiting pulpit guest. At the morning services at Holy Tabernacle Church, where the Rev. Samuel Clemmons is pastor, Youth Day was held last Sunday. The youth were in charge of the music, along with Mrs. Hattie Armwood, at the piano. The scripture lesson was read by Rev. Clemmons from Eccl. 12:1, 13,14. His subject was 'What Religion Can Do For Our Youth."

In his message he told the youth that it was time to begin to do worthwhile things and to think worthwhile thoughts.

The Youth Day Services at the church were held at 3 p.m. The scripture lesson was read by Miss Betty Ann Miller, The Sam Spring Youth Choir was in charge of the music. Miss .Cathy Culbreth gave words of welcome and Carla Tatum gave the response. Miss Deborah Culbreth and Douglas rendered solos. Greetings from Snow Hill Baptist Church were given by Miss Joann Tatum, The two guest speakers were Rev. Sister Annie Stewart, whose subject was "Two Sons," and Rev. James Butler, whose subject was "Think Black." Both gave very short talks to the congregation.

Eulogistic services were held for M. Willie McCain on June 30 with Rev. T. R. Singletary officiating.

His survivors are his wife, Lavida McCain; two daughters, Vivian McCain or Port Chester, N. Y. and Mary McCain and one son, David of the home. Also a granddaughter, Tracv Ann.

Rev. Hairr preached a very dynamic sermon at the Robinson Chapel Church from the text of Proverbs 3:3 last Sunday.

Mr. Tony Owens, who is a patient at McCain Hospital, is now improving. His wife, Mrs. Lina Owens asks the prayers of all for his recovery.

"In the justice of God in ment there is no mercy." That was the opening statement made by Rev. S. W. Williams in his message last Sunday. His subject was "Justice Of God's Judgment." The text was taken from Hebrews 10:28-30. The junior choir, along with Mrs. Janice Wright were in charge of the music. In his sermon, Rev. Williams said that first there is death and then there is judgment and both of them are certin to happen. You should prepare yourself now for the coming of the Lord. It was a most inspiring sermon.

Mrs. Bernice Davis and family from Baltimore, Md., and children, Rick, Debbie and Sarah were home visitng her sister, Mrs. Lillie Culbreth and brothers, Otis and Joe Tatum. Miss Trudy L. Tatum of Harrisburg, Pa. was home visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tatum, Along with her came her roommate, . Miss Diana Franklin of Harrisburng.

Cary News

BY MISS MAE N. HOPSON

CARY - Sunday School opened at 10 a.m. with the superintendent in charge. Worship services started at Il with the young adult choir furnishing the music. After the devotions the pastor, Rev. Eugene Mason, delivered his sermon from the third chapter of the Second Book of Timothy, verses 10 and 11. His theme was "The Lord Is Merciful." This message was a spiritual uplift to all of his hearers. On Sunday evening at 8 the Missionary Ladies of the United Church of Christ presented the play "The Cross." Mrs. Clara Ballentine of Watts Chapel Baptist Church was guest speaker and Mrs. Mary Ferrell served as mistress of ceremony. Visitors were from Watts Chapel in Rhamkatte and from the Christian and Baptist Churches in Apex. Also visitors attended from Shiloh Baptist Church Morrisville.

VISITORS Gregory Bell had as his guest his cousin, John Hill, Jr., of Cleveland, Ohio, recently. Mis. Annie M. Brown and children and Mrs. Carolyn Simnons and children motored to wasnington, D. C. and other posite with to visit Mrs. Sycamore sister and other relaives. They reported a wonderannett will be leave ing short to attend Auto Dieel College in Nashville, Tenn. Miss and Hopson attended the

Y. P. Department which was held in Winston-Salem at the home of Mrs. Thelma Bridgers on Saturday.

Miss Felicia Jones flew to Chicago to visit relatives and friends.

Spring Hope

BY MILDRED JONES SPRING HOPE - Sunday School was held at the Jones Hill Baptist Church at 10:30 a.m. with the superintendent in charge. The subject of the lesson was "God, the Christian, and Government."

Morning worship service began at 11:45 with the call to worship given by the pastor, Rev. W. M. Giles.

The First Cosmopolitan Male Chorus rendered the music for the Men's Day program. The scripture was read by Deacon Arteria Wheless, and prayer was offered by Deacon W. B.

Deacon Thurl Richardson discussed the theme "God's Concern for Man." Rev. Giles introduced the speaker, Rev Aloysius High of Wakefield Baptist Church.

Rev. High delivered a very encouraging sermon on the subject "Is Jesus Asking Too Much?" based on the gospel according to St. Luke, 9th chapter, 22-24 verses. The BTU program is held every 2nd and 4th Sunday night

Rhamkatte

BY MRS. LUCILLE ALSTON RHAMKATTE-Sunday School opened at Watts Chapel Baptist Church at 9:45 a.m. Dr. F. B. Weaver was our Il a.m. speaker who spoke from I Cor. 4:4 on the subject "How To Live Above Criticism - It's the Lord Who Judges Me." Dr. Weaver left us with some thoughtprovoking remarks; be prepared to expect criticism; we must learn to listen and to live with it; try to understand the person who criticizes you and criticism is a vehicle to carry from one to another.

Rev. G. R. Burt was our 2 p.m. speaker and Dr. Weaver the group. delivered the 7 p.m. sermon. He spoke from St. John 20:24 on the topic "The Man Who Missed Sunday Night Service." BY MRS, LOUISE COLVIN It was centered around Thomas who missed church and Jesus came when he was not there. He missed the fellowship the sight of Jesus, His blessing and the breath of the Holy Ghost.

ANNOUNCEMENTS 4-H meeting was held on July

On July 18 Family Day will be held at St. John AME Church with Mr. Charles Havwood, Sr. of Raleigh as our guest speaker at the ll o'clock service. The Sunday School of Watts Chapel Baptist Church will onsor a picnic at Lakeside Park. Buses will leave the church at 6 a.m. You may secure tickets from Alton Matthews, Thomas Glenn or Milton Ballentine.

Our sick are Mr. William Dennis, who is in Wake Memorial Hospital and Mr. Delma Horton, Mr. William Tucker, Mr. Roman McClain, who are ill at home and Mrs. Annie Allman, in a rest home. Please continue to remember them in your pray-

Youngsville

BY MRS. JOELLA HARRIS

YOUNGSVILLE - Mr. and Mrs. Hansel Jones of Philadelphia. Pa. were here visiting his sister, Mrs. Ora B. Debnam and her niece, Miss Valerie Graves.

Mrs. Maxine Hayes and granddaughter, Pam and Mrs. Doris Jean Jones of New York City are here visiting Mr. and Mrs. William F. Allen.

Mr. Robert Perry, Jr. of Raleigh spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Mary L. Perry. Mr. and Mrs. Jake Clax visited her mother, Mrs. Mary L. Perry and her grandparents,

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Harris. Mrs. Minnie D. Day and husband of Bridgeport, Conn., visited Mrs. Sarah Conyers recent-

Dave Spivey of Yonkers, N. Y. is her visiting his sisters.

Mrs. Mary L. Wilder is a patient at Duke Hospital, Durham. Visiting her before she entered the hospital were Hugh Wilder and Mary Green of Washington, D. C., Miss Ernestine Wilder and Floyd Debnam of Bronx, N. Y. Also her grandson, Sgt. Eugene Wilder of Fort Eusta, Va. and his family. Mrs. Kathryn Jones of Raleigh and her sister, Mrs. Ida Mangrum of Franklinton also called on her.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus McLaughlin and family of Baltimore, Md. visited Mrs. Ida Debnam, her mother, recently. The children will remain here for the sum-

James Kearney is here visiting his aunt, Mrs. Mary Williams. They motored to Ahoskie to visit Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt Kearney and Mr. and Mrs.

Louis Williams. Men's Day was observed at the Union Grove Baptist Church on Sunday, The Male Chorus of Franklinton was in charge of the music. The pastor, Rev. Sherrod, gave a timely and inspirational message. Mrs. Mozelle Monroe has returned from New York City where she visited her son, Willie Joyner and his family. Miss Peggy Marie Harris of Executive Board Meeting of the 137 Savage St., Franklinton spent and relatives of Burlington and two weeks with her mother and at the beach last week. Miss Teresa Marie Harris of Oxford spent Sunday with her father, Dock Holden Harris of 137 E. Savage Street, Franklinton. Ronnie Teasley Harris spent

ris of Youngsville. Chapel Hill News

the weekend with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Har-

BY MRS. CARRIDENE STUBBS CHAPEL HILL - Mrs. Alberta Edwards, Mrs. Ruth Jones, Mrs. Barbara Foggie, Miss Teresa Foggie, Miss Laura Sanders, Mr. Larry Holt and James E. Hinton, Jr. all motored to Washington, D. C. to attend the wedding of Miss Shedonna Carpenter to Mr. Gregory E. Hairston of Washing-The wedding was held on July 3. Miss Carpenter is a life-long friend of the above named persons who attended the wedding. We wish the couple

many years of happiness. Mr. and Mrs. James Clax of Raleigh also spent the holiday weekend in Dee Cee with Mrs Clay's brother

Mrs. Michael Dublin and son are guests with Mrs. Carridene

The Minority Business Association is still meeting every two weeks on Wednesday at St. Paul AME Church Annex at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Ruth Jones is sponsoring a fish fry on Saturday, July 17 at 4 p.m. All proceeds will be given to the Minority Business Association.

Your reporter visited the St. Joseph CME Church last Sunday for the ll a.m. services. Rev. Charles L. Helton delivered an inspiring sermon from the 14th chapter of St. Matthew 26-30 verses. His sermon was entitled "Bridge Over Troubled Water." Rev. and Mrs. Helton had as special guests for the day Misses Masoko Kawai and Hideko Takano of Japan. The New Generation Singers gave a program at St. Joseph CME Church at 8 p.m. Sunday night. They are a group of Singers who reside in Durham. Mr. Osofo McDonald is the manager of

APEX - The Gospel Chorus of First Baptist Church was on duty for the 11 o'clock worship service, Mrs. Louise Colvin was soloist. Her accompanist at the piano was Rosalyn Price. Miss Jacqueline Williams waspianist for the chorus. The pastor,

Rev. J. E. Perkins, took his from the text Book of St. Mat- MRS. COLVIN thew 6:34 and used as his subject "Sufficient Unto this Day is the Evil Thereof." We were happy to have our friends of the local churches worship with us. We welcome visitors always. On Sunday afternoon at 3, the young adult choir of First Baptist Chuch appeared on the 5th anniversary of the Greater St. Paul Baptist Church of Durham. They were on the program along with other singing groups. It was reported that everyone had a most enjoyable service. Sunday afternoon at 2 funeral services were held at the White Oak Baptist Church for Mr. Willie Wrighten of Detroit, Mich. The Rev. J. A. Stewart of Durham delivered the eulogy. Burial was in the church cemetery. Mr. Wrighten was the uncle of Mrs. Lovine Mitchell. We extend our sincere sympathy to her and the family and all families connected with them in this area. Those accompanying the body of their loved one from Detroit were his daughter Mrs. Marion Culp, two daughters and son, Thomas Upchurch and niece, Miss Addie Jackson. We also extend our sympathy to the Richardson family in the loss of their brother, Mr. Tyree Richardson, who passed in Newark, N. J. He was funeralized on Saturday at 1 p.m. at the Christian Chapel Church. Rev. Leon White delivered the euogy. Burial was in the church cemetery.

PERSONALS The Council family reunion will be held this Sunday afternoon in Chapel Hill at the home of Mr. Jesse Council, Family and friends are invited to attend. Ronald, Donald and Alton Richardson are vacationing in Philadelphia, Pa. for a week, They are visiting their sister, Miss Carolyn Richardson and other relatives. Miss Queen Hunter returned home Sunday after a week's vacation in Newark, N. J., with relatives and friends. She had an enjoyable time.

On Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Minder Mangum, Mr. A. B. Horton, Miss Ida Hayes, Mrs. Louise Colvin, little Richard Colvin and Renee Cofield. were dinner guests of Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Bigelow and fam ily. The food was delicious, the fellowship just great and all had an enjoyable time, as usual. On Sunday afternoon at 6 Mrs. Louise Colvin, Mrs. Teresa Cofield, Richard and Renee attended their cousin's wedding in Wendell. Friends accompanying us were Mrs. Minder Mangum, and Miss Ida Hayes. We witnessed a most lovely marriage at the bride's parents' home on the lawn, Many friends

Raleigh and Wendell watched as Miss Jannie Gadison became Mrs. Bobby Young and Rev. J. D. Lockley performed at the ceremony. Miss Carolyn Mitchell of Wendell was soloist and Mr. Ronald Morgan also of Wendell was organist, The reception was also held on the lawn, The newly-weds received many useful and lovely gifts. Mrs. Dorothy Robertson, the sister of the bride was the maid of honor. The best man was Bobby's bro-ther. Miss Gadison is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Gadison of Wendell, Mr. Young is the along with Miss Cynthia Hicks son of Mr. and Mrs. Young of acting as secretary. Raleigh, Miss Gadison's sisters brother of Philadelphia, all attended the wedding.

Mrs. E. H. Williams and daughter, Jacqueline have returned home after a two week vacation trip to Detroit, Mich., visiting a cousin.

Clinton

BY MRS. H. M. JOHNSON CLINTON - Mr. Johnny T. Sampson of Southeast Boulevard here was installed last Sunday as Vice Commander in the American Legion Department of North Carolina. The ceremony took place at Chapel Hill. Those attending the ceremony from Clinton were Mrs. E. B. Sampson, Walter Smith, Vernell Bunting, Robert Morrisey, Charles Speller, Henry Bell, H. Hallard, S. P. Freeman, Marion Fowler, Also Mrs. Ruth Freeman, Mrs. Mildred Fowler and Emory Sampson.

Mrs. Doris Monk and grandson, Ricky of Newark, N. J. are spending some time here with Rev. and Mrs. James A. Moore.

Mr. Edward Faison and Miss Frances Faison left last Sunday for Washington, D. C. to visit their sick sister, Mrs. Amy Newton. We hope that they found her improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Caldwell and children spent their vacation here with Mr. Caldwell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Caldwell of Railroad Mrs. Shirley Boykin, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Smith and Miss Sharon Fisher motored down from Newark last weekend to visit Rev. and Mrs. James A. Moore, who were will. Mr. Curtis B. Moore of Newark is back at his home after spending last week at the bedside of his ill parents, Rev. and Mrs. James Moore. Mrs. Sarah Faison continues to be a patient at Sampson Memorial Hospital. We understand that she is much improved at this time. Mr. James Edward Moore of Englewood, N. J. spent several days here recently visiting his father, Mr. Frank Moore. OBITUARIES died in the Lutheran Hospital, the family cemetery. Baltimore, Md., July 2. Mrs.

Soctt grew up in Clinton, but later moved to Baltimore. Funeral services were conducted from the Andrews Chapel Baptist Church last Thursday with the Rev. J. L. White officiating. She is survived by a husband, Eddie Soctt of the home, Mrs. Pearl Hawthorne of Baltimore, Md.; a sister, Mrs. Mary R. Sams of Clinton; one aunt, Mrs, Nellie Underwood of Clinton and other relatives.

Mr. Dock Roscoe Darden died at Sampson Memorial Hospital

last Thursday. Funeral services were con-Rev. A. J. Merritt officiating. A THOUGHT

Riley Hill

BY MRS. MAMIE P. TWITTY RILEY HILL - Sunday School was opened at 10 a.m. with the W. J. Rogers, presidsupt., ing. Classes were arranged and well taught. Rev. M. L. Watkins reviewed the lesson. Rev. W. Grover Horton was chosen pastor in the absence of our regular pastor, who is enjoying a vacation. The senior choir rend- MRS. TWITTY ered music with Mrs. Mary L. Holden at the piano, Rev. Horton chose his text from St. John 14:13-14. His subject was "Power In Fervent Prayer." He emphasized powerful incidents in Biblical history where powerful prayers saved the people from destruction. There were testimonials given of how God moves in mysterious ways to deliver those who trust and rever doubt. Flowers were placed in the sanctuary in honor of Deacon Hodge, who was a strong and faithful worker in our church.

family. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mangum, newly-weds, worshipped with us. Congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Hulon Morgan and daughter, Vernetta visited in the Twitty home. Also Mrs. Mozelle Robertson, who spent the afternoon and enjoyed din-

Flowers were given by the Hodge

R. L. Twitty thanks his many friends for cards, calls and visits during his illness. We are proud that he is up and out and improved. The 4-H Club, under the auspices of Mrs. Susanna Jones,

Mrs. E. R. Leach, Mrs. B. F.

Mangum, will enjoy a workshop in the near future for the bet- group committee.

ner.

terment of club activities, Parents are urged to see to it that all club members attend.

The senior citizens of this community are working hard in the club, doing all kinds of handicrait projects, especially ceramics. The public is invited to attend our exhibition at the S. C. Building on Barbee J. K. BRICK REUNION Ave., Zebulon.

Wilbon News

BY MRS. J. T. HOOD Sunday School opened at its usual hour with the supt., Mr. R. E. Norris, Sr., in charge,

The subject of the lesson of New York, Philadelphia and was "God the Christian and Government." The background was through the Depression-ridden chosen from the Books of Romans and Judges.

After a 45-minute study of the lesson the classes came toge- Rocky Mount Area Brick Alumni ther for a review, which was by the supt., Mr. Norris and Phillips, president, and her rewas very beautifully rendered. cently acquired hubby, Thaddeus After the report of the secre- H. Phillips, Sr., who is treastary, Miss Hicks, Sunday School urer of the local club. was dismissed by the superintendent.

Circle held its regular monthly Tee Street, N. W., Washington, meeting with the president, Mrs. D. C., is that a large group is G. S. Smart, in charge. The expected to attend as the lovscripture was read by the vice ers of the faded green and gold president, Mrs. J. T. Hood. JKB colors rapidly dwin-Prayer was by Mrs. Nevie Betts dle. Mrs. Venture is urging evand Mrs. Golia T. Burt acted ery Brickite to communicate as secretary. Our subject was with another Brickite in order to "One Step Led To Another." get as large an attendance as The theme for the quarter was possible. "A New Path." This wonder- One project is to have clubs ful lesson was discussed by each and members individually, to one in the Circle and a'l seem- contribute to the completion of ed to have enjoyed it very much. the payment of a $500 NAACP gave a program at the Bazzle the late Prof. Thomas Sewell Creek Baptist Church. Mr. Mil- Inborden, founding principal of ton Hicks, president and Mrs. the pioneer educational institu-Gertrude S. Judd, advisor were tion in this three-county rural in charge. The report was that area which once boasted its own all had a delightful time. Many railroad station and post office, groups were invited.

Jewel Battle and Mrs. D. S. miles north of Rocky Mount. speaker.

Pullen Park in Raleigh for a finding clinics as well as repicnic. It was enjoyed by all ligious services. Recently a and the times were well spent swimming pool has been added together. There were rides as well as a modern dining for the young and old alike, room facility to complement the ter Sharon Hicks are vacation- cious campus providing a woning in Tuskegee, Ala., with derful place to commune with their aunt, Mrs. Geneva Sturdi- nature and take a vacation or do vant. They visited the Sturdivant serious meditation and writing. family there. Mr. Albert Spence Other JKB Alumni officers inof Virginia is visiting his family clude Booker T. Carpenter, vice here this summer.

York came home to attend her retary, New Rochelle, N. Y.; aunt's funeral. Mrs. Beckwith Mrs. Beatrice McMillan, coris the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. responding secretary, Wash-

McKinley Norris. Daisy Ballentine were held at Mrs. Malinda Barnes Phillips, Bazzle Creek Church on Thurs- Rocky Mount; Rev. Henry My-Mrs. Margaret Carroll Scott day, July 8. Interment was in ers, Chaplain, Norfolk, Va.; and Miss Rosia Lee Jones, who is Rocky Mount serves as public home from the hospital and relations officer. Mrs. Edna Spence. Also, Mrs. SEABOARD FLKS RELIGIOUS Alice Mitchell, Mrs. Jude Beck- FESTIVAL JULY 25 with, Mr. Vernon Thomas, Mr. SEABOARD - Progressive Abe McClain.

CORRECTION Varina. Miss Adams will re- through evening hours. turn home in August. She is the The program will consist of niece of Miss Fidie Rudd of Ra- musical selections by guest ducted Sunday, July II from the leigh and granddaughter of Mr. choirs and quartets; brief reof Thy peace; where there is and a free to all old fashioned hatred, let me sow love; where dinner like only rural housethere is injury, pardon; where wives can cook, there is doubt, faith; where there This unique type of service is despair, hope; where there is was initiated 21 years ago by is sadness, joy.

Louisburg

BY MRS. WYNELLA MOORE dent of the Elks S. T. En-Louisburt Firefighters are Wil- Letitia Smith came down from lie Neal, capt.; Otha Wilson, the hill country of the highiands Lt.; Bonnie Perry, sec'y.; of Tarheelia, Shelby and Hick-James Perry, treasurer, Leo- ory respectively, to participate nard Hawkins, asst. treas, and in the program and give inspi-Simon Harris, asst. sec'y. and ration to their Elk charges in program committee chairman, Eastern Carolina,

Attending the 81st annual ses- Overnight lodging is offered sion of the N. C. Volunteer Fire- to those who wish it in private man's Association at Hammonds homes or in motels. Arrange-Beach were Simon Harris and ments can be made for lodging daughter, Johnnie Smith, Bonnie by contacting Jack and Emily Perry, Leonard Hawkins, and Faison, Box 102, Seaboard. Season, Mr. and Mrs. James T. board is only 35 miles away from Perry and Mr. and Mrs. John the new Elks Shrine at Winton, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hall of Ra. There members can observe ding anniversary on July 12. Home and Motel now being conand Richard Southern, all spent Reynolds, Grand Exalted Ruthe week in New York. They ler of IBPOEW nationally. had a fine time.

day at the Christian College in Franklinton at 7:30 p.m. The Joy Bells will sponsor worker for freedom and decenmusical program at the cy as well as human rights in Zion Springs Disciple Church the recent death of Mrs. Emma tist Missionary Circle had a in Bunn on July 18 at 7 p.m. Walden Johnson, daughter of the very spiritual meeting last Wed-Appearing will be the Lettuce Hall Choir of Spring Hope, the den of Garysburg. Clifton Sisters of Louisburg, the Southern Harmoneers of rendered by Mrs. Tessie Perry. The public is invited to attend. Mrs. Artillia Cooper and Mr.

News And Views

BY J. B. HARREN

SLATED FOR AUG. 27-29 BRICKS - The annual reunion of students, graduates and friends of the once-famous Joseph Keasbey Brick Normal and Industrial School, which later became Brick Jun'or College, will be held here August 27-29 on the old grounds; but in new buildings, when the loyal Brickites gather here to reminisce of the days from 1895 early thirties. Serving as host to the J. K. Brick National Alumni Association will be the Phillips, president, and her re-

Word from National Brick Alumni Association prexy, Mrs. At 11:30 a.m. the Missionary Eleanor Murray Venture, 601

At 5 p.m. the usher board Life Membership in the name of between Enfield on the north and After Sunday School, Mrs. Whitakers on the south - 16

Hicks and others motored to The property, (once contain-Rogers Chapel in Fuquay-Vari- ing 1129 acres before much sellna to attend service where Sis- ing off to Negro farmers and later Elouise Fuller was the guest ter to home builders), has been conveyed to the Church of On Saturday, the Sunday Christ, which uses it for sem-School of Bazzle Creek went to inars, conferences and fact-Miss Jennifer Hicks, and sis- dormitory and chapel with a spa-president, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Lida Beckwith of New Mrs. Mary Putney Clark, secington, D. C.; Mrs. Pearl Phil-Funeral services for Miss lips Harrison, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mrs. Mabel Savage Rhodes, Our sick and shut-ins are Hampton, Va J. B. Harren of

Lodge No. 1280 of the Improved, Benevolent and Protective Miss Mary Ann Adams of Nor- Order of the Elks of the World walk, Conn. was visiting her (IBPOEW) and Unity Temple No. great aunt, Mrs. Dovie Harris of 914 will observe their 21st an-Apex and she is also the great nual religious festival at the niece of Mr. Jimmie Thorpe of nearby Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Apex. Mr. Alford Thorpe and north of this peanut-tobacco yours truly of Holly Springs, growing Northampton County and Mrs. Golia Burt of Fuquay- town Sunday, July 25, at noon

Morning Star Holy Church with Ollie Rudd, also of Raleigh. marks by outstanding Elk leaders from over the state; with a Lord, make an instrument sermon by a visiting minister > darkness, light and where there the founder of the lodge, Jack W. Faison, his wife, and other pioneers of the Progressive Lodge and Temple. It has grown in popularity until state presi-LOUISBURG - Officers of the loe and Daughter President Mrs.

down on the Chowan River. leigh celebrated their 8th wed- the new fireproof Elks Rest Kenneth and Larry Moore of structed on farmland said to Louisburg and Roy Lee Daniel have been donated by Hobson R.

The Sampson Harmoneers of ruler of the local lodge. Mrs. Louisburg will render a mu- Emily D. Faison is Daughtersical program on the 3rd Sun- Ruler of the Temple.

This community, church and educational circles lost a hard manity projects, Mrs. Johnson meeting. Nashville and a solo will be had taught school more than 50 PERSONALS years since her graduation from K. Brick School, Elizabeth City Normal and Hampton in-Joseph A. Lewis are on the stitute, Va.

A working member in the relatives in New York City.

church and Sunday School of Roanoke Salem Baptist Church, Mrs. Walden-Johnsonduring her 50-year teaching career, was not afraid (as many teachers have been and still are) to identify with the work of the NAACP. (We first met Mrs. Johnson while attending a national NAACP convention in Dee Cee in 1947.

Chapel Hill

BY MRS, SUSIE WEAVER CHAPEL HILL - Church School is held at St. Paul AME Church each Sunday at 9:45 a.m. Mrs. Eunice Taylor is superintendent. You are invited and always welcome to attend.

Sunday morning worship service was most beautiful. Mr. Lewis Taylor was at the piano. "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow," was sung by the Male Chorus. Rev. J. F. Epps, pastor, gave the prayer of consecration. The meditation hymn was "Beams of Heaven As I Go." A great soulstirring message was delivered by our presiding elder, Rev. C. C. Scott on the subject "I Will Be Satisfied When I Awake In His Likeness,"

Visitors were introduced in large numbers. Ushers on duty were Mr. Gattis Cotton, Sr. and Mr. Jimmy Edwards. Flowers were given by Mrs. Julia Guthrie.

Immediately after the service the quarterly conference was held by the presiding elder. Beginning Monday, July 26 p.m., a great youth revival will greatest speakers. All are invit- and Mrs. Henry Howell of Freed to attend. the UNC Campus, the Rev. An- week.

drew Young will speak on "Justice."

ham participated. On Sunday New Hope Church pastor, Rev. Helton.

Francisco, Calif.

Baldwin and Mrs. Ira Troublefield are improved. Dinner will be served on Sat- you would not want Jesus to urday, July 31 on Brooks St. know. beginning at 11 a.m. On Sunday, July 18 at St. Paul AME Church, the youth choir will be in charge of the music with Mr. Lewis Taylor at the piano and Mr. Frankie Richardson at the organ.

A THOUGHT Since God has been so good to us, let us reach out and touch somebody's hand and make this world a better place. We know we

Smithfield

BY MRS. LILLIE M. LEE SMITHFIELD - Have faith in God, fight the good fight of faith and take hold of the eternal life to which you were called when you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses

I Timothy 6:12. First Baptist folk celebrated the 105th church anniversary Sunday with all church choirs participating. The oldest Deacon, Mr. Leonard Sanders, was presented a plaque. The presentation was made by Deacon John E. Watson. The church history was roll call by Mrs. R. C. Dublin. The sermon was delivered by the pastor, Rev. J. B. Woodhouse with a subject on "The Lukewarm Church." This certainly was beautifully done and every word spoken was the pure gospel truth. The Woodhouse Male Chorus sang and touched a beautiful key with "Christ Is All." Surely this is a great choir and they need to sing often. We are certainly grateful to God for the many members who paid and went all the way with the rally. God blessed us to have over $6,000. The Wesley Chapel Church has begun a week's drive beginning Monday and continuing thru Friday. Rev. Woodhouse and Rev. W. H. Lucas Club is asking you to please are speakers.

Our Sunday School enrollment is still climbing. Will you help us to continue to do so? We thank all of our neighbors ad Lawrence Parker is exalted. friends for their presence each Sunday morning.

The congregation at St. Peter's Church enjoyed a wonderful sermon Sunday morning delivered by their pastor, Rev. F. W. Burney.

Members of the Galilee Baplate Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Wal- nesday night. They also report a very fine attendance and Connected with many com- a very good church conference

Mrs. Margaret Sanders and Miss Hazel Williams have returned home after spending several days visiting friends and

Mr. Ira Bryant and daughe ter. Diane of Washington, D. C. were home for the weekend, Mr. and Mrs. John Bryant, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Sherrill Barfield spent the weekend in South Carolina. Miss Frances Hinton of Raleigh spent the weekend here with her mother, Mrs. Effic Frazier. Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Woodhouse had Sunday guests from 🔻 Elizabeth City. Letha D. Brooks, Jr. of Hampton, Va. spent some time here with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Offie Williams. Mrs. Augusta Norfleet, Mr. and Mrs. Billie Tomlinson and children were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Tomlinson. Mr. and Mrs. James A. Solomon and children of Lumberton are spending some time here with Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Solomon. Mr. and Mrs. Julius Walker and daughter of Washington, D. spent the weekend with the olomons also.

Will you please breathe a prayer for our many sick and shut-ins? They include Mesdames Della Williams, Phallie Newkirk, Viola 'Tonkins, Bessie Layton, Addie Sanders, Messers, H. F. Palmer and Wade Winson. Convalescing at home is Mrs. Madeline Alexander.

Mrs. Virginia Lewis is visit ing her children in Wilmington, Mrs. Mable McNeill and daughter, Priscilla, are visiting relatives in Lumberton. A THOUGHT What is your relationship with

Princeton

at St. Paul AME Church at 7:30 BY MRS. GOLDIE HARDY PRINCETON - Mrs. Mary be in session with some of the Bell Slyman of Goldsboro, Mr. mont and Mr. Hilder, Howell of On Monday, July 19 at 8 p.m. Washington, D. C. visited Mrs. at the Wesley Foundation on Nancy Howell Monday of last

Mrs. Edith Berry of Goldsboro accompanied by her sister. On Sunday at 8 p.m. the St. Miss Mary Vaughn, Mrs. Shirley Joseph CME Church rendered Tuck of Mount Union, Pa. and a very fine program. The New Mrs. Minnie Dickson of Golds-Generation Singers of Dur- boro visited Mrs. Goldie Hardy and mother last Friday evening.

Mrs. Barbara Witherspoon witnessed a great fellowship held a cook-out last Saturday service with the guest speaker, evening at her home. Those who the Rev. Thomas Hoyt, Jr. of attended were Miss Marie Raw-Durham and the St. Joseph Male ling, Walker Rawling, Jr., Mr. Chorus of Chapel Hill and its and Mrs. Robert Rawling, Magaline, Carolyn and Emma Raw-Mrs. Maude Oldham left by ling, Alberta, Gwendolyn, Janplane for Pasadena and San ice Jones and Ann Raynor. Special guests were Miss Doris Home from the hospital is Sanders of Smithfield and Cal-Mrs. Connie Mason. Also Mrs. vin Elliott of Fort Bragg.

Margaret Barbee, Mr. Jim A THOUGHT Whatever you think, both in joy and in woe, think nothing

Feltonville

BY MRS. MARY MOSS FELTONVILLE - Sunday School met at the regular hour with Rev. W. M. Baker in charge. We had a very fine lesson which was enjoyed by all. At Il o'clock Sister Betty Warren of Raleigh delivered the sermon. She used as a text

You Paid Your Fare To Board This Ship?" It was a touching message.

Job 1:3 and her theme was "Have Sister Estelle Cozart sang a solo. At 7:30 p.m. the Family Circle was on a program at the Safety Club in Raleigh Sunday. On each I through 3rd Suaday you are welcome to worship with

The Sunday School will take the children to the park in Raleigh on the 4th Sunday. The Women's Day program was very successful. We visit to thank all who participated.

Our sick and shut-ins are

Bro. John Lee Cozart, Bro. Jonnie Mosley, Bro. James Pergiven by Mrs. C. G. Ennis; cell and Bro. Dallas Powell. Our prayers go out to them. Happy birthday to all who celebrated birthdays this past week.

> The people of Feltonville are still in hope of getting water. The youth growing program here is doing real well. Thanks again to Mr. McClain and others who made their program possible. We have on roll 65 children > and we appreciate any item that may be used for them to play with. Please call 362-7475 if you wish to donate anything. The superintendent wishes to thank each family who cooperated in giving money to help cut. The president of the Love get in touch for the pageant of Miss Feltonville.

Visitors were many last weekend, Mr and Mrs. S. Baker of New York, Mr. McKekhan and family of New York visited friends here, Mr. Walter Hayes of Chapel Hill, Mrs. Raymond Lewis and family of Durham, Mrs. Ulysses Cozart of Durham visited Mrs. Estelle Cozart. Mrs. Beatrice Lundy has guest from New York. Mrs. Lundy visited her grandson in South Carolina.

Mrs. Ida Latimore had guests from St. Mary's and Mrs. John Lee Cozart had friends from Greenlevel.

The Feltonville Baseball Club still is enjoying good sports-manship. Mr. Zollie Moss ad Mr. Roosevelt Thompson are the managers. They are planning a trip to the beach soon.