

FROM RALEIGH'S OFFICIAL POLICE FILES THE CRIME BEAT

PURSUER STRUCK

Willie Crowder 804 East Jones St. allegedly told Officer F.L. Rountree at 2:20 p.m. Sunday that he and his girlfriend, Jean, were having some words in front of 1505 E. Jones Street when she ran into the house at 1505 East Jones. Mr. Crowder followed, and was met by a Mr. Jack Goodloe, who defended the girl and struck Crowder, according to official Police reports. The reports indicate that Crowder was struck with a china plate, resulting in a two inch cut on the left side of his face.

DOES DAMAGE

Joseph Deloatch 1127 S. State St. Apt. 9 told Officer C. Troublefield that Saturday at 11:00 p.m. he was approached by an unknown subject that threatened to, and did damage his personal property by breaking the front window of his home, according to official Police reports. Mr. Deloatch allegedly stated that the subject, a Colored male, approximately 28 years old, said that he, the complainant Deloatch, was dating his girlfriend, and he was going to put a stop to it. The reports indicate that Deloatch further stated that the same subject did threaten to do bodily harm to him also. He also stated he would sign warrants for the subject's arrest as soon as he found out the subject's name, according to Police reports.

WOMAN CUT

Myrna Bass Hinton 1124 Savannah Dr. allegedly told Officer Robert Jones Jr. that at 8:00 a.m. Saturday her husband, James Hinton, and her brother, James Bass, were at her home having "a fuss" when Hinton drew a knife on Bass. The reports indicate that the complainant grabbed the knife with her right hand from her husband, and lost her balance, as the knife accidentally slipped through her hand inflicting a three cut. The investigating Officer noted that such an accident was not an accident, and she should see a magistrate and explain the situation to him.

THREATENS TO KILL

Ida Mae Smith, 208 Spence St., told Officer C. Troublefield at 1:08 a.m. Saturday that she along with the other residents of 208 Spence St. were threatened by Bobby Dew, age 33, according to official Police reports. The reports indicate that Dew threatened to kill all the occupants of the same address after he had become very angry and indifferent. The reports indicate that Miss Smith stated she had signed warrants for assaults against Dew earlier the same day the threats were made; nevertheless, Dew did shoot a 12 gauge shotgun through the front window of the house, striking the complainant in the head region. The complainant suffered minor damage and bruises to the head, but was treated and released from the Wake Memorial Hospital Emergency Room, according to Police reports. The reports indicate that Miss Smith did sign another warrant on Dew for assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill.

THREATENED

John Davis 700 Coleman St. allegedly told Officer C. Troublefield that at 12:05 a.m. Saturday while he was attending to a party at the above mentioned address, he was approached by some unknown Colored male that was angry with him for some unknown reason. He stated that the subject did threaten to kill him while pointing a .22 caliber pistol to his head, according to official Police reports. The reports indicate that Davis was positive he didn't know any reason for the mishaps, and that he could recognize the subject if seen again.

ASSAILED IN LOT

Alice Williams 11 Saint Augustine Avenue told Officer T.T. Street that at 11:50 p.m. Friday someone identified only as Charles took her to a vacant lot in the 1200 block of East Jones St., according to official Police reports. Charles allegedly tried to get her to remove her clothes, and he beat her when she refused. The reports indicate that the complainant, Alice Williams, later said her husband, Raymond Williams beat her. She allegedly had been drinking.

"FINGERS" HUSBAND

Mrs. Dorothy Mayo Morgan, 36, 1309 Raleigh Boulevard, told Officer T.T. Street, Jr., at 1:50 a.m. Saturday, that she and her husband, Walter Morgan, 27, got into an argument about a stereo needle. The woman said the argument developed into a fight and Mrs. Morgan was struck on the head with a bar stool. Mr. Morgan told Officer Street that he hit his wife with the bar stool because she had a butcher knife after him. The woman said she would sign a warrant, charging assault with a deadly weapon. She suffered a four inch laceration on the back of the head. The incident occurred at their apartment.

CUT ON ARM

Miss Rosa Lee Smith, 31, 608 Dorothea Drive, reported to a cop at 12:14 p.m. last Wednesday, that Aubrey Wall, 38, same address, cut her because she had been staying "up the street with a boyfriend." Miss Smith, according to the offense report, had also been staying with Wall at the Dorothea Drive address. The complainant was advised to sign an assault with a deadly weapon warrant against Mr. Wall. Miss Smith's right arm was cut with a butcher knife.

CHOKING REPORTED

Miss Trenton Edwards, 36, 313 E. Cabarrus Street, informed Officers M.K. Billingsley and Ralph Clayborne at 1:35 a.m. Saturday, that she got into an argument with Johnnie Groggins, 54, same address, and he began choking her around the neck with his hands. No other information was listed on the offense report.

USES COKE BOTTLE

Mrs. Alice Alston Garrett, 38, 822 S. Blount Street, told Officer H.L. Rushing at 8:33 p.m. Friday, that she got into a "fuss" with a subject named Bill, whose last name she did not know. She said Bill struck her on the head with a Coca-Cola bottle at her house.

CHAIN IS WEAPON

Miss Ruby Jean Clark, 15, Grantland Drive (Apollo Heights), reported to Officer A. L. Watson at 11:49 a.m. Thursday, that Lucky Hudson and Miss Martha Hinton were fighting at 756 Lunar Drive (also Apollo Heights). The girl said she attempted to stop the battle, but Hudson struck her across the back with a chain. The young woman suffered bruises and cuts on the back.

WALLET "SWIPE"

Samuel Pierce, Route 1, Knightdale, informed a cop at 5 a.m. Sunday, that he went to a house on Walnut Street and while there, someone stole his wallet, containing $4.00 in cash.

"SLICED" ON FACE

Miss Mary Elizabeth Roberson, 21, 19 Nash Terrace, told a cop at 1:19 a.m. Friday, that during an argument with Miss Queen Powell, 23, Garner Road, she was assaulted by the woman. Miss Roberson, who suffered a six inch cut on the right side of her face, was taken to Wake Memorial Hospital for treatment. She said she would sign a warrant, charging assault with a deadly weapon. The cutting took place at Miss Roberson's apartment.
