Feltonville

BY MRS. MARY MOSS
FELTONVILLE - Sunday School met at Felton Grove Church at the usual hour with Rev. W. M. Baker in charge. The subject of the lesson was "Why the Family." It was a very interesting lesson.

At 11 o'clock the three classes of the School went to Pullen Park in Raleigh where all enjoyed a marvelous time. You are welcome to worship with us each first through third Sundays.

At 2 p.m. Mrs. Estelle Cozart spoke at the Christian Home Church in Apex.

At 7:30 p.m. the Family Circle appeared on a program at St. Mary's Church.

Revival is in progress at Felton Grove. Rev. N. A. Trice is the guest speaker. Come and help us fight sin and Satan this week.

Our sick and shut-ins are Bro. Johnnie Mosley, Bro. John Lee Cozart and Bro. James in our prayers.

Visitors were few this past weekend. The Moss family was very happy to have Mrs. Dorothy Scott visit them from Raleigh. We are also happy to have Mrs. Beatrice Lundy home as she has been visiting in South Carolina.

Happy birthday to all who celebrated a birthday this week.

Little Belvia Moore is spending the summer in New York. The Feltonville baseball club is still on the go and having fun. They played a home game Saturday and was defeated by the Friendship team. Also the girls' team will be playing on Tuesday night in Raleigh.

Mr. Robert Powell is the manager of the girls. The Feltonville area will hire a bus to go to the beach in August. Watch the paper for the date.

Our special people are those who love the Lord.

Kinston Gets Improvement Fed. Grant

Robert A. Podesta, assistant secretary of Commerce for Economic Development, today announced approval of a $1,044,230 grant to help create new job opportunities and stimulate diversified industrial growth in Lenoir County.

The funds from the Economic Development Administration, U. S. Department of Commerce, will go to the city of Kinston, a growth center for the Neuse River Economic Development District.

The project involves enlargement of the city's water and sewer systems. Kinston officials report the project will enable the Domestic Manufacturing Corp. to add 68 new workers and Text Industries, Inc., 288. It also will open other areas to industrial development, thereby providing for future growth.

In applying for the Federal funds, the local officials stated that the new jobs will be open to the unemployed or underemployed residents of the Neuse River District.

As a growth center, Kinston is conducting a broad-based program to diversify the area's economy and to create new jobs for farm workers displaced by the mechanization of agriculture.

The project approved today will serve Lenoir Community College, which is providing occupational training programs to help residents of the area qualify for industrial employment.

The U. S. Environmental Protection Agency is making a $930,270 grant and the Coastal Plains Regional Commission, a $160,000 grant for the waste-treatment phase of the project. The city of Kinston will provide $1,814,500 in local funds to complete the $3,949,000 total cost.

In addition to extending the water and sewer lines to serve industrial and residential areas, the funds will enable the city to build a waste-treatment plant and pumping stations.

Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it Holy, which we hope we all did during this past weekend.

As we write this Tuesday morning, we are thinking of those who feel heart-broken over those loved ones who have left this earthly home to visit with God in that Heavenly home.

We are thankful for the better physical conditions of some of our church members and loved ones, who are sick, but are on the way to improvement as God heard our prayers in their behalf.

They are Mrs. Mattie Watts, South Marshall St., Graham; Mr. William Myers, Knollwood Nursing Home; Mrs. Louise Brightwell Webb, Rex Hospital; Mrs. Janie Atkins, Dr. R. N. Bell, Miss Frances Birdsall, Mrs. Mittle Haywood, Mrs. Beulah Holt, Rev. C. S. Stroud, Mr. Thomas Wucoc, who remains in critical condition. Remember, God is able, Let His faithful and beloved wife know we all are praying for him as well as all of our sick friends and neighbors.

The many friends of Mrs. Mildred McElrath are glad to know that she is the well and out again.

Soror Edith M. Trice will represent the Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority at the Boule in Dallas, Texas when it meets August 1 through 7th. Accompanying her will be the following: Sorors Mamie S. Haywood, Regional Granmatous; Victoria Walters, National Board member; Ruth
