THE CAROLINIAN RALEIGH. N. C., SATURDAY, JULY 24, 1971 News And Views

BY J. B. HARREN

AGOMIZING WITH AGNEW ROCKY MOUNT - This nation-even the world-has agnoized much at the various "hot" sayings by Vice President Apiro Agnew as he travels and makes utterances calculated to disturb friends and foe alike. His latest pop-off after visiting portions of Africa, where the Blacks largely determine their own destiny, is another instance of his mouth oscillating before his thought mechanism has considered all angles of the subject. One wonders why he does not apologize for some of his statements?

Apparently surprised at the progress of the Africans at selfgovernment, Mr. Agnew lambasted his own American Negroes by saying that they (we) had a lot to learn from the Africans - instead of complaining so much.

Millions will wonder if the loquacious Vice Prexy considers that the Africans are running their own government in the areas he visited, while the American Blacks are a part and parcel-supposedly-of the American government and have only a minute part in the determination of what laws and regulations

we live by and under?? Thus it is that Blacks here in America must keep continually prodding, pleading and demanding a greater share in the American Plan of Freedom and Independence, Somebody high up should so inform Mr. Agnew, even if they intend to drop him as Mr. Nixon's running-mate in 1972, as reported or intimated several times in the press. Neither the GOP nor the DEMS will make much progress with the Black vote so long as they continue to ignore their constitutional rights in all areas of American life! Meanwhile, President Nixon has made a long-overdue gesture in attempting to reconcile differences with Red China and other nations as well. Their entry into the family of the United Nations has been long past due.

We concur most heartily with the Charlotte city officials who dismissed an employee wno, ailegedly was the leader of the N. C. Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, because his philosophy and role as an official of the housing department would naturally clash.

Certainly, it would be very hard for Harold Murray, grand dragon of the N. C. KKK to deal fairly with Negroes because he admittedly must not believe in equality of the races, regardless of his being physically impaired.

It is sometimes too difficult to comprehend the role of the Civil Liberties Union as it defends cases like Murray's. Have you noticed the uproar ince the United Presbyterian Church USA gave $10,000 to the Angela Davis defense fund? There are hundreds of Blacks who do not sanction that contribution. Many of us do not feel that we should defend a Black regardless of what they have done.

the group. Participants from Gethsemane Baptist Church, Franklin County were introduced by Deacon O. L. Darden. Deacons Pat Spivey, Paul Glover and H. A. Clemmons lifted the offering in the amount of $75. A moment of prayer was observed for Pastor Foster

At Mt. Pisgah United Presbyterian Church USA, pastor Lloyd B. Morris urged that all citizens take a greater interest in the civic, religious and political happenings of their local, and national community to assure themselves and others of better living conditions. He urged that blacks register and vote more and thus rid themselves of many complaints and grievances.

BY MRS. EDNA WHITTEY AND MRS. ALICE WILLIAMS GARNER - On Sunday morning. July 18. 11 o'clock worship service was held at Wake Baptist Grove Church, with Dr. C. P. Briley presiding.

The senior choir sang the processional hymn, "O Holy Savior," with Mrs. Pearl Moore at the organ. Morning prayer was offered by Dr. Briley. The senior ushers lifted mission offering and prayer was offered by Mr. Bernard Williams. The responsive reading was led by Mrs. Livia Bumpers, followed by a selection.

Our scripture lesson was from Matthew 3:10-17, read by Dr. Briley, followed with prayer by Deacon Smith of Good Samaritian Baptist Church. The hymn by the choir was "Leave It There." Our youth period was conducted by Dr. Briley. The offetory prayer was given by Dr. Briley, with Deacon Dexter Avery in charge of the offering. Following the spiritual "Stand

By Me," and the announcements by Mrs. Mary Mangum, Dr. Briley delivered a soul-stirring message. His text was taken from Matthew 3:16-17. He used as a subject, "God's Endorsement of Baptism."

Dr. Brilev is now preaching series of sermons on John the Baptist. He pointed out there are five Johns in the Bible and all five speak of the truth of God. the word of God is from God to man. He pointed out the water baptism and the spiritual baptism, showing where we all need both. For a voice from heaven said "This is my beloved son in whom Iam well pleased." Christ will baptize you with the Holy Ghost. Remarks were made by Rev. Nathaniel Sapp. We were happy to have our

MRS. SLADE, NORTH END BAPTIST SPEAKER

Woman's Day was observed at North End Baptist Church Sunday with the president of the Women's Home and Foreign Mission Convention of North Carolina, Mrs. Vera M. Askew Slade, as the speaker, with several members of her staffpresent.

Co-chairmen of the program were Mrs. Rachel Lee and Mrs. Lillie Mercer, who enjoyed the cooperation of Mesdames Lena Kay, Beatrice Edge, Erma Arrington, Lucille Bethea, Rosa Pope and Beulah Faison.

Mrs. Slade of Bertie-Hertford counties area, is the female leader of the nearly 300. -000 Black Baptists in Tarheelia, having served three years in urging greater participation in mission work by men as well as women and youths. She reminded that "There is a place for all to do some form of mission work in the church and community" and urged that women not keep silent until they have exerted their best efforts to improve their homes, schools, churches, local and State governme .* through getting others to mairicipate.

"It is n. longer a day for women to keep silent while so much evi iurks, not alone in the shadows but in the open as well to destroy our homes and nation," she said.

Other program participants included: The Gospel Choir with Mrs. M. July as organist; Mesdames Florence Hines, Sally Watson, Irene James, Julia Pettiway, Evelyn Bulluck, Mittle Williams, Lillian Walker, Annie Bulluck, A. McKnight, Lillian S. Pittman and Ossie Joyner. The Rev. Elbert Lee Jr., pastor, gave t' closing remarks of appreciation and the benediction.

At Little Hope Baptist Church, Rev. Terrance V. Foster Sr., minister was hospitalized and could not attend the Men's Day afternoon program which featured the Rev. Bovise R Felder of Sycamore Hill Baptist Church, Greenville, N. C., as guest preacher along with "Bud" Norcuit, church organist in Greenville for more than 40 years, who presented a men's cherus supplemented with some local talent. Mrs. Mary Taylor, a retired teacher accompanied lie Leach of Raleigh, worship with us, as well as all other visitors. We would also like to invite our friends to worship with us each first and third Sunday and attend Sunday school each Sunday morning. Mrs. Ella Leach is Sunday school superintendent.

The Reality Of A Longtime Dream

BY REV. WALTER PHILLIPS SUNSET ACRES THE NEGRO SPEAKS

APEX - Preparing our 18year-olds, the generation of the fifties, for the awesome responsibility of political and social assimilation, is or should be the task of the older leaders who have contributed something to the contemporary American scene.

Benjamin Elijah Mays was born in Epworth, S. C. where he graduated from high school and college at the South Carolina State College; from there he went to Bates College, Maine where because of scholastic excellence, he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. He received the M. A. and Ph. D. after long years of study at the University of Chicago. He began his teaching career at Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga., where he was elected President in 1940. Dr. Mays was the principle speaker on Founder's Day, Livingstone College, senior center of higher learning of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church, Salisbury, 1964. "We spend millions," said

Dr. Mays, "We demonstrate, we sit-in, picket, boycott, go to jail, and some have died trying to integrate and desegregate the United States. For what? To what end? The press, the radio, and television have devoted more time to this question in the last ten years than to any other single topic. Congress is wrangling over it.
