

GABBING About Town

BY MRS. A. H. THORPE TELEPHONE- 832-3029

Give me the faith that asks not why I shall know God's plan by and by...

HOME FROM HOSPITAL Friends of Mrs. Erma Banks Jones of 530 E. Cabarrus St. will be happy to know that she is now home from the hospital and observed another birthday on Monday, July 19.

PATIENT AT WAKE MEMORIAL

Friends of Mrs. Helen Lockley of 432 Lansing St. will be sorry to know that she is a patient at Wake Memorial Hospital.

RECENT HOUSE GUEST Mrs. Bertha Lomax of 1116 S. Spaulding St. had as her recent guest her former daughter-in-law, Mrs. Katie K. Brown of Philadelphia, Pa.

Brother Edward Holloway's Gospel Highlights

SICK Mr. Johnnie Myatt and mother, W. Gilcrest.

While vacationing this week I had a chance to visit with friends and relatives, especially visited the sick. I had a wonderful visit with Aunt Sylvia Dunn who is well over 1000-year old.

As we worshipped last Sunday in our various beautiful services, we prayed that God would comfort all who are sad of heart because the illness of Love ones, Restore the voices of joy and gladness to us, give the comfort of your help again and let your free spirit establish us in liberty of the sons of God, so shall we sing your praise.

Remember, In thee O God, we put our trust. MRS. BETHEA Hear us when we call, O God, of my righteousness. Thou hast enlightened me when I was in distress have mercy upon me and hear my prayer. Our hearts are saddened as we think of some of our sick that we immediately know such as Rev. C. S. Stoud,

Mr. Rugus Twitty, Mrs. Matie Watts, Mrs. Ida White, Mr. S. Herman Williams, Mr. William Myers, Mrs. Mattie Watts.

Congratulations to Miss Brenda Cannady for speaking up for her school, Ligon High. I hope her young people of the Ligon School will speak up as this young lady has done and endeavor to save the school as she has done.

This writer has worked as a substitute teacher on various occasions and she feels it will be a pathetic situation to loose our high school. Work hard in various ways to keep our school as it is.

Black power simply means look at me, I'm here, I have dignity, pride, roots and I insist and demand that I participate in those decisions that affect my life and lives of my children. It means that I'm somebody.

UPSILON CHAPTER TO AID WOMEN Upsilon Chapter, Iota Phi Lambda Sorority, Inc., held its first meeting, since initiation, on Friday, July 16, at the home of Soror Delores Clements to make plans for their future endeavors.

Iota Phi Lambda Sorority, Inc. was founded in Chicago, Illinois in June, 1929, by Mrs. Lola M. Parker and six other women, all of whom were engaged in the field of business.

This organization seeks to unite in a sisterhood, qualified business and professional women; to organize chapters where a sufficient number of qualified women reside; to promote interest in business education among high school and college girls through planned programs and scholarships; to encourage, development of personalities for all areas of leadership and further intellectual development of its members through higher education.

Iota seeks to develop leadership among its members and encourage them to learn new techniques and methods of business operations. It gives mutual assistance to members engaged in business and professional activities.

The first effort of Upsilon Chapter is to build a scholarship fund, which will be used on a local and national level.

Newly elected officers of Upsilon Chapter are: Soror Delores Clements, president; Soror Vernice McNeill, vice-president; Soror Marcella Gregory, recording secretary; Soror Joycelyn Honeyblue, corresponding secretary; Soror Shirley Hunt, financial secretary; Soror Mary Newton, treasurer; Soror Macine Powell, dean of pledges; and Soror Sandra Royster, journalist.

Although few in number, Upsilon Chapter is dedicated to the challenge of carrying out the objectives of its organization, one of which is to add prestige to the field of business.

CHARMETTS MEET The Charmetts Social Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Newkirk on Campbell Dr. last Monday with the president, Mrs. Brooksie Farrar, presiding. Business of importance was discussed. The club celebrated Mrs. Marion Banks' birthday. She received many gifts.

The hostess had a treat for all and the members enjoyed a splendid evening.

Present were Mesdames Brooksie Farrar, Beatrice Flowers, Josephine Newkirk, Nina Boyce, Luia Williams, Marion Banks, Doris Unstead, Mary Vinson, Ben Alice Gilchrist, Helen Smith.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Josephine Newkirk on Bunch Drive.

Hostess for the Monday meeting was Mrs. Catherine Newkirk.

PETE'S PICKINS

BY W. A. "PETE" WILDER

Mr. Lewis Dunbar led a group of Elks and friends to Atlantic Beach last weekend. They reported a lovely stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dunmoore, Baltimore, Md. were in the city as guests of his mother, Mrs. Essie Dunmoore on the holiday weekend. They were accompanied by their lovely teenage daughter.

Don't be swept off your feet by some writers. The man responsible for the track meet in Durham was Dr. Leroy Walker. It attracted more than 34,000 people. So it becomes the Pan-American track meet No. 1 the Rose Bowl in Durham No. 2. Congratulations, Dr. Walker!

I saw Johnny Montague last week. Some of you might not know Johnny, but James "Sheik" Hill does. Johnny was that speedy, hard hitting third baseman for the Idlewild Panthers of the Twilight League.

That team had Gal Guess at first, Haggy Smith at second, George Wimbish at short, Frosty Hicks, catching, Mort Robinson in centerfield, Lawrence Scales in leftfield, Lewis Miller or Ed Syms in right. Hal Syms, Lo Baldwin for the most part did the pitching. Hal could and did catch as well. Johnny is the guest of his nieces, Mrs. Ernestine Wright, Mrs. Lillie H. Hodge and Mrs. Charlotte Green.

The Rev. D. L. Morrison, the popular pastor at St. Matthew AME Church, left out to Los Angeles, Calif., last Sunday night to be present at a national meeting of the heads of the church. He is expected back for the weekend.

Mrs. Florence Sanders, Delany Drive is reported "much better". Her many friends will be happy to take note.

Mrs. Dorothy Allen, the moving spirit of Wake Opportunities, Inc., was hospitalized Sunday at Wake. The entire community joins me in wishing a speedy recovery.

The Raleigh Woman's Club No. 3 took a seven-day trip to Niagara Falls, Montreal and Quebec. They returned by the way of Maine, Boston, New York City. In New York they visited Radio City and Hyde Park, thence to Arlington Cemetery at Arlington, Va. to visit the grave of the late John F. Kennedy, Williamsburg, Va., then home. There's no telling where they're going next. Ladies, where?

Mr. W. H. "Lanky" Peace and a group of some 33 other men of distinction from this city, journeyed last weekend to Pittsburgh, Pa., to see the Pirates and the Dodgers. Noticeably missing from the gang were Dr. W. F. Clark, Mr. "Biggie" Ligon, deceased, and Mr. David "Sport" Haywood, deceased. Returning members were perfectly thrilled with the trip.

Mrs. Esther Michael, S. Haywood St., continues on the sick and shut-in list. Her many friends are deeply concerned about her.

Mr. Joseph Kearney, one of Raleigh's oldest brick masons and a resident of 521 S. Haywood St., also continues on the sick and shut-in list. His many friends wish for him a rapid recovery.

Mrs. Susan F. Leach, 621 E. Cabarrus St., continues on the sick and shut-in list. Her friends should call her some times. You know "Floss."

St. Matthew AME Church closed a lovely revival at its own sanctuary with Rev. Nathaniel Gaylord, pastor of St. Paul AME Church as evangelist for the week. He was aided by Rev. L. P. Perry and the membership and choir of Grace Chapel AME Zion Church on Tuesday night. Visiting ministers and choirs held forth at the devotional opening.

The Volunteers Club met at the home of Mrs. Ina Sanders, E. Martin St., Tuesday night. After a brief business session, a lively social hour was enjoyed. Mr. D. Lorenzo Sanders is president.

While I know everybody had a real fourth of July Freedom celebration, the United Progressive Club really did themselves proud at the job. Homes of Mr. and Mrs. Howard F. Smith and Mrs. Theresa Atwater on S. Wilmington St. At the appointed hour food began to make its appearance from all directions and in all types of conveyances. Tables jumped up and set themselves in order, chairs fell in order at small tables. Beautiful women and handsome men gaily bedecked, came to serve and be served.

I'd love to tell you what was there! Baked fish, barbecued chicken, fried chicken, green butterbeans, beef roast, pickled peaches and crab apples, string beans and ham, corn on the cob, macaroni salad, potato salad, hot rolls, barbecue ribs, pickled beets, lettuce and tomatoes, franks, hamburgers and bread. I almost said it and the sobering refreshments.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith, Mr. Charlie Smith, Philadelphia, Pa., Mrs. Christine Smith, New York City, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ricketts, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. George Jenkins, Mr. Lonnie Holder, James Hardy, Leonard Hardy, Miss Hattie Jones, Sam Horton, Miss Susie Smith, Mrs. Pearl McDonald, Miss Winifred Lee, Mrs. Mary Ransome, Willie Cooley, Mrs. Dorothy Sanders, Mrs. Julia Burt, Leonard Wilder, Ronald Debnam, Vernon Hester, Mrs. Minnie L. Adams, Max Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Owens, Mrs. J. Lucas, James Rogers, William Sanders, the Minnie Adams family, Miss Claudia Faison, Alfred Anderson and yours truly. You can bet we are looking forward to July 4, 1972.

While I was out of print, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith and Charlie Smith of Philadelphia, Pa. and Mrs. Christine Smith, New York City were guests of their sisters, Mrs. Pearl McDonald and Miss Susie Smith, 119 S. Tarboro St.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Cothran, formerly of this city, but now residents of Philadelphia, Pa. spent their vacation with Mr. Cothran's mother, Mrs. Alma Cothran, Montague Place.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Holder, Bunche Drive, entertained the members of the Progressive Social Club at their home last weekend. Hamburgers, hot dogs and other "Lomlie-style refreshments" were the order of the day. It is really swell that Lonnie can do something aside from "trying to fish."

Let us pray: Dear God, sometimes we feel so lonely and far away, but we are, so thankful that we can call on Thee for Thou art our refuge and our strength, a very present help in trouble. Thou who art always near to us when we earnestly seek Thee, grant us the will to seek and the joy of finding Thee through Jesus. Speak to our hearts when courage fails. Lift up the light of Thy countenance upon us when we are lonely and discouraged. Our lives are so filled with haste and hurry and we need Thy peace to give us poise and Thy power to help us in the duties of the day. This we pray, in Jesus' name, Amen.

Our lives are so filled with haste and hurry and we need Thy peace to give us poise and Thy power to help us in the duties of the day. This we pray, in Jesus' name, Amen.

Let us pray: Dear God, sometimes we feel so lonely and far away, but we are, so thankful that we can call on Thee for Thou art our refuge and our strength, a very present help in trouble. Thou who art always near to us when we earnestly seek Thee, grant us the will to seek and the joy of finding Thee through Jesus. Speak to our hearts when courage fails. Lift up the light of Thy countenance upon us when we are lonely and discouraged. Our lives are so filled with haste and hurry and we need Thy peace to give us poise and Thy power to help us in the duties of the day. This we pray, in Jesus' name, Amen.
